

THE DEMOCRAT

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Maple Sugar taken on subscription at this office.

V. O'DONNELL, and his large lot of Spectacles have moved to one door south of Wheeler's Bank.

A. L. Reeves, successor to E. C. Overman, in the Variety Store, has just got his new stock of Goods marked and arranged upon the shelves and is now ready for the spring trade.

Mr. Reeves is a comparative stranger in our place, but will not long remain so, his low prices for good goods and gentlemanly manner will soon introduce him to buyers.

At a meeting of the Parishioners of St. Thomas' Church in this place, held on the 6th inst., the same being Easter Monday—G. S. Cleveland and M. A. O. Packard were elected Wardens, and J. G. Osborne, H. B. Dickson, C. Palmer, D. E. VanValkenburgh and D. McDonald Vestrymen for said parish for the ensuing year.

Geo. Grace has taken out an auctioneer's license, and will sell property of all kinds at reasonable rates. He is a good auctioneer and an accommodating gentleman. Call on him.

We received an account of the organization of a Democratic Club in Union township, last week, but have lost it. We are very sorry, for the meeting was enthusiastic and interesting, and we desired to present the minutes to our readers.

Flagg & Pratt, the magic oil men, gave a concert at Hewett & Woodward's Hall last Tuesday eve. A more intolerable humbug that their "show," we have never been compelled to witness. If their "oil" possesses no greater healing powers than its manufacturers do vocal, somebody can have our bottle.

Barn Bersker—A few evenings ago the abolitionists of Michigan city held a meeting in that place, and during its session sent out some of the brotherhood to fire the horns of a few Democrats in the place. Some half dozen were burned, and the poor, cowardly, depraved, devilish, incendiary wretches actually boasted over the deed, chuckling over the fact that none of the attendants of the meeting went to extinguish the flames.

Copp is a fair representative of such people; their father, the Devil, has arranged them properly—given to each his proper field.

M. R. Justice has a new advertisement in this week's paper. He is determined not to let the reputation of the old "Revolution" suffer, if a large stock of Goods and low prices will sustain it. He invites investigation to prove the truth of what he says.

During the past week Mr. James Thompson has been robbed in our place of a pocket-book containing about $250. Mr. David Gibbons of a pocket book containing $430, and Mr. H. H. Baxter of a gold watch.

Robberies of this character and becoming too frequent in our place. There are a set of fellows around here who are driving a heavy business at stealing, and some measures should be adopted to detect them, at least the effort should be made. Stealing is not honest and should not be countenanced.

MARRIAGE—On the 7th inst., at the residence of the bride in this place, by Rev. F. E. Webb, Mr. J. M. Lanning, M. D. of Paris, Iowa, to Miss E. M. Bolton.

DEATH—On the 3d inst., at his residence in Marshall County, of spotted fever, John H. Forbes, aged years.

Mr. Forbes was one of the oldest, best and most highly respected citizens of the county, one of the plain, unvarnished ornaments that beautify society and the world. None know or spoke ill of him.

He was at the time of his death one of commissioners our County.

ALSO—DAVID HUBBARD, at his residence in Plymouth, of the same disease.

Mr. Hubbard was an honest industrious citizen of our place and leaves a large family bereaved.

ALSO—On the 4th inst., in Plymouth, BERTIE, son of MARK and LAVANTIA CUMMINGS, aged five months.

BERTIE was a sweet little child, better fitted for Heaven than earth. He is the third treasure laid up in Heaven, of the mourning parents.

100 HORSES WANTED IMMEDIATELY!!

We will be at Hess & Co's Stable at Plymouth for a few days only. CRAWFORD & CO. Plymouth Indiana, April 9th 1863, n1043.
