Drouth Makes Work for Repair Shops

Have you any idea how many tires have been set every day during the drouth?

These dry days shrink the wood on wagon and carriage wheels and leave the iron tires too big. In ordinary weather, all that is necessary is to run the buggy or wagon into a creek bed and let it soak up a little water; that tightens the tires. But this year, when the drouth held on for three months, this old plan did not work. The result has been that the carriage repair shops have been busy.

Of course, if it is impossible to say just how much extra work the drouth has made in this line, but if it were possible to get the exact amount of money spent for shrinking tires during the drouth, the amount probably would be astonishingly large.

BEVERIDGE HERE NEXT MONDAY

SENATOR WILL MAKE TRIP OF FIVE DAYS NEXT WEEK DELIVERING SIXTY-FIVE SPEECHES—FIVE MEETINGS AT NIGHT.

Senator Albert J. Beveridge, will be in Plymouth for a couple of hours, on Monday, Oct. 26th, and deliver a short address here. On the same day he will visit and speak at thirteen other places.

Senator Beveridge will make a thorough canvass of the state. Five night meetings will be held. Monday night's meeting will be held at Richmond, Wednesday night's meeting will be at Evansville, Thursday night's meeting at Anderson and Friday night's meeting at LaPorte, where the tour will close.

The special will leave Chicago at 7 o'clock next Monday morning. The train will stop at the following places:

Monday, Oct. 26—Crownpoint, North Judson, Knox, Walkerton, Plymouth, Warsaw, Columbia City, Garrett, Auburn, Angola, Waterloo, Kendallville, Avilla, Ft. Wayne.

Tuesday, Oct. 27—Decatur, Bluffton, Huntington, Logansport, Monticello, Delphi, Frankfort, Tipton, Elwood, Newcastle, Richmond.

Wednesday, Oct. 28—Cambridge City, Connersville, Rushville, Columbus, Bloomington, Washington, Evansville.

Thursday, Oct. 29—Clinton, Newport, Veedersburg, Attica, Williamsport, Goodland, Rensselaer, Monon, Lafayette, Lebanon Anderson.

Friday, Oct. 30—Muncie, Marion, Wabash, Peru, Rochester, North Manchester, Claypool, Milford, Goshen, Elkhart, Mishawaka, South Bend, LaPorte.

Shortly after the campaign opened Senator Beveridge began a tour of the West on a special train for the national committee. He completed his Western tour Saturday at Bartlesville, Okla. "I have received word," said Chairman Hays, "that Senator Beveridge carried everything by storm in Oklahoma."

During the first day of his Indiana tour Senator Beveridge will deliver fourteen speeches. On the second day he will deliver eleven, on the third day seven, the fourth day eleven and on the last day thirteen—a total of sixty-five speeches during the week. Senator Beveridge is one of the foremost orators in the country, and has always been greeted by large crowds. The Republican leaders believe that his tour will do the Republicans good in Indiana.

It has been announced that Indiana will get William H. Taft next Saturday night instead of Chicago. On that day Mr. Taft, with Senator Beveridge, will hold a big night meeting at Gary. Mr. Taft was to have gone to Chicago to speak at the rally to be held there Saturday night, and the national committee seemed determined to take him there. Chairman Hays, however, was insistent that Mr. Taft remain in Indiana Saturday night.

What Bryan's Election Means.

The Indianapolis News tries to convince itself that the laws and policies of the nation have little to do with the national prosperity of the land. It is futile to attempt to prove such a postulate. Laws and policies regulating commercial and industrial and agricultural affairs are to the nation what the business policies and the rules and regulations of a great industry are to the success of that industry. The methods determine whether or not the business is a success or failure, the rules and regulations determine the conduct of the employer and the employed, the processes of manufacture are governed by fixed laws applied to special conditions, and in this respect all are but the type of the relations of government to national movement and accomplishment. Change suddenly the plans and policies of a great industry, inject new and untried schemes, and at once comes a jar, a stoppage, a readjustment and a disaster. No shrewd business corporation makes radical changes in all directions at once, nor does it make them at any time so "hot" as a jar results. That is what Republicans are trying to avoid, but to accomplish needed alteration of policy so gradually and so evenly that needed reforms will be brought about with the least disturbance of movement.—Elkhart Review.

DURBIN SAYS IND. IS SAFE.

Ex-Governor W. T. Durbin was at Republican headquarters and at the request of Chairman Hitchcock he made a brief statement as to conditions in Indiana. He said:

"Indiana will give the national Republican ticket a majority of from 35,000 to 40,000. The state ticket will be elected by not less than 15,000. Indiana is normally Republican by 40,000. You may depend upon it the reports that there is any danger of the state being other than Republican in this election have no shadow of truth."

Cornelius N. Bliss ex-treasurer of the Republican committee had a conference Thursday with Treasurer Shalton, but no information as to the nature of the conference was given out.

Dispatchers Kept Busy.

Dispatchers on the Big Four and Pennsylvania railroads are kept busy looking after fires along the lines of the two companies and in many places the section force is being doubled and tripled. Operators have ordered to repair all fires to headquarters and steps are immediately taken to protect the property of the railroad companies.

"TOM MARSHALL FOR ME."

A Democratic Write Up of the Political Situation.

Louis Ludlow, a well known Democratic newspaper correspondent, writing from New Albany, Indiana says:

If you ask the average citizen down this way to point out the distinctive feature of the campaign in the Third District he will answer in this fashion: "Look how the brewers, the distillers, the brewery agents and the saloon keepers are bumping themselves for Tom Marshall!"

It is surprising how much activity the hosts of "liberality" and "personal license can put into a campaign when they try. In New Albany, Jeffersonville and other Ohio river towns the saloon forces are working like bees in a seething hive of political industry. Nothing like their present activity ever has been seen here before. Every liberal is trying to get a half-Nelson hold on every near liberal in order to throw him over the fence into the Tom Marshall camp.

The brewery bosses, the whiskey dealers, the saloon loungers and the varied and variegated devotees of the liquor business believe Mr. Marshall would attach his signature to a measure repealing the county local option law with the same sort of thrill that a young man experiences when he takes his pen in hand to write to his best girl. And they think they know Mr. Marshall pretty well, too.

Because they believe Mr. Marshall will be a good, tractable Governor, viewed from the brewery outlook, and will never give them the anxious nights and wearisome days of worry they have spent since Governor Hanly has been manipulating the helm of state, the liquor forces in this section are putting up the stiffest kind of a fight for Marshall and there isn't a bit of partisanship in it.

And the amazing feature of it is that they are not beating around the bush to do it. If anybody has the slightest doubt that the Democratic campaign has been captured by the liquor interests, which hope, through Democratic party, to secure control of the state government, let him come down here and be convinced.

Probably he might conclude that there is something significant in the fact that Mr. Marshall's attractive face, beaming from lithographs sent out by the state Democratic committee, has been the chief adornment of nearly all of the saloons in New Albany and Jeffersonville during the campaign that may be one straw showing which way the wind is blowing.

The chairman of the Democratic county committee of Floyd county is a saloon keeper named John J. Lyons. He is a good enough sort of chap personally, but he stands for the frothy, foamy idea in politics and stands for it hard. As far as is known the Democrats here have gone a step further than any of their brethren elsewhere in installing a saloon keeper to preside over their organization.

Mr. Lyons's west goes emporium is at 704 West Main street, New Albany. It is a sort of Democratic headquarters for the neighborhood. Every man who walks up to the bar to get his whiskey faces a lithograph of Mr. Marshall.

It is pretty about this, the Democratic party in this section has been captured, horse, foot and artillery, by Gen. Lieber's army of invasion, compared with which John Morgan's raid during the civil war was but a trifling circumstance. Every saloon keeper and hanger on is echoing the sentiment inscribed on the Democratic campaign button:

"Tom Marshall for Me."

Riot at Hammond.

In a riot in the Standard steel car district at Hammond one man was fatally and three others seriously injured. Anton Lasker, aged 35, had his throat cut and will die. B. Notik, Joe Lassak and Frank Fedoroff were also severely injured. Joe Jomowski and Fedoroff arrived in Hammond from Erie, Pa., looking for work. Jomowski visited Notik's saloon and started trouble. He drew a razor and ran amuck, slashing right and left, and for the timely arrival of the police several would have been killed.

OLD SOLDIERS RESENT ATTACKS

CIVIL WAR VETERANS ANGERED BY CHARGES IN CIRCULAR LETTERS SENT OUT BY SULLIVAN AGAINST WATSON.

That the old soldiers of the state are standing practically as a unit for James E. Watson is shown in reports that are being received at Republican state headquarters. The old soldiers the state over are resenting the attack on Watson and Goodwine made in the circular sent out by B. W. Sullivan of this city. It was reported yesterday that these circulars were sent out by the Democratic state committee, but it was denied at state headquarters. Democrats at county headquarters also disclaimed knowledge of it. Mr. Sullivan, however, has admitted writing the circular.

Capt. Eli Ritter, who was one of the committee which sought to have the bill providing an appropriation for the preservation of the state's battle flags, and who signed the report of the state G. A. R. encampment at Ft. Wayne which censured Senator Goodwine for an alleged attempt to defeat the passage of the bill, when asked about the circular gave out a statement yesterday in which he resented the attack on the Republican nominees. The report, signed by Capt. Ritter is embodied in the circular sent out by Sullivan. Capt. Ritter's statement was as follows:

"I know nothing at all about the preparation or who is sending these documents out. I suppose they are being scattered broadcast all over the state from the calls that are coming to me in regard to the same."

"I admit that one of the reports in this document was signed by me. I was not present, however, when the same was prepared, and it was brought to me when I was very busy, and I signed it carelessly without giving it proper attention. My attention was called to it soon after it was signed, and I repudiated the severe criticisms of Senator Goodwine which it contained."

"I take this occasion to state emphatically that I am for James E. Watson for Governor, Fremont Goodwine for Lieutenant Governor and W. H. Taft for President, and shall cast a vote to that effect the 3rd day of next November."

Jabez Smith, a veteran of Joel Wolfe Post, G. A. R., of Rushville, who has just completed a trip through the northern part of the state to ascertain the sentiment of the old soldiers, found that about 90 per cent. of veterans in the cities he visited declared for Watson.

Mr. Smith first visited the Anderson G. A. R. Post and found that out of 163 members, 161 intended to vote for Watson and Goodwine. At Marion he found only seven who would support Marshall out of the 219 members of the Post there. At Bluffton, a Democratic stronghold, half of the sixty-four members of the G. A. R. Post there said they intended to support Marshall. Mr. Smith found that out of the 190 members of the G. A. R. Post at Fort Wayne all but ten will support Watson. At Huntington fourteen of the seventy members of the G. A. R. Post there declared for Marshall.

Mr. Smith's next stop was made at Wabash, where 164 old soldiers were enrolled. Of this number 150 said they intended to vote for Watson. Mr. Smith next went to Peru, where he found that out of seventy-five G. A. R. members enrolled there fifty-five would support Watson. At Muncie he found that sixteen out of 184 G. A. R. veterans would support Marshall.

Democratic workers have been endeavoring to line up the old soldiers at the Lafayette and Marion Soldiers' Homes, but have failed to make much headway. At a recent Watson meeting at the Lafayette Home, old soldiers who wore Marshall buttons tore them from their coats after listening to Watson's address.

Union Prosperity Due to Taft.

At Canal Ford while making his speech the candidate was interrupted by an exclamation from the audience declaring, "Labor unions are gone."

"They are not gone. The labor organizations today are more prosperous, have more money, have more influence, have more lawful control than they ever had in their lives."

"The American Federation of Labor has increased its numbers 100 per cent. The International Typographical Union in its annual report, shows an increase from 28,000 to 45,000. They had $5,000,000. They had $250,000 in their treasury, and they never had such prosperity or influence in their lives, and the basis on which those organizations have been constructed has been the legal lines which I laid down in my opinions. Therefore, I claim that there is nobody in public life that has done more to legalize and give force and standing to labor unions than I have."

A Smart Girl.

Miss Mabel Sturtevant has just been admitted to practice at the bar at Jefferson City, Mo. Her record as a student is remarkable. She was graduated as valedictorian in Kansas City University and the curator's scholarship in the University of Missouri. Since enrolling in 1905 she has taken both the law and the academic course and will receive her degree next June.

Down in old Indiana.

Autumn nights all starlit,
Summ'rs azure haze,
Maple leaves banked all ablaze.

Bluejay and tomcat,
Sturdy lads who sing
Thro' summer days 'neath skies of blue
And brave grim winter's sting,
While feeble hearts to the south take wing.

The pathway winds beneath the hill,
Hard by the silent water mill
Into a forest of crimson gold,
Mystic mingling and manifold
Banners overhead are tossed—
Splendorous badinage of sun and frost.

Timorous quail is calling to his scattered band,
The hush of twilight's falling o'er the land;
The ebbing day in gold
And purple gleams,
Boydhood dreams
Are quickened in hearts grown old.

Shocks of corn with tasselled crest
As silent sentinels keep
Vigil o'er the stubbled field before
Long winter's rest,
And ere the sleep
Which yet the landscape's dreaming
Indian summer—banners streaming—
Lingers yet a little while in crimson
Gold and haze;
Autumn days,
Autumn days,
Down in old Indiana.

FARMER SHOT YOUTH IN LEG.

Three Young Men Shot at Dog on Porch.

Three young men from near Millersburg drove to Goshen Saturday evening. They found a target rifle in the buggy and bought cartridges. Returning home Saturday night they shot at a dog on the porch of a farm house, three miles southeast of Goshen. Returning they shot again, and the farmer opened fire on them with a revolver from the second story window. A bullet hit one of the young men in the calf of the leg, missing the bone. He drove to Goshen where the wound was dressed.

Players to Split $46,150.90

The players on the clubs in the world's championship series are richer by $46,150.90 from the receipts of the first four games, the only one from which they derive financial benefit. The winning team gets 60 per cent of this amount or $27,690.54. The losers must be content with $18,460.36, which is 40 per cent. Figuring twenty players to the team, each one on the championship club will draw down $1,383.47 while each loser will be consoled with $922.31.

BREWERY POSTERS NOT TRUTHFUL

were interviewed by a reporter of the Marion Chronicle every one of them declared that they were for Marshall for Governor. In this number were twenty Republicans. These saloon keepers boast that there is not one of their number in Marion but that is supporting Marshall for Governor. Emissaries of Thomas Taggart and the brewers have been working among the colored saloon keepers, bartenders and porters for saloons in all the large cities of the state and have represented to them that in the event of the election of Watson they will at once have to go out of business, thus deceiving them into the belief that is the election of Watson and not the successful issue of a county option election that will close up the saloons. They have also represented to the colored voters that their personal liberty to obtain a drink of liquor will be taken away.

The Modesty of Women

Naturally make them shrink from the delicate questions, the obvious examinations, and unpleasant local treatments, which some physicians consider essential in the treatment of diseases of women. Yet, if help can be had, it is better to submit to this ordeal than let the disease grow and spread. The trouble is that so often the woman undergoes all the annoyance and shame for nothing. Thousands of women who have been cured by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription write in appreciation of the cure which dispelled their troubles, and restores them to health. There is no other medicine so sure and safe for delicate women as "Favorite Prescription." It cures debilitated drains, irregularity and female weakness. It always helps. It is almost always cures. It is strictly non-alcoholic, non-secret, all its ingredients being printed on its bottle wrapper; contains no deleterious or habit-forming drugs, and every native medicinal root entering into its composition has the full endorsement of those most eminent in the several schools of medical practice. Some of these numerous and strongest professional endorsements of its ingredients, will be found in a pamphlet wrapped around the bottle, also in a booklet mailed free on request, by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. These professional endorsements should have far more weight than any amount of ordinary lay, or non-professional testimonials.

The most intelligent women now-a-days trust on knowing what they take as medicine. Instead of opening their mouths like a lot of young birds and gulping down whatever is offered them. "Favorite Prescription" is of known composition. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 21 cent stamp for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound. If sick consult the Doctor, free of charge by letter. All such communications are held sacredly confidential.

GREAT VALUE OF ENCAMPMENTS

As to the value of this schooling Gen. H. C. Corbin says in his last report: "The importance and utility of periodic concentration of troops of the regular army and organized militia in large camps must be apparent to both professional and layman. Of the regular army officers and men obtain experience in matters pertaining to organization, supply and tactical operation of large masses, impossible to obtain at their regular stations; the organized militia learn by experience and observation, numberless important military lessons in military administration, lessons which would otherwise be denied them, and share with the regular the opportunity of experience in those major matters to which reference has been made."

The last report of the Secretary of War shows that fifty States and Territories report organized militia forces under the law of 1903, with a total strength of 105,693, distributed as follows: General officers and general staff, 1,108; engineers, 1,050; cavalry, 3,970; heavy artillery, 2,459; light artillery, 3,340; machine gun batteries, 114; infantry, 90,822; signal corps, 1,100; hospital corps, 1,682. These figures include only the organized or drilled militia. Every State in the Union, including all of the Southern States, now report State organizations of militia, subject to national orders—Virginia, 2,133 troops; North Carolina, 1,807; South Carolina, 1,665; Georgia, 2,760; Alabama, 2,035; Louisiana, 1,521; Tennessee, 1,763; Texas, 2,151, and so on. Indiana reports 171 officers and 1,825 enlisted men; total, 1,996. Of the total appropriation of $2,000,000 in 1907, $1,500,000 went for arms, equipment and camp purposes, and $500,000 for the promotion of rifle practice. Of this Indiana received $44,882 on the first account and $14,961 on the second.

During the recent encampment many persons remarked upon the number of tall men among the troops, quite a number being six feet or more in height. According to statistics the average height of Americans, the country over, is 5 feet 7 1/4 inches, but the average height of men in the West and Northwest exceeds that of those in the East. It is believed that the mingling of races in the West has resulted in a slight increase of average stature. Some of the tall men even among the Wisconsin troops had the marks of Danish or Scandinavian extraction. The average height of the Danes at home, in Denmark, exceeds that of any other country in Europe except the Norwegians, and they seem to gain slightly in stature by transplantation to America, that is in the second generation. But it is believed the men of Indiana average in height fully up to those of any other State in the Union. On this point there is record evidence.

During the civil war a record was made of the height and ages of 118,254 Indiana soldiers. Of this number, not to mention those of less stature, there were 19,140 who were 5 feet 8 inches high; 15,472 measured 5 feet 9 inches; 15,047 measured 5 feet 10 inches; 8,706, 5 feet 11 inches; 6,679, 6 feet; 2,164, 6 feet 1 inch; 1,357, 6 feet 2 inches; 406, 6 feet 3 inches; 336, over 6 feet 3 inches. No American scientist stood higher than Mr. Gould. He was a personal friend of Arago and Humboldt and his opinion on any scientific question carried weight. His statement, after investigation and comparison, that "the Indiana men are the tallest of all nations of the United States" is very interesting. It shows that in this, as in other contests of merit, Indiana is "right in it."

Weak Kidneys

Weak Kidneys, simply put, to weak kidney nerves. The kidneys, like the heart, are the basis of life, but in the nerve that control and guide and strengthen them. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a medicine specifically prepared to reach these controlling nerves. To doctor the kidneys alone is futile. It is a waste of time, and of money as well.

When your back aches or is weak, if the urine is cloudy, or if you are tired, or if you have symptoms of Bright's or other distressing or dangerous kidney disease, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative at once. Tablets or Liquid—and see what it can and will do for you. Druggist recommended and sold.

Dr. Shoop's Restorative
L. TANNER.

Stomach troubles would more quickly disappear if the idea of treating the cause, rather than the effect, would come into practice. A tiny inside, hidden nerve, says Dr. Shoop, governs and gives strength to the stomach. A brace also goes to the heart and then to the kidneys. When these "inside nerves" fail, then the organs must falter. Dr. Shoop Restorative is directed specifically to these failing nerves. Within 48 hours after starting the Restorative treatment patients say they realize a gain. Sold by L. Tanner.

To quickly check a cold, druggists are dispensing everywhere, a clever Candy Cold Cure Tablet called Preventics. Preventics are also fine for feverish children. Take preventics at the sneeze stage, to head off all colds. Box of 48—25c. Sold by L. Tanner.

Stops earache in two minutes; toothache or pain of burn or scald in five minutes; hoarseness, one hour; muscle ache, two hours; sore throat, twelve hours.—Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, monarch over pain.

A pain prescription is printed upon each 25c box of Dr. Shoop's Pink Pain Tablets. Ask your Doctor or Druggist if this formula is not complete. Head pains, womanly pains, pains anywhere get instant relief from a Pink Pain Tablet. Sold by L. Tanner.
