THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION

WHY UNITED STATES SHOULD BE A THANKFUL NATION.

Short Sketch of Wonderful Growth in Wealth and Population of Country.

The President has issued the following Thanksgiving proclamation: "Thanksgiving: A proclamation by the President of the United States of America. Once again the season is at hand when, according to the ancient custom of our people, it becomes the duty of the President to appoint a day of prayer and of thanksgiving to God.

"Year by year this nation grows in strength and worldly power. During the century and a quarter that has elapsed since our entry into that circle of independent peoples, we have grown and prospered in material things to a degree never known before and not now known in any other country. The thirteen colonies which struggled along the seacoast of the Atlantic and were hemmed in but a few miles west of tide water by the Indian-haunted wilderness, have been transformed into the mightiest Republic which the world has ever seen. Its domains stretch across the continent from one to the other of the two greatest oceans, and it exercises domain alike in the Arctic and tropic regions. The growth in wealth and population has surpassed even the growth in territory. Nowhere else in the world is the average of individual comfort and material well being as high as in our fortunate land.

"For the very reason that in material well being we have thus abounded, we owe it to the Almighty to show equal progress in moral and spiritual things, with a nation, as with the individuals who make indispensable foundation. But the foundation is laid by the individual. That life is wasted, and worse than wasted, which is spent in piling, heap upon heap, those things which minister merely to the pleasure of the body and to the power that rests only on wealth. Upon material well being as a foundation must be raised the structure of the lofty life of the spirit, if this nation is properly to fulfill its great mission and to accomplish all that we so ardently hope and desire. The things of the body are good; the things of the intellect better; but best of all are the things of the soul; for, in the nation as in the individual, in the long run it is character that counts. Let us, therefore, as a people, set our faces resolutely against evil and with broad charity, with kindness and good will toward all men, but with unflinching determination to smite down wrong, strive with all the strength that is given us for righteousness in public and in private life.

"Now, therefore, I, Theodore Roosevelt, President of the United States, do set apart Thursday, the 26th day of November next, as a day of general thanksgiving and prayer, and in that day I recommend that the people shall cease from their daily work and, in their homes or in their churches, most devoutly to thank the Almighty for the many and great blessings they have received in the past, and to pray that they may be given strength so to order their lives as to deserve a continuation of these blessings in the future.

"In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

"Done at the City of Washington this 31st day of October, in the year of our Lord 1908, and to the independence of the United States the 133d.

"Theodore Roosevelt.
By the President,
"Alfred A. Ade, Acting Secretary of State."

Blames Fairbanks' Machine. The Indianapolis Star (K.) says that the Fairbanks machine. It says: "The vote is a rebuke and shows resentment at the rule of the Fairbanks machine, whose members have been in greater sympathy with Cannon than with Roosevelt, lukewarm toward the administration's policies and apathetic toward tariff reform."

"This organization worked with the allies at the Chicago convention, while not one of its members took the trouble to welcome Gov. Hughes to Indianapolis, but it was left to Mayor Bookwalter to meet him at the train and for Senator Beveridge to introduce him to the audience."

New Laws. Publication of the new local option law was held up until after the election that it might not interfere in the campaign. Since the passage of the law the state printer has been working on the books and has about completed them. It was said Wednesday that the law will probably be published within the next week and will become effective upon its publication.

Sorg is Promoted. Michael J. Sorg of this city and wife went to Ft. Wayne Thursday, from there he will go to Pittsburg where he has been promoted to lieutenant detective. Mr. Sorg has been a detective on the Pennsylvania road.

RIVERSIDE HOTEL CLOSES.

Proprietor C. H. Mattix Sells Fixtures But Will Continue to Reside in this City.

The Riverside Hotel, located on South Michigan which has been operating in this city for six months, has closed its doors. The hotel fixtures have been sold at private sale. The proprietor C. H. Mattix and family are moving their household goods to east Washington street, where they will reside.

Mr. Mattix moved here from Argos. He says that his hotel venture here was an unpaying investment because of the remoteness of the hotel from the railroad stations. The vacated room has not been rented.

Leave for Southern Trip.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Cole left on a southern trip Tuesday morning, and will be gone all winter. They will visit Memphis, Jacksonville, and other cities in Tennessee, Florida, and Arkansas.

May Have Train Service.

There is some talk of the Pennsylvania road putting on an accommodation train from Vaparaíso to Chicago within the next thirty days.

RECEIVING CHRISTMAS GOODS

Plymouth Merchants Are Now Preparing for a Big Holiday Trade

Already many Plymouth merchants are receiving their Christmas goods and others are now sending in large orders. Commercial men are now making their last round with samples of holiday stock. The local toy stores will carry a larger assortment than usual. There are many new articles in this time that will undoubtedly prove good sellers.

Buys Walkerton Drug Store.

Grover C. Spahr of this city has purchased the drug store formerly owned by H. E. Williams at Walkerton. Mr. Spahr is an experienced pharmacist, having been engaged in the business at Plymouth for several years.

Dance Well Attended.

The dance given by Percy Kemp at Kuhn's hall Thursday evening was attended by about 40 couples. Excellent music was furnished by Messrs. Hoff and Zimmerman of South Bend.

DEMOCRATS HAVE BUT THREE

OFFICIAL FIGURES GIVE DEMOCRATS GOV. LIEUT. AND SUPT. OF SCHOOLS.

Plurality for Marshall is 14,809—Billheimer and Other Republicans Pull Through.

The count of the official returns at the secretary of state's office for governor was completed Monday afternoon. Thomas R. Marshall, Democratic candidate for governor, received a total vote of 348,849 and James E. Watson, his Republican opponent 334,040, a plurality for Marshall of 14,809. The Socialist party candidate for governor received 11,948, an increase of 957 over four years ago. The independence candidate polled but 385 votes, and the people's party got 573, a loss of 854 from the vote four years ago. J. H. Haynes the prohibitionist candidate for governor, obtained 15,926 votes, a loss of 6,664 votes from that polled in 1904.

The official vote on the following was completed Monday night:

Lieutenant Governor—Hall, Democrat, 340,577; Goodwine Republican, 338,903. Hall's plurality, 1,672.

Secretary of State—Cox, Democrat

339,007; Sims, Republican, 339,322. Sims' plurality 492.

339,294; Billheimer, Republican, 339,322. Billheimer's plurality, 228.

338,907; Hadley, Republican, 339,744. Hadley's plurality 837.

Attorney General—Lyon, Democrat

339,017; Bingham, Republican, 339,505. Bingham's plurality, 788.

Robert J. Aley (Dem.) has been elected superintendent of public instruction over Lawrence McTurnan (Rep.) by a plurality of 788 votes.

TALBOT CASE IS POSTPONED.

Judge Tuthill Grants Continuance Until November 12 on Petition of Plaintiff for More Time.

The Talbot disbarment trial at South Bend, has been postponed until November 12, by Special Judge Harry B. Tuthill of Michigan City on petition of attorneys for the plaintiff.

The case was called for trial Thursday morning, and the petition presented asking for a continuance until the next term of court. This, however, was not granted, but more time was allowed by the judge on the statements made to the court.

Judge Tuthill in rendering his decision explained his position by stating that from the evidence he was confident that the plaintiffs had been diligent and were entitled to more time in order to secure the testimony necessary although he did not think that it was necessary to pass the trial over until the next term of court as asked for.

Taft Praises Missions.

In his address to the women at Cincinnati, having been flatteringly introduced by Bishop J. C. Hartzell, Judge Taft gave an enthusiastic commendation of foreign mission work. His experience in the far East, he said, had taught him the value of this work in uplifting those people, and he commented upon the elevating effect of Christianity, especially upon the heathen women.

In the Philippines, Judge Taft asserted, the present degree of success in civilization and government was made possible through the influence of Christianity.

The speaker was warmly and enthusiastically received by the members of the conference. Each had provided herself with a small American flag, and the presence of Mr. Taft was the signal for a pretty demonstration. At the end of his speech he was overwhelmed with personal congratulations on his success at the polls.

Marshall and Option Law.

Thomas R. Marshall is a temperance man. The fact that he is the choice of the people of Indiana for governor does not indicate that the liberal element is in the lead. Mr. Marshall made his campaign on a platform that called for a kind of local option. He stands on that platform today, we believe, just as firmly as he ever did. Also, we believe, he never will repeal the local option law. In the first place, Marshall does not want the law repealed, and in the second place, the people of this state never will let him repeal it.—Warsaw Union.

Closed Up.

The last saloon door in Fulton county was closed at 11 o'clock Saturday night under operations of the remonstrance law. From the day of the organization of the county in 1836 to the present date there has never been a time when a man could not get all the liquor he wanted at any of the numerous places in the county where it was kept on sale. The closing of all saloons and restrictions placed upon the sale of liquor by druggists is a new condition for this county and the result will be watched with great interest by all the people.—Sentinel.

Joke.

The reason why Wm. B. Hess was defeated by Bernetha was because Hess didn't like Editor Metaker.

COST OF ELECTION

In Marshall County Was Over $1300—Average About $40 in Each Precinct.

The cost of the recent election in Marshall county will reach about $1320. All of the townships have not presented bills to the county auditor, but those presented indicate that the average cost in the 33 precincts will be about $40 per precinct.

The expense is made up as follows, this being the bill from the 1st Precinct in Tippecanoe township: One inspector 5 days at $2.00, and 68 miles at 5c.....$13.40 Two clerks 2 days at $2.00..... 8.00 Two elec. sheriffs 2 days at $1.50..... 6.00 21 meals for election officers..... 5.25 Total.....$40.65

The expense in various precincts runs from $35.50, to $50.20.

Otto Weber Resigns.

Otto Weber has resigned as deputy county auditor, under Chas. Walker. He will leave the office as soon as present work is completed, which will be within a day or two. Mr. Weber has not announced his plans for the future.

EXPECT FIGHT FOR SPEAKER

BREWERY INTERESTS WILL TRY TO CONTROL ORGANIZATION OF HOUSE.

Thomas Honan of Jackson County is Thought to be the Most Probable.

W. H. Blodgett writing for the Indianapolis News, has the following to say regarding the speakership fight in the next Indiana house of representatives.

"The contest for speaker promises to be a lively one with a hot finish. It is well known that the brewery interests will endeavor to control the organization of the house and elect the speaker, who has the appointment of committees in which the brewery interests will be specially interested."

Thomas Honan of Jackson county, is the candidate the longest in the public eye. He declared when he announced himself a candidate for representative that he was going into the race only in hope of being elected speaker practice and is not tied up with corporations.

"Another candidate is Harry G. Strickland, of Greentfield, who is a business man and noted for his conservatism. He voted for high license and during his career in the house made a good record.

"James Garrard, of Vincennes, is also a candidate. In the last house Mr. Garrard was again all temperance laws and reform measures and was regarded as a part of the machine.

"Dr. Peter J. Coble of Dubois and Perry, has announced himself. It was Dr. Coble who advocated, in a speech, the removal from liquor of all licenses and government tax—just let it be free as water and sold unrestricted.

"Another one is Andrew Jackson Behymer, of Madison county. Really there is not much to say about Behymer except that no greater wrong could be done the people of Indiana than to elect him speaker of the house. Otherwise he is all right—for the system and the interests."

PLYMOUTH MAN AHEAD

J. S. Reeves Runs Ahead of His Party on People's Ticket by 44 Votes.

James S. Reeves of this city, candidate for auditor of state on the Populace ticket ran ahead of Robinson candidate for governor. Reeves got 1030 votes while Robinson received but 986. Mr. Reeves would make the better governor anyway.

Clothing Sold Cheap.

A representative of some foreign firm now conducting a cut-price clothing sale at Plymouth was in Rochester Monday attempting to make arrangements for a sale here. He was refused advertisement in the Sentinel and Republican and it is safe to predict the sale company will give Rochester the go-by. The clothing merchants and other merchants as well, can return the favor to the newspapers by refusing to buy some stranger's advertising scheme.—Rochester Sentinel.

The same gentlemen were in the Tribune office the other day, and because he could not buy all of the advertising space in the paper for $5, withdrew his patronage.

Dr. Weiser's Vote.

Dr. Wm. Weiser Independent candidate for Congress, received 7 votes in Marshall county for long term, and in for short term. The votes were cast as follows—long term, Walnut No. 4-1, German No. 2-1, Bourbon No. 3-2, Union No. 2-1. Short term—Union No. 2-1 Center No. 3-1, Center No. 6-2, Bourbon No. 3-3, Bourbon No. 4-1, German No. 2-1, Walnut No. 4-1.

HOST SEEK STATE OFFICES

CANDIDATES HAUNT MARSHALL AND GOV. ELECT ISSUES STATEMENT.

Chairman Jackson Says He Will Take No Part in Distribution of Patronage.

"The host of candidates for appointments under Governor-elect Thomas R. Marshall is growing daily. Most of the applications are going directly to Mr. Marshall at his Columbia City home and the importunities have become so numerous and pressing that out of self-defense he has issued a statement in which he says he needs rest and begs to be given time to recuperate and to consider the reforms he will urge in his message. The word has reached Indianapolis that the interests of applicants will not be furthered by harassing the Governor-elect and so the various aspirants probably will content themselves with securing the indorsement of friends, waiting for an opportune time to urge their claims upon the newly elected Governor.

A great many of the would-be officeholders are asking Stokes Jackson, Democratic state chairman, for his help, but his answer to one and all of them is that he is taking no part in the distribution of patronage. Friends of "Bill" Fogarty, Democratic chairman of Marion county, at the proper time will urge Mr. Marshall to recognize him with one of the best appointments within the gift of the Governor. They say that Mr. Fogarty is entitled to this recognition because of the large Democratic majority which Marion county piled up and to the first-class organization effected by Mr. Fogarty.

Grant County Applicant.

J. J. McEvoy of Grant county, as being urged for office inspector—the position now occupied by Sid Conger. George Wolf of Indianapolis is an aspirant for a place on the State Tax Board.

Five Indianapolis men are in the running for State House custodian—ex-Superintendent of Police Thomas F. Colbert, Timothy Griffin, John C. McCloskey, John Conannon and John Navin.

Michael Cain of Indianapolis is a candidate for the position of State House engineer, which he occupied under Gov. Matthews' regime.

The returns of the prohibition vote in Indiana, as far as they have been completed, indicate that there was a falling off of about 10 per cent, in the normal prohibition vote. This would make the total prohibition vote about 18,000. The loss is attributed to prohibition support given to James E. Watson.

One result of the recent elections was to enlarge greatly the scope of Senator Beveridge's authority over federal patronage. Not only will he name all of the principal federal officers in Indiana, but he also will be called upon for recommendations for postmasters for eleven of the thirteen Indiana districts.

Already the senator has a fair intimation of what is in store for him. Postmasters whose commissions do not expire for two years or more are writing to him or calling in person to urge their claims for reappointment.

PARM HOUSE BURNED.

Property of Mrs. Dallas Goddard, 4 Miles Southwest of City Destroyed by Fire.

The house on the farm owned by Mrs. Dallas Goddard, four miles southwest of this city was entirely destroyed by fire Thursday morning. The property was valued at $600. The fire was started from a defective chimney. All of the household goods were saved.

Death of Mrs. Henderson.

Mrs. Catharine Henderson died at her home in South Plymouth, at 11:30 o'clock Friday night, aged 80 years. She was a daughter of Joseph Hittle and was born in Pennsylvania.

To a former marriage the children who survive, Perry J. Smith of South Bend Geo. W. Smith of Culver, Joseph Smith and Mrs. Leonard Shaffer of Plymouth, were born.

Contributions and Expenditures.

George R. Sheldon, republican national treasurer, has announced at New York that the list of contributors to Taft's campaign fund will be made public on November 13, and that every contribution and expenditure will be made public, including items from western headquarters. Sheldon said the list would be so long no newspaper could print it in one issue.

Forgets Age; Can't Vote.

James Alford, long a resident of Warsaw, was kept from voting Tuesday because he and his relatives and friends were unable to tell just when he was born. When the young man went to the polls he claimed he was 21 years old, but his testimony in a recent court action in which he was the defendant and in which he testified that his mother and near relatives did not know his age, was brought to light and he was prevented from voting.

Wolf Drive Planned.

Another big wolf drive is being planned to take place before snow flies. There is a fair of the varmints in the tamarack swamp in the Kankakee country.

NIMRODS GETTING BUSY.

One Hundred and Sixty Hunting Licenses Have Been Issued in Marshall County This Year.

One hundred and sixty hunting licenses at $1 per, have been issued by the county clerk since January 1. Monday nine were issued to W. F. Morrical, Samuel Griffith, E. E. Wisler, Horace Shatford, Thomas Chaney, Earl Twomey, Thomas Twomey, Frank Dinius, and Cornelius Weaver.

Bingham is Attorney-general.

The official vote of Indiana has been announced by the secretary of state and James A. Bingham the present attorney-general has been elected by a plurality of 788. The report of the votes sent out Monday elected Lotz, Democrat, attorney-general, but a mistake was made in the additions. Aley, Democrat is elected state superintendent of public instruction, instead of McTurnan, Republican, who was reported elected.

The election of Bingham is a big victory for Republicans. He has made an excellent officer and was badly needed in the present emergency. Hurrah for Bingham!

TAGGART NOT OUT OF RACE

TAKES SHOT AT HIS ALLEGED FRIENDS—KERN HAS POOR CHANCE.

Taggart, Lamb and Shively the Most Favorable of Proposed Candidates for Senator.

Thomas T. Taggart took a shot Monday at his alleged friends who have been saying that Taggart will not enter the senatorship race on account of his close personal friendship for John W. Kern, who is a candidate. When told that such action on his part had been suggested by his friends, Taggart said: "On what authority was that statement made?" in a tone which showed that he knew that the statement had been speculative. Then Taggart admitted his aspirations. "Yes, it is true," he said, "that several of my friends, members of the legislature, have thought that I should get into the race, but I am waiting until all entries have been made. It is one thing to enter a race and another thing to enter a campaign. I shall make no announcement until these state officers are settled in their jobs, either Democrats or Republicans."

That there is going to be a fight on for senatorship is apparent. That Kern will not have smooth sailing is also apparent. It is charged that the brewers who put their money into the legislative campaign almost exclusively expect to demand the control of the senatorship and that they say that either Taggart, Lamb or Shively are far more acceptable than Kern, and that Slack is entirely out of the question. It is safe to say that the Democratic members of the legislature owe much to Taggart for the aid given in the recent election. In this connection it is noticed that Kern has always been a candidate of the Taggart faction, and that Kern's strength would be of doubtful quantity with the Taggart forces on the other side.

CHANGE OF MANAGEMENT.

Frank Hagar Sells Interest in Music Store to His Partner, T. E. Houghton.

Frank Hagar has sold his half interest in the Houghton and Hagar Music store located on Michigan street, to T. E. Houghton, who will continue as sole proprietor. Mr. Hagar will continue in the employ of Mr. Houghton. The deal was made Friday morning.

Don't All Speak at Once.

Here's a chance for some of our Marshall county boys who are looking for a wife. Miss Frances Livingston, "who owns a farm near Colborn, Wis., and has money in the bank," is advertising for a husband. She says the reason she is making her wishes known in such a public manner is that she wants a wider sphere from which to make her choice. She declares if more women would take this means there would be fewer old maids and more happy marriages. Already she has 35 proposals by mail, but she has not found her affinity.

Give Masquerade Party.

The young ladies of the German Evangelical church and their friends gave a masquerade party at the home of Misses Hannah and Daisy Hank on Pearl street Friday evening. Many unique impersonations were represented. A flashlight picture of the group was taken and a delightful evening was spent.

Wolf Drive Planned.

Another big wolf drive is being planned to take place before snow flies. There is a fair of the varmints in the tamarack swamp in the Kankakee country.

CABINET OFFICE FOR WATSON

DEFEATED CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR HELD IN HIGH ESTEEM BY TAFT.

President Elect Grateful For Work Done In Indiana State Organization.

Leading Republicans are predicting that James E. Watson will be invited to a seat in President Taft's Cabinet. He was mentioned for the head either of the Navy Department or of the Department of Commerce and Labor. Mr. Taft has a high opinion of Mr. Watson's integrity and ability. His name was under consideration for secretary of the navy under President Roosevelt's administration at the time Mr. Watson was serving as member of the House Committee on Naval Affairs.

Throughout the campaign the Republican nominee has shown the keenest interest in Mr. Watson's race and frequently has expressed his profound concern over the local conditions which were combining to pull him down. Mr. Taft's friends here say he realizes he would not have secured the electoral vote of Indiana but for the magnificent fight made by the state organization, led by Watson and Hemenway.

There will be a reorganization of the Cabinet when President Taft takes hold. It is considered probable Elihu Root will be elected senator from New York to succeed Platt. The President desires Mr. Root's election. If that plan should fail the Roosevelt premier will succeed to one of the vacancies in the United States Supreme Court, of which three are likely to occur soon Chief Justice Fuller and Associate Justices Peckham and Brewer are eligible to retire having reached the age of 70. The first two are Democrats. Mr. Root has been mentioned for Chief Justice.

Cortleyou to Retire.

Other vacancies in the Cabinet will probably be made by the retirement of Secretary Cortleyou, who may be succeeded either by George Von L. Meyer, postmaster general, or William Loch Jr., secretary to the President.

Attorney General Bonaparte has announced his intention of retiring with the Roosevelt administration. Secretary Wilson may also go. It has been suggested he may have already for becoming president of a Western College. One of Secretary Wilson's closest associates said today he had been told already by Mr. Taft that in case of the election resulting favorably he would be asked to remain.

It is considered likely one of the first announcements to be made by Mr. Taft will be the appointment of Fred W. Carpenter as secretary to the president. Mr. Carpenter acted as private secretary to Mr. Taft while he was at the head of the Philippine Commission and later when he was secretary of war. He was appointed from San Francisco.

It is quite generally accepted in the current speculation that Frank H. Hitchcock chairman of the Republican National Committee, will be included in the Cabinet, probably as postmaster general, a post for which he would have practical qualifications owing to his service until a few months ago as first assistant postmaster general in the present administration. A position he voluntarily relinquished to take personal charge of Mr. Taft's interests.

It is assumed pretty generally that Mr. Taft will look to his own state for some of his cabinet material, and this leads to conjecture concerning Governor Herrick of Ohio, whose name has been suggested in connection with the secretaryship of the treasury. Ex-Governor Herrick has long been identified with financial affairs, has taken an active interest in measures of governmental finance and has been vice-president of the American Bankers' Association.

DISLIKE ROAD LAW.

In several of the offices mentioned there are deputies who are appointed by their immediate chiefs, but it has been the custom in the past for governors to make suggestions regarding some of these appointments, which suggestions were treated with eminent respect by the chiefs. There are about thirty-five deputies under the oil inspector.

County Commissioners in Several Counties Want Three Mile Road Law Repealed.

County commissioners in several counties in Indiana and especially those that are liberally supplied with rural mail routes, say the three-mile limit gravel road law is too good a thing and should be repealed. Since the government requires that all roads traveled by mail routes must be kept in good repair the commissioners can not well refuse a petition for free gravel roads, and when one such petition is granted, petitions from nearby townships usually follow. In this way more townships are rapidly taking on a financial burden that will be hard to get rid of. In Wabash township, Tippecanoe county, half a dozen contracts have been made for roads at an average cost of $4,000 to $5,000.
