UNKNOWN MET- TERRIBLE DEATH.

Pennsylvania Railroad Train
Claimed Victim.

A well dressed young man about 25 years of age met instant death Wednesday morning at Wanatah. He was killed by a westbound Pennsylvania milk train, on which the fellow is thought to have been a passenger. His head was severed from his body and his body was badly mangled.

The young fellow is a stranger and was seen to get off the west bound train shortly after 8 o'clock. The train pulled out in a few minutes but he was not seen afterwards until his dead body was found near the coaling station, west of the depot.

CLOSEST GAME OF SEASON
WON AT BREMEN WED-NESDAY SCORE 2 TO
1—ARGOS PLAY
HERE SUN-DAY.

The most closely contested ball game of the season, was won by the Clippers at the Bremen fair, Wednesday. The Nappanee Royal Tigers who claim the semi-professional championship of Northern Indiana, were the victims, and the score was 2 to 1.

The summaries were as follows:

Nappanee Tigers	R	H	E	A	P
Group 2b	0	0	0	2	3
Wysong 1b	1	1	0	0	10
A. Tobias p	0	1	0	3	8
H. Tobias 3b	0	0	0	1	0
Jones ss	0	0	2	2	0
Pratt cf	0	2	0	0	1
C. Tobias lf	0	0	0	0	1
Geys ri	0	0	0	0	1
Funk c	0	0	0	2	0
Total	1	4	2	10	24
Plymouth Clippers	R	H	E	A	P
Maggert lf	0	0	0	0	0
Tebay ss	0	0	0	2	0

Collier 1b	0	0	1	1	11
Harris 2b	0	1	0	2	3
Spade cf	0	1	0	1	2
Lindsley p	1	1	0	3	7
Born c	0	0	1	1	1
Total	2	4	3	11	27

Strike outs by Tobias 8, by Lindsley 6. Bases on balls, off Tobias 4, off Lindsley 2. Hit by pitched ball, by Tobias 1 by Lindsley 1. Two base hits Wysong. Time of game 1:30.

The three errors made by Plymouth cost the one score which Nappanee made in the first inning. Wysong grounded to Blosser, who fumbled and allowed runner to make first base. Upon stealing second, Harris fumbled, a pass ball through Born advanced him to third, and a hit, scored the runner.

A long fly by Maggert brought in the winning score for Plymouth.

A large crowd attended the game and pronounced it one of the best ever witnessed on the Bremen diamond.

The Argos Grays will play the Clippers on the local diamond Sunday. The game will be the last one for the Clippers, and promises to be closely contested.
