

THE PLYMOUTH DEMOCRAT.

A. C. THOMPSON, ::::::::::: Editor.

PLYMOUTH, INDIANA:
THURSDAY MORNING, AUGUST 30.

F. C. PRESIDENT,
STEPHEN A. DOUGLAS OF ILLINOIS.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
HERSCHEL V. JOHNSON,
OF GEORGIA.

Public Speaking.

Let every Democrat in Marshall County who possibly can, attend here on Saturday next. It is hoped that all those who have learned that Hon. THOMAS A. HENDRICKS is to be here, will tell his neighbor who may not be informed of the fact. It is to be very much regretted that the notice has not been more widely circulated. Let every Democrat help to circulate the notice.

POLITICAL SPEAKING.

JON A. SMITH will address his Democratic friends at the Jones school house, in Bourbon township, on Saturday night, week, which will be the 8th of September.

HON. JAMES O. PARKS, our "Representatives," is invited to be present and defend the principles of the party he represents. The Democrats of that vicinity hope the honorable gentleman will not be so busy as to prevent his being in attendance.

Crowded Out.

We have to ask the forbearance of several correspondents and contributors whose communications have come to hand since the outside of our paper was set up. It is impossible for us to give them an insertion in this week's issue, as their length would exclude all the local and miscellaneous matter that our readers will expect in this issue. Among the contributions intended for this issue is T. McDONALD's reply to Judge FULLEN's article that appeared in last week's Republican also, a communication from KNOX, one from "Vindex" and a very interesting letter from our ever welcome Pikes Peak correspondent, ENOCH BELLANGE, all of which will appear in our next.

GOOD NEWS.

Our exchanges from every quarter, continue to bring us the most encouraging accounts of valuable and talented accessions to the conservative party that supports Douglas and Johnson. Well informed politicians who have been around through the States of Ohio and Minnesota give it as their opinion that those States will cast their electoral vote for Douglas. New Douglas organs are springing up everywhere all over the country and the people are rallying to the support of Douglas and Johnson. We have every encouragement—let us keep at work. We confidently believe that a glorious triumph awaits us this fall.

Col. Walker at Bourbon

According to announcement, Col. WALKER, elector at large for the State, addressed the citizens of Bourbon on Monday last. Considering that it was only two days after the Tippecanoe rally, the attendance was good,—larger than we anticipated it would be, there being about three hundred present.

On motion of S. BEALS, A. BOLD was elected Chairman, and J. W. DAVIS and R. S. PIER were chosen Vice Presidents. The President then introduced Col. WALKER.

The Colonel's speech was a good one in every particular. It was logical and candid, and gave general satisfaction to all save the Republicans present, and some of them appeared very much interested and from the attentive manner in which they listened, we have some hope of their denouncing the sectional Republican party and coming out on the right side and casting their votes for the only conservative party now in the country—the party that supports DOUGLAS and JOHNSON.

We intended giving a synopsis of the Colonel's speech, but we cannot wait for want of room.

The Democrats of Bourbon township are thoroughly organized and are doing a good work—There are some as good working Democrats there as there are in the county, and we are sure their labor is not in vain. Bourbon is another of the townships in this county that is going to come out gloriously this fall. Their Club meetings are largely attended and the very best of feeling pervades all their gatherings.

Apologetic.

Two weeks ago in speaking of the beauty of the editor of the Republican, we, in connection with his name spoke of a private citizen by the name of Adams, a man who we believe always attends to his own business. By speaking of him in the manner we did we had no intention to injure the gentleman's reputation as an honest and peaceable citizen. However he became offended, came to us and asked us to make an explanation, which we do most willingly, as we do not wish to offend any man, and hold ourselves ready at all times to make amends for whatever injury we may have done those of whom we have spoken. In the first place, he being the kind of a citizen we have above stated he is to be held in esteem, and in private life, we probably did wrong in speaking of him as we did, and in the second place, it is enough to insult any man to be spoken of in connection with MATTINGLY, and as he is by far a better looking man than MATTINGLY, he is justly indignant at us for having spoken of him as we did.

He was wrong in saying we spoke of him as we did, because he was a poor man and because he differed with us on politics, for we had always heard that he had plenty of money, and we did not know his political views until he told us himself that he is an abolitionist, and for this declaration of his principles we give him the credit of being a candid man, and incomparably more honest than most other men who belong to the opposition.

STEPHEN PRINGLE—This gentleman is the favorite correspondent of the M. C. Republican. In last week's issue of that paper he occupied nearly two columns trying to say something witty, but we are sorry to say that the one-horse Reverend gentleman failed entirely. From reading his long, flat and silly article, a person would not for a moment suppose that he was a preacher of the gospel—Shame on you! you old hypocritical sinner! You possess about as much religion as a wolverine.

That warn region you have probably warned sinners to shun, will doubtless be filled with just as good Christians as you are, so repeat, you old hypocrite, or throw off the cloak of religion and serve the devil, (the old gentleman,) in his own attire.

A DEMOCRATIC POLE will be raised at the residence of John Jacoby, Sen., on Saturday Sept. 8. Speakers will be in attendance.

Pole Raising and Demonstration.

The Pole raising and demonstration at Tippecanoe on Saturday last, was an entire success. The Democrats of that vicinity are working men, and deserve much credit for the noble manner in which they carried out their original intention of raising a rousing pole and gathering together a large number of the Democracy of this and Fulton counties, for the purpose of having a general good time.

When our band arrived in the suburbs of the town, we found a large delegation from Bourbon and the northern portion of the county, including those from Plymouth, who had gone to Bourbon on the Rail Road. The crowd from Fulton and the southern portion of this county having arrived first came out north to meet those from the north. In front of the procession was the Rochester Brass Band, which was entertaining and enlivening those within hearing, with their music. When we came in sight of the Bourbon road our eyes were greeted with flags and banners and our ears with soul-stirring martial music. After much trouble, our piece of band was gotten in front of the procession, which was over half a mile in length, and after we were there we did the best we could, and really succeeded in making a considerable of a noise and some music, notwithstanding the better portion of our band was not with us. When we halted and looked up, we found "Tip town," "plump full" of people, and saw them still coming in the distance. As soon as we had stopped we understood that there had been some shooting done, but at the time of writing this, we have not learned all the particulars of the affray and will give them elsewhere, when we are better informed. However, the affray caused much excitement and the fellow that did the shooting left town on "leg-hall," and made good his escape. After the procession had halted the marshal of the day, N. B. ALLEN, announced to the multitude that it was then about one o'clock and that they would adjourn one hour for dinner, and at two o'clock, they would commence raising the enormous pole that lay on the ground. All dislodged and every one went to the work. During the recess the members of the Rochester and Plymouth Bands were seated to what we thought, after having thoroughly tested it, was as good a dinner as was ever gotten up in this section of the country, and from the manner in which our "chum" pitched into it, we feel warranted in saying that this was the opinion of them all, and that they, emphatically, were away "satisfied." For all these good things we, all, are under obligations to our friend N. B. ALLEN, at whose house they were served up. "Long may he wave," just as good a Democrat, and as hospitable and whole souled a gentleman as he now is.

At about the upper hour, they commenced raising the pole which was, actual measurement, 178 feet in length, by which the way, is a pretty tall one, when up-ended. It was raised slowly, steadily and nicely, everything having been put in the best of order for setting it up. The job was "choused" by our energetic friend, STEPHEN MERRIN, who is just as good a Democrat as any of them, but not a bit better than hundreds of others who were on the ground at the same time. At a little past three, the pole was planted firmly on the ground, with the long and brilliant streamer on it, and soon a splendid flag was run up, with the names of DOUGLAS and JOHNSON upon it. Then a series of round's of cheers were proposed and given in a manner that told that the enthusiasm had been kept down about as long as possible, and that it afforded them the greatest relief imaginable to get an opportunity to give vent to it in some way.

The crowd was then marched to the grove west of town, where arrangements had been made to accommodate the assembly.

On motion of N. B. ALLEN, JOSEPH EVANS was chosen chairman. STEPHEN MEREDITH, JOHN VANTRESE and PETER MEREDITH were made Vice Presidents, and S. BEALS appointed Secretary. After the election of the above officers the president introduced M. A. O. PACKARD, to the audience.

M. A. O. PACKARD, made one of his usually able and sound speeches which was listened to with profound attention by the audience. After he had taken his seat, an elderly gentleman from Fulton county was introduced and spoke in a most sensible, candid, convincing and enthusiastic manner. We are sorry that his name has slipped our memory.

By this time it had grown quite late in the afternoon, and having some distance to go to reach home, we were compelled to leave. John A. SMITH had just been called out and had begun to detail out some of his sledge-hammer truths. We hope he gave them one of his best speeches.

We would guess that the crowd was made up of twelve or fifteen hundred persons, and we feel safe in saying that it was the greatest number of Democrats ever in Tippecanoe at any one time.

The enthusiasm that pervaded the entire crowd was the main characteristic of the day's performance. It was a day that will long be remembered by the citizen's of that village. The Democrats will bless it, and the Republicans will curse it, as the day that their strong hold was broken, and from it will date the time when their majority began to "grow gradually small and beautifully less."

This will be the case, we predict, and so do the Republicans who were at Tip town on Saturday last. Their long sad faces told of their inward emotions. Although it may sound strange to those acquainted with the politics of that town and township, to hear a Democrat say it, yet we say, Hurrah for Tippecanoe! she will give a good account of herself this fall,—mind that.

"The big advertiser" and the "7x3" of Warsaw, have been consolidated, and hereafter will be issued under the name of the Indiana and Commercial, by WILLIAMS & NUTT, they having purchased the Plymouth from Mr. MUNO. Mr. M. in his valiantly gives the Republicans of Kosciusko "hail columbus," and more to. We extract as follows:

"Suffice it to say, therefore, that as corrupt a clique of rotten-headed politicians as ever cursed a political party, whose motto is "rule or ruin," who were so contemptibly mean as not only to interfere in the management of our paper, but also constituted themselves a "Swelling Committee" to put into our private affairs, and even stopped so long in their work that it would be our personal and political friends, and who, when they found they could not control us, set the Indiana for their interest, as against the interest of the people, plotted the destruction of our business and reputation."

Our sympathies are with you CHARLES, but the fact is, you had no business to be a Republican. As they are in Kosciusko, so they are all over the land—even here in Marshall county. Our friend up street, if he could tell the truth, would "a tale unfold" the same as you have done—only a little "more so." An Aristocracy—such as Republicanism—can have no sympathy with the people. It does not belong to their creed. To the balance of your valetudinary we say, "dat ist ich gott," and would ask you to remember that

"Truth crushed to earth will rise again."

ELA full Houston Electoral ticket has been nominated in New York.

"RAG TAGS" and "GREASY MECHANICS."—The stock up old "plug" of the Republican calls laboring men "Rag Tags" and "Greasy Mechanics." Do you your way old "mullet head," but we rather think the laboring men of this county will take some of the starch out of you and your stock up pants this fall.

OFF CAME HIS HEAD OFF.—George M. Dowell, ex-editor of the Banner published at Bluffton, in this State, got his official head cut off, on account of his Douglas proclivities, so we learn from the Banner, and it says further that another Douglass man was appointed—there being no Breckinridge man to take the office. It is too bad about Douglas democratic being so plenty and Breckinridge men so scarce in that region.

THE WOOL clip of Ohio this year is over nine millions of pounds, worth over four millions of dollars—Exchange.

How much extra exertion on the part of Indiana farmers would it take to produce the same amount of wool and the same figures in this State. Let our farming population make up its mind, as sooner or later it must, that wheat and corn raising is not the only way by which money can be made. A few million pounds of wool raised in Indiana would at once increase her revenue and home manufactures. Wheat makes us bread, and corn makes us whisky, but it does not tend directly to building up extensive manufacturing interests. Farmers of Marshall, paste this in your hat, and act accordingly.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING AT SAN JUAN.

The Democracy of San Juan, Stark Co., held a large meeting in the Grove near that village, on Tuesday afternoon last. A fine Band of music was present on the occasion. The meeting was addressed by Col. John C. Walker, of this place, and by M. A. O. Packard, Esq., of Plymouth, and State delegate to the Legislature in Marshall and Stark counties. Col. W.'s speech was a able vindication of the principles of popular sovereignty. Mr. Packard is a fine speaker. On this occasion he handled the Republicans without gloves. He will be elected by a large majority. The Democrats of old Democratic Stark are wide awake in the cause.—La Potosi Times.

THE EFFECT OF ELOQUENCE.

The Vincennes Sun gives the following as one of the effects of Cassius M. Clay's speech at that place:

During the delivery of Clay's speech on Saturday, Aunt Rider, a well known old nurse, got much excited, and began to shout in the most appropriate style, exclaiming, "God Massa Clay! I wish I had de power of Moses to 'sist you in de glorious work of raisin up us poor niggers!' God bless you—how I'd lug to hub you!" Old Aunt was finally quieted with assurance from one of the "irrepressibles," that she could have an opportunity of embracing her old after he had finished his speech.

WELCOME TO JUDGE DOUGLAS.

We are advised that Judge Douglas will pass through Indianapolis on his way to Illinois, early in September. This will afford the Democrats of Indiana an excellent opportunity to assemble at Indianapolis and give the Champion of Popular Rights a welcome to the man and the cause in which he stands. We shall be sure to let you know that Judge Douglas will be here, and we now announce the intended demonstration, so that the Democracy may be prepared to assemble at short notice.

They are also prepared to Fold and Draw Cloth at low rates and on short notice.

CLOTH WILL BE EXCHANGED FOR WOOL ON FAIR TERMS.
