JUDGE WILLIAM B. HESS.

Those voters who have resided in Marshall county many years need not be told that William B. Hess is eminently qualified for the position of Judge of the 41st judicial circuit. His ability as a judge is known to all the old residents of the district; but we believe it is due to the first voters and to those who have become residents of the county in the last few years to place before them some facts as to his ability as a jurist and his legal training as one of the prominent attorneys of Plymouth for thirty-eight years.

Judge Hess is a clear thinker, a lawyer thoroughly grounded in the principles of the law, who has been retained as counsel in many of the most important civil and criminal cases of this and adjoining counties, as well as cases in the Federal court and the Supreme court of Indiana.

When Judge Slick resigned in 1883, the governor of Indiana appointed William B. Hess to fill the vacancy and he served eighteen months as judge of this district. Under this appointment he made a remarkable record. There was at that time far more litigation than now and there were many very important cases on the dockets of Fulton and Marshall counties, and every decision that he made was sustained by the Supreme court except one, and since that time the Supreme court has reversed itself showing that Judge Hess' construction of the law in that case was correct.

In 1893 President Harrison appointed Judge Hess Consul-General to Constantinople and he proved himself one of the best men that ever represented the United States in an Oriental city.

His high standing as a jurist is probably best evidenced by his selection as special judge to try many of the most important cases in northern Indiana. He presided one month as special judge at Winamac, was at Logansport a week and at South Bend a week and a year or so ago tried two very important cases in Fulton county, one an insurance case and the other an important railroad damage suit. One of these cases was appealed to the Supreme court, but the decision of Judge Hess was affirmed.

The last important case in which he presided as special judge was brought to Plymouth from South Bend and over a million dollars were involved. The ablest attorneys of this and adjoining states were in this case. The defendants lost and decided to appeal to the Supreme court but before the case was submitted their attorneys became convinced that the law as construed by Judge Hess was correct and the defendants settled the case.

The attorneys of northern Indiana hold Judge Hess in highest respect, and the Supreme court of the state has high regard for his judicial opinions. No man in the district is better qualified for Circuit Judge than he and the voters of all parties will honor themselves, the county and the district by electing him next Tuesday, Nov. 3.

HOW ABOUT THIS, ANYHOW?

Tom Marshall Declares Worst Democrat is Better Than the Best Republican.

The Columbia City Commercial-Mail, published at the home of the Democratic gubernatorial candidate, says:

Tom Marshall declares that "THE WORST OF DEMOCRACY IS BETTER THAN THE BEST REPUBLICANISM."

This sentiment of Mr. Marshall is respectfully submitted to the voters of Marshall county.

Merrill Concert Pleases.

The Merrill Lyceum Concert company exhibited to a fair sized crowd at the Episcopal Parish house Tuesday evening. The company consisted of three members, violinist, cornetist and reader. The numbers were excellent and were well appreciated. The concert was given under the auspices of the Ladies' Parish Guild.

Moorman's Speech.

Burke's hall and all the aisles leading to the hall were crowded Wednesday evening to hear the speech of Hon. John L. Moorman and scores of voters went away when they found the stairway crowded and the hall more than full.

The speech was replete with incontrovertible argument in favor of the election of Republican candidates, good government and rule of the people instead of the domination of saloons, gamblers and brewers. The speaker was frequently cheered and was evidently pleased with his cordial reception in Plymouth.

VIEWS OF A SCHOOL TEACHER

RESENTS WAGE REDUCING PRINCIPLE ADVOCATED BY THOMAS MARSHALL.

Principal of Oswego Schools Says School Teachers Will Have to Compete with Laboring Men.

Mr. Marshall, Democratic candidate for Governor of Indiana, in a speech at Troy, September 21, made the following statements that were elaborated and carefully explained: "There are many girls competent to teach that are willing to teach for a great deal less than the minimum wage law requires that they shall be paid, if they could teach at home. As a result many girls are forced to teach away from home and their communities are paying more than they can afford for teachers. If the clause providing a penalty for trustees hiring teachers below the minimum wage law were repealed this could be remedied. I do not begrudge to teachers all they can get, but I do say that the State should get its work done as cheaply as possible."

Editor Plymouth Tribune.

How many laboring men want to see the teachers of this county competing with them for their jobs during the summer? The Hon. Thomas Marshall, who grabbed off that $7000 ditch fee in Whitley county, advocated a repeal of the present wage law for teachers. Figure for yourself. The best teachers in the county get $3.50 per day for 140 days a total of $490. Labor gets about the same in a year. The average teacher gets about $2.75 per day. Can we live on less? If Thomas Marshall gets us back to the old conditions where we got from $1.50 to $1.75 per day we will be competing with you during the summer for the jobs of clerking, painting, paper-hanging etc. We will have to do it to keep from starving. That will lessen your wages and the number of jobs you get. We can not study during the summer and your boys and girls will not be taught as well during the winter. The only people who would save money by Tom's plan would be the railroads, factories and wealthy who can well afford to pay the taxes.

You see Tom is for the "loxy." You laboring men, the only people Tom could see without a telescope, if he gets in, will be the whiskey interests and Tom Taggart.

As a school teacher I will warrant you that I am as good a friend to the laboring men as any saloon keeper who will pour whiskey down a man's throat as long as he can be propped up and then kick him into the street when his last dime is in the till.

The higher wages of teachers do not cost the average laborer more than a dime a year and he has the chance to give his boys and girls twelve years of schooling under good teachers.

Of course, every spittoon cleaner in the saloon, every fellow who wants license to run a wine room where your girl can be debauched, every gambler, every back alley drab, every shifty thing will appeal to you to "stand up for your rights." They are all for Marshall.

Boys the privilege to get drunk as a boiled owl and feel tough until the middle of the next week is worth nothing. Help out our school teachers in this matter and we can help you out.

MUST NOT BE IN CAMPAIGN.

Post Office Department Issues Order Forbidding Clerks to Take Part in Politics.

The usual anti-election postal order has been received at the local post office without additional instructions. Some of the postmasters throughout the different states, and especially Indiana, claim that the order is an injustice to postal employees, and deprives them of the right of citizenship in taking an active part in the nation's affairs.

The postal order received is as follows:

"The commission desires to inform each of the departments and independent executive offices of its attitude towards employees in the classified service who resign to become candidates or to engage in active political work, and who afterwards seek reinstatement."

"Inasmuch as the issuance of a certificate will be issued in any case where the party seeking reinstatement resigned with the view of running for office or indulging in a degree of political activity which would be prohibited if he had remained in the service and who afterwards having failed in his candidacy, or having indulged in the contemplated political activity seeks reinstatement."

Open Rich New Gold Field.

A new gold field, alleged to be of fabulous richness, has been discovered on the prairie in New Mexico, 200 miles west of El Paso, Tex., and hundreds of miners are now rushing to the scene, according to advices received at Denver, Colo. On a spot where not a soul lived a week ago, a thriving town has sprung up. It has been named Sylvanite and already has a population of 700. The vein of gold there is so rich, says the reports, that pure nuggets have been found on the surface of the ground.

Plant Shut Down.

The bindery plant at the Michigan City Prison has been shut down for two months owing to an exhausted appropriation and surplus supply of manufactured product on hand. It is expected that the product on hand will soon be sold and then the plant will start up again.

INDIANA SAFE FOR TICKET

HUGH TH. MILLER TELLS ROOSEVELT THAT HOOSIERS ARE O. K.

Says Republicans Will Easily Carry State and Conditions Are Improving for Watson.

Lieutenant Governor Hugh Th. Miller, who went to Washington on business in the departments, was a caller at the White House Thursday. The President showed the keenest interest in the political situation and asked especially after the outlook as to Senator Hemenway and James E. Watson. The President cannot understand why any Republican who supported Taft should not also support Hemenway and Watson.

Mr. Miller told the President there was no question as to Taft. "He will carry the state by a substantial plurality," said the Lieutenant Governor. As to the state and legislative ticket Mr. Miller declared the condition had been improved steadily since the adjournment of the special session of the Legislature.

"The outlook is more favorable in the rural communities and county seat towns than in the large cities," said Mr. Miller. "Most of the newspaper men who have gone to Indianapolis and painted gloomy pictures of the Republican situation have secured their information in Indianapolis, where conditions are not so good as elsewhere in the state."

Mr. Miller told the President Watson was making a magnificent campaign. "He has great crowds and the enthusiasm is unbounded," Mr. Miller said. "In Columbus where he spoke recently, we had the largest crowd of people I have ever seen at a political rally in that city."

The Lieutenant Governor told the President all the discouraging factors that existed earlier in the campaign had disappeared; the brewers have overplayed their hand; they have been too open and flagrant in the attack on the state ticket and their plan of campaign is reacting.

The President was much pleased, and asked Mr. Miller to carry a message of good cheer back to Indiana to be delivered to Hemenway and Watson. He showed the greatest personal interest to the successor of both.

THE LEMON BOX

The Linkenbelt Coal company is preparing for a severe snow storm. Manager B. E. Linkenbelt feels it in the air. Tuesday morning one of the coal wagons was dragging parts of a bob sled to the coal yards, preparatory to oiling and firing them for use in case of emergency.

The court house clock is on a strike. Rather it is not on a strike. In fact it has not struck for two days. A poor sort of an example of organized labor is that clock, not even being able to strike when occasion demands. Maybe the clock has buried its little hammer, and refuses any longer to be the town knocker. But—Hush! Listen! Who knows? Perhaps it is waiting until next Wednesday morning when it can break forth in resounding peals, its salute to the next president—Wm. H. Taft.

"Holy gee fellows, it's past 12:00 o'clock, I guess we'd better quit for dinner hadn't we?" The "fellows" guessed they had and off went Foreman A. E. Holderman, and his gang of workmen from Schlossers' creamery, Monday. When Holderman reached home, he found that his wife had not yet put dinner on, and remarked that he would be late. "But it's only a little after 11:00 o'clock, why are you home so early," said she. Holderman looked at his watch, "I have only had this fingersoll for four months 'sezze' and I thought they were warranted for a year."

Director B. M. Seybold, is responsible for the following—A few days ago an old time resident from Wisconsin happened down in Walnut township, and thought he would look up one of his former Democratic neighbors. He found the house and knocked at the door. The farmer's wife appeared and said in response to a query, that she believed her husband was about the barn, doing the chores. The visitor hid himself to the barnyard where he beheld an unusual scene. The farmer was running after a number of ducks. He caught one, seized it by the head, and whirled it in the air, breaking its neck. This done he seized another and dispatched it similarly. Eight ducks were sacrificed before the visitor "batted in." What is the matter with you Henry, are you crazy?"

"Crazy—not by a jug full, I'm not crazy."

"Well what in the world is the matter with you?"

"Matter enough. I'm going to kill every duck on the farm and what's more I'll never have another one. Matter! For the last three weeks these damned ducks have been hollering 'T-a-f-t, Taft, Taft, Taft.'"

MANY PROHIBITIONISTS ARE CHANGING TO SUPPORT OF JAMES WATSON

Capt. Eli F. Ritter who has all his life been identified with the temperance movement in Indiana, has for some time been making diligent inquiries among the Prohibitionists, not only of Indianapolis but in other parts of the state, and he declared yesterday that thousands of those who have heretofore voted the prohibition state ticket will this time cast their votes for Watson and the Republican Legislative ticket.

"I believe," he said, "that 10,000 of the 23,000 Prohibitionists who voted for McWhirter for governor a few years ago will this time cast their votes for Watson and the Republican legislative ticket. I have talked with a large number of Prohibitionists during the last few days, not only in Indianapolis, but in other parts of the state, and I can say the Prohibitionists who say he expects to support Watson and the Republican legislative ticket this time is the rule rather than the exception."

"I have asked them if they expected to take sides, now that they could do so in a way by which they would win. I have asked them if they would inderstand what they have hoped for for years. And I have asked them if, in taking sides, they have decided which side to join whether to join the brewers in the support of the democratic party or the republicans and what the Republicans stand for."

Now The Time to Choose.
"I have asked them, 'Now that you

DEALERS MUST PROTECT FOODS

STATE BOARD OF HEALTH SAYS INSECTS MUST BE KEPT OUT.

Bread, Pastry, Confectionary, Tapioca Etc. Must All Be Covered By Glass Cases.

The State Board of Health has adopted a new rule as follows: "No manufacturer, dealer, vender or other person shall expose for sale or sell any bread, pastry, confectionary, spoiled nuts, tapioca or other foods so prepared that they are ready for consumption unless such foods are securely protected from insects, vermin, dust and all pollution."

Dr. J. N. Hurty, secretary of the State board, says there was a crying need for such a rule. Inspectors of the board at different times, he says, had found cats slumbering in coffee bins and cracker barrels. Dr. Hurty believes the grocery store cat should be provided with a place where it may sleep without contaminating the foodstuffs. Dr. Hurty said also that maggots had been found in tapioca, and vermin of various kinds in crackers and nuts. It was for these reasons that the new rule was adopted. The rule is now in force, and inspectors will see to it that it is observed.

Typhoid Heads List.

The monthly bulletin of the State Board of Health, just issued for September summarizes sickness and death for that month as follows:

There were fewer deaths and less sickness during the month than in the corresponding month last year. Total number of deaths in September, 1908, 275; rate, 12.3 a thousand. Deaths in the corresponding month last year 278; rate, 12.4. Typhoid fever led the list as the most prevalent disease. This was also the case in September, 1907.

The order of diseases prevalence was as follows: Typhoid fever, diarrhea, tonsillitis, bronchitis, rheumatism, cholera infantum, intermittent and remittent fever, cholera morbus, dysentery, diphtheria and croup, pleurisy, influenza, scarlet fever, pneumonia, inflammation of bowels, erysipelas, typho-malaria, fever, smallpox, whooping cough, cerebro-spinal meningitis, chickenpox, measles, purpural fever.

The deaths from certain diseases were: All forms of tuberculosis, 218; of this number 263 were the pulmonary form, typhoid fever, 118; diphtheria, 29; scarlet fever, 5; measles, 1; whooping cough, 21; pneumonia, 95; diarrheal diseases, 392; cerebro-spinal meningitis, 14; influenza, 5; purpural fever, 7; cancer, 139; violence, 217.

Less Smallpox This Year.
Smallpox prevailed to a very much less degree than in September, 1907—only sixteen cases in four counties with no deaths. The city death rate was 12.8 and the country rate 11.6. The death rates of cities having over 25,000 population were: Indianapolis, 12.7; Evansville, 10; Ft. Wayne, 13; Terre Haute, 15; South Bend, 7.6. East Chicago presented a death rate of 30, and Vincennes of 23.3. In the case of East Chicago the high death rate was due to the slaughter of the innocents under five years of age by diarrheal diseases, and by violent deaths. In Vincennes, the high death rate was due to an unusual number of infantile deaths, coupled with those more than ordinary death rate of those over sixty-five years of age. The pneumonia, deaths were: exactly the same, 95, as occurred in September 1907.

Socialists Showing Strength.

Leaders of both the old parties have shown some signs of alarm over the indications of larger gains in the Socialist vote in various parts of the country, the preliminary polls having disclosed the fact. Both in the East and in the Far West, the largest increase is shown and Candidate Debs on his Red Special has continued to meet with phenomenal success. From Baltimore, where a really tremendous audience cheered itself hoarse over the Socialist candidate, he started on his westward way through Maryland and West Virginia.

LETTERS FROM WOMEN About Pe-ru-na.

The following testimonials represent actual experience of every-day life. They are the truthful utterances of women who have been ill and have found a reliable remedy in Peru-na. It means a great deal to the women of America to have at hand a remedy capable of giving such relief. Constipation, rheumatism, kidney trouble, bronchitis and a host of other catarrhal conditions are relieved by Peru-na. At least this is what the women say. They have no object in saying such things, except to render truthful testimony to their suffering sisters. Peru-na is making such friends every day. It is the testimony of the people that has made Peru-na so justly famous.

Chronic Bronchitis.
Mrs. Clara L. Miller, Box 71, Columbia Sta., Seattle, Wash., formerly vice president of Skookay Country Club, writes: "Nine bottles of Peru-na cured me of a protracted case of bronchitis. There is no superior remedy that I know of, as the action of Peru-na on the vasa motor system of nerves is very beneficial. It increases the tone of the system and aids nature to perform her functions. 'I have recommended it to a number of my friends, who speak in the same high terms of it. I have certainly found it a most efficacious medicine.'"

A Good Word for Pe-ru-na.
Mrs. S. L. Jewell, R. F. D. 1, Freeport, Pa., writes: "Having used Peru-na myself for many years with beneficial effects, and observing the good it has done others of my acquaintance, I cannot but say a good word in behalf of Peru-na."

Keeps Pe-ru-na in the House.
Mrs. Maria Goetz, Orienta, Oklahoma, writes: "My husband, children and myself have used your medicine, and we always keep them in the house in case of necessity. I was restored to health by this medicine, and Dr. Hartman's invaluable advice and books. People ask about me from different places, and are surprised that I can do all of my housework alone, and that I was cured by the doctor of chronic catarrh. My husband was cured of asthma, my daughter of earache and catarrh of the stomach, and my son of catarrh of the throat. When I was sick I weighed 100 pounds; now I weigh 140."

Constipation, Kidney Trouble.
Mrs. Mahala Reid, Corbyville, Ont., Canada, writes: "Your celebrated remedies have been a wonderful boon to me in my old age. I have not been in so good health for several years as now."

"I was troubled with constipation, rheumatism and kidney trouble. A little over two years ago I completely lost my health, becoming almost helpless, when a dear friend sent me your remedies, Peru-na and Mannin."

"I began to take them, following the directions on the bottles. I very soon began to feel benefited by their use, and continued to take them."

"I am now completely recovered from the above ailments, in fact, better than I have been for years past."

"I cannot praise the remedies too highly and will always recommend them to others."

Pe-ru-na in Tablet Form.
For two years Dr. Hartman and his assistants have incessantly labored to create Peru-na in tablet form, and their strenuous labors have just been crowned with success. People who object to liquid medicines can now secure Peru-na tablets, which represent the medicinal ingredients of Peru-na. Each tablet is equivalent to one average dose of Peru-na.

FORECASTS ARE FAVORABLE.
All Leading Newspapers of Country Give Taft the Majority of the Electoral Vote.

A number of metropolitan papers gave themselves over to election forecasts in their Sunday editions. The Chicago Tribune gives Taft 295 electoral votes and Bryan 188. The New York Herald (neutral, so far) credits Taft with 280, Bryan 156, and puts 47 in the doubtful column. The New York World puts 100 electoral votes in the doubtful column, including Indiana, Maryland, Nebraska, New York, Ohio and West Virginia. It gives Taft 295 and Bryan 178. The New York Times (Democratic-Mugwump, supporting Taft) gives Taft 278, Bryan 162, doubtful 43. The Cincinnati Enquirer makes its figures correspond exactly with those of the New York Herald. The Philadelphia Record (Democratic) regards Bryan's chances as being equal to Taft's. Chairman Mack, of the Democratic national committee, feels assured of Bryan's triumphal election, claiming 313 of the 483 electoral votes. As a matter of course, the Republican national chairman also "feels assured" that Taft will have more than 300 electoral votes.
