The following resolutions were then presented by C. H. REEVE, Esq., and unanimously endorsed by the Convention:

Resolved, That we abide by the principles enunciated in the Democratic Resolution known as the Cincinnati Platform, and reiterate the same as our professional creed.

Resolved, That we recognize the decisions of the Supreme Court as the Supreme Law of the land, and will uphold and sustain the same.

Resolved, That we recognize and will maintain the rights of all the citizens of the United States, wherever they may be as equal and that no part is entitled to more than another.

Resolved, That we fight modern Republicanism wherever we find it, with all the means in our power, and use every effort to secure the election of our regular opponents, regardless of personal preferences.

Resolved, That Marshall County will give the nominee of the Baltimore Convention 200 majority.

After the adoption of the above resolutions short speeches were made by C. H. REEVE, A. C. CAPRON, JOHN A. SHURLEY, and M. A. O. PACKARD, and two campaign songs, composed by one of our townsmen, were sung by the Band amid rounds of applause.

On motion of D. McDONALD, Esq., the thanks of the Convention were tendered C. H. REEVE, Esq., for the able and impartial manner with which he presided over the deliberations of the Convention.

On motion, the proceedings of the Convention were ordered to be published in the PLYMOUTH WEEKLY DEMOCRAT, and the Indiana State Sentinel.

On motion, the Convention adjourned to meet at the polls next October.

C. H. REEVE, Pres't.

JOHN A. SHURLEY, Vice Pres't.

M. A. O. PACKARD, Secretaries.

IT Mr. AMOS R. CURTIS has on exhibition and for sale, at the store of HENRY PIERCE, the American, Vermont, and Savage Sewing Machines, for which he is the agent. He has them of various patterns and at almost all prices. They are all good machines, of the best manufacture, and are warranted to do first class work. Those who wish to economize in their household arrangements will doubtless find it to their interest to call on Mr. CURTIS, and purchase one of those articles which every "well regulated family" ought to have—a Sewing Machine.

IT The Union Township Club at their last meeting passed unanimously a resolution inviting J. G. O'CONNOR of this place, to address their Club at its next meeting, which is to be held at Maxinkuck School House on the 7th of July, at 2 o'clock p.m.

Recent advices from Mexico indicate that the Juarez or Liberal Government is on its last legs and must soon go down, having met with severe reverses in the field lately, and with a bankrupt treasury.

"Fuller's Exhibit."

We quote the above heading to this article from the fact that the Auditor's Report, as it appeared in the Republican of last week, was such a bungled affair that it is a matter of division as to the little school boys in the place, who have ever "gone through addition," and "explored through subtraction." We doubt whether any of our readers ever saw as many blunders committed by the greatest blockhead that ever tried to solve a problem. The footing of the different columns is about as correct as one would expect if the entire case of figures had been "piled," shoved into a pile, and then set up by a blind man, and the proof read by a man under the influence of "Holman."

Mr. Mattingly has, ever since he came here, been misrepresenting and defaming the character of many prominent Democrats in this county, for the sake of the spoils; and now that he has the county printing, this is the manner in which he does it. Scarcely a column in the whole exhibit is correct. It would be too tedious to insert the whole exhibit, and therefore we will content ourselves by giving our readers the following interesting and novel manner of misreading. It will be a new thing to all our little readers, and will doubtless be a source of much amusement to them.

Total receipts from all sources	11,388 82
Expenditures as above specified	8,221 11
	$3,167 71

One from two and one remains—correct. One from eight and seven remains—correct. One from eight and eight remains—correct. Two from eight and eight—boys look out, or they will be misled by these figures, for you have all undoubtedly been taught that "figures never lie," but be careful, for these figures are made by Republicans.

Here is another table, that, to be EXAMINED AND APPROVED by Prof. Morris, in particular, boots up rather singularly, for the Professor has said, "I profess to be something of an accountant, and I don't propose to have things come out in the bungling manner they have heretofore," but here is the figuring that the Report says was "EXAMINED AND APPROVED" by all the Commissioners, Mr. Morris' name attached with the rest. Take, look to your laurels. The subject is "another problem in subtraction."

Treasurer indebted to county	11,388 82
Credited by county orders received	7,679 61
	3,610 21

On looking over this the blunders will be apparent to every sane person, no matter how unlearned they may be. Every calculation in the whole exhibit is just as profuse with errors as these have given, and we have only selected those because they are shorter than the rest.

After having two weeks to get out the report in, and it being a very short and unsatisfactory one, it comes out in this kind of shape. If the copy was correct, the proof was certainly not read, or if read at all, our neighbor must have been under the influence of his favorite beverage. Betwixt it may, the object in publishing the exhibit is entirely lost by its incoherence. We understand that since the issue of the Republican, and the glaring mistakes have been pointed out to the Democrats about town, that there has been a supplement issued containing the exhibit in an improved and somewhat corrected state, though not entirely right yet. They will doubtless bring all the talent they have, to bear upon the complicated affair; and we hope, for the satisfaction of the people, or tax-payers, and particularly for the reputation of one of our friends, I. N. Morris, as an accountant, that the bungling affair will not again appear in the shape it did last week. As it then stood, it read at the close of the exhibit:

"All of which is respectfully submitted."

A. FULLER, A. M. C.

Examined and approved by:

J. N. MORRIS, Commissioner.

J. L. WESTERVELT, Commissioner.

June 1, 1860.

Our neighbor of the Republican should not succeed in getting it right this week, we will, if Mr. Fuller will let us have the original manuscript, agree to set it up "according to copy," and not charge the county anything for it. If he will not do it, we will treat him to several glasses of "Holman," if he will let us have the original copy, with the signature of the Commissioners. We suggest to our contemporary of the Republican, the motto, "Try, try, again."

MORRIS, June 24th, 1860.

By order of the Committee Arrangement.

J. D. THAYER.

GRATIFYING—It must certainly be a very gratifying ticket, to see with what satisfaction the Abolitionists hereabouts, had the nomination of Breckenridge and Lane. If they would rather have Lincoln than Douglas for President, we would suggest to them that they vote directly for the Rail Splitter. The only difference it would make, is that it would be more above board, but no more effectual. If they would rather have Lincoln than Douglas, to take charge of the affairs of this government, then, rightly, they belong to the opposition.

WILL BE ELECTED—Despite the united efforts of Lincoln, Breckenridge & Co. to defeat him, Stephen A. Douglas will be elected President of these United States next fall. Men who have no principle—only opposition to Douglas—are now finely provided for,—they can vote their sentiments by supporting either Lincoln or Breckenridge—its all the same.

CONVENTION AND DEMONSTRATION.—We had a tolerably lengthy account of the doings of Saturday last written out, but we happened to think that EVERYBODY was here, and that it was useless to go to the trouble of telling folks what they saw. We all know that we "had the biggest time that was ever had in this town"—that there were in town a third more people than was ever here before. The manner in which the news of Douglas' nomination was received, will never be forgotten by any person that was present. It was a scene that is not describable. It struck terror to the hearts of the Republicans present, and they looked as though all their friends had suddenly been taken from them and they were left lone and helpless in the world.

The torch-light procession was a grand thing, and the speeches made from the Edwards House by Messrs C. H. REEVE, M. A. O. PACKARD, and JOHN A. SHURLEY, were sound and enthusiastic, and were received with rounds of applause. Another such demonstration would scare all the Republicans out of town. Let us keep at the good work begun, and we will carry this county by the largest majority ever given for any Democratic ticket in it. Let us recollect that "Eternal Vigilance is the price of Liberty," and that if we conquer the foe we must meet it at every corner and vanquish it.

COMMON PLAIN CONVENTION.—The convention to nominate a Judge and Prosecutor of the Common Pleas District, composed of the counties of Elkhart, St. Joseph, La Porte and Marshall, will be held on Saturday next, the 30th, at South Bend. By order of the Chairman of the different county Central Committees.

IT Wendell Phillips has given his opinion of Mr. Lincoln as a candidate for the Presidency. At a meeting in Boston, on Wednesday, he denounced Mr. Lincoln as a country-court lawyer, whose only recommendation was that, out of the captivity of his past, lying newspapers could make him any character they pleased.

THE LIQUOR LAW.—All the liquor cases in the Circuit Court in Delphi have been abandoned and the defendants discharged, the prosecutor believing that the law, attempting to confer jurisdiction on the Circuit Court, to be unconstitutional.

IT No greater revolution has ever been effected in medicine than that which is being brought about by Dr. John Bull's Vegetable Worm Destroyer. Children, catarrhs, or flatulency of liver, Wilson's Pills were just the thing. Disturbances of the Circulatory Organs, Wilson's Pills were just the thing. See "Guide to Health" to be had from R. L. Fahnestock & Co., No. 69 Wood Street, Pittsburgh, Pa. Sold by Varsburg & Co. Plymouth, Ind., and merchants generally.

JUST THE THING.—A prominent physician said of Dr. Wilson's Pills: "If my patient required an aperient, Wilson's Pills were just the thing I wanted. If he suffered from dyspepsia, acidity of stomach, constiveness, or flatulency of liver, Wilson's Pills were just the thing. Disturbances of the Circulatory Organs, Wilson's Pills were just the thing. See 'Guide to Health' to be had from R. L. Fahnestock & Co., No. 69 Wood Street, Pittsburgh, Pa. Sold by Varsburg & Co. Plymouth, Ind., and merchants generally."

The Pony Express, with dates from Carson Valley, arrived to-day.

It was thought that the war would soon be over, as the force now in the field would be able to subdue them, or drive them beyond the limits where mining operations are to be carried on.

It was the general opinion that the savages will have to be punished severely in order to bring them to terms.

A messenger had arrived from the army, reporting that the Indians had died without an engagement.

It is feared they will not stand a fight but retreat to the mountains, thus delaying the final issue, and probably leading to a protracted war.

Baltimore, June 24.

The nominations of both conventions were well received here by their respective friends, but all the outside enthusiasm is for Douglas. There was much excitement last night about the hotels.

The nomination of the Seceding convention was tendered to Mr. Guthrie's friends as well as to Mr. Hunter, but both candidates declined. It was understood that Mr. Breckenridge will accept.

A challenge has been sent to Mr. Smith, of California, by Mr. Nesbit, of Illinois, who was the delegate in the Convention during Mr. Smith's remarks, that if Mr. Cashing, the President, would not protect the members, they would protect themselves.

San Francisco, June 5.

The regulars and volunteers, under Hays and Stewart, attacked 500 Indians on the afternoon of the 2d, near Pyramid Lake.

The Indians were defeated with a loss of 70 killed and several wounded. Two volunteers killed and three wounded—Capt. Stover mortally. The battle was not decisive and another was expected 'soon.

One thousand eight hundred dollars had been raised at San Francisco, within three days, to furnish supplies for Col. Hays' volunteers.

Cairo, Ill., June 23.

The steamer Ben Lowie exploded her boiler and burnt in sight of Cairo, this morning. A number of lives were lost—Capt. Lawson is among the missing.

The bodies of Mrs. Williams and two children have been found.

Three persons wounded, now at the St. Charles, will probably die.

The second clerk, two chambermaids, two stewards, the mail agent, and five cabin passengers are missing.

Lynchburg, Va., June 23.
