O. P. M. on the Rampage.

Gov. Morton has issued his manifesto to the people of Indiana relative to the suggestions of the Democratic, State Central Committee, contained in an address which we published last week. The Gov.

deter them from their purpose. They have endured the inexcusable misrule of Morton as long they intend to, and nothing short of absolute military possession of the polls will prevent them from giving him a ticket of leave at the end of his present term. In conclusion we add that democrats do not intend to inaugurate strife or violence, but they "know their rights and knowing dare maintain them" in peace if possible, but by force if necessary, and O. P. M. and all others concerned had better take notice and govern themselves accordingly.—Give us our rights and all will be peace, withhold them and we cannot answer for the consequences.

To the Democracy and Conservatives Generally of Marshall County.

We, the Democratic Central Committee of Marshall County, having met for the purpose of considering the recommendations of the Democratic State Central Committee, are unanimous in the opinion that their suggestions are wise, constitutional, and ought to be carried into effect in this county. We therefore recommend to the Democracy of Marshall County to meet on Wednesday and Saturdays of each week thereafter for the purpose of drill at 3 P. M., without arms. As the organization of said companies progresses further suitable regulations for their government, &c., will be made.

By order of the Committee,
D. McDONALD, Chairman,
A. C. THOMPSON, Sec'y.

Conscription.

Is compulsory military service in accordance with the genius of Republican Government? When conscription becomes necessary in a government like ours, one of two things must be true: Either the cause in behalf of which it is invoked is Indiana—Political Prospects.

We are gratified to learn, as we do from parties that have recently traveled in Indiana, that the prospects for the success of the Democratic State Ticket are very flattering. Indeed, Republicans, who understand the public sentiment, concede that the way things look Morton must be defeated. The reaction that is everywhere making such inroads into the Republican party, is operating powerfully in Indiana. Changes can be counted by hundreds all over the State, against the Administration.

The last order by Lincoln for five hundred thousand more men apalled all classes, and made the people heartsick at the prospect ahead.

None are better aware of the change going on among the people than the Lincoln leaders. They see that if things go on as they are, Morton will be defeated by from thirty to fifty thousand majority, and they are counseling desperate measures to avoid such a result. A prominent Postmaster told one of our informants, whom he regarded as a Republican, that unless some plan was adopted to intimidate the people, Morton would be badly beaten, and that something would have to be done to keep voters from the polls disposed to vote against Morton.

Lincoln is, therefore, strongly urged to put Indiana under martial law, under which arbitrary arrests can be made, and a course of intimidation adopted and pursued, that will deter Democrats and conservative Republicans from voting.

That is now the last resort of the friends of Morton to secure his re-election. However atrocious it is, these men are reckless and desperate enough to adopt it. The people must not be allowed a free and fair ballot, or Morton & Co. will be defeated. That is the way the contest is now viewed by the Lincoln leaders, and they are clamoring for martial law.—Cin. Eng.

Grant lost more men in his march to Richmond than the aggregate of Lee's entire army opposed to him! This was not Grant's fault, but Lincoln's, who instructed Grant as to the route he should take. What a fact is this! And nothing gained by this enormous loss! Sixty or seventy thousand men thrown away—their heads knocked against a stone wall! By the other route—the vicinity of McClellan route—the victory of Richmond might have been reached without the loss of a man. It is to repair such horrible mismanagement as this that the country is called upon for more men. And what assurance is there that this mismanagement will not be repeated again and again in the future as it has been in the past?—What assurance is there that the Great

THE NEWS.

From the Chicago Times Aug. 21.

In the fight at the Weldon Railroad, on Friday last, the Federals lost over 3,000 men,—1,500 being prisoners. The rebels gained some ground in the afternoon, but it was retaken by the Federals in the evening. On Saturday and Sunday there was heavy cannonading. A battle for the possession of the railroad is looked for at any moment.

The 2d Corps, which has been north of the James, recrossed the river on Saturday night.

The whole of Early's forces are east of Winchester. On Sunday there was considerable skirmishing near Charleston, eight miles from Harper's Ferry. Refugees from Richmond report that 40,000 troops, under Gen. Lee in person, are moving to reinforce Early. Farmers living along the Potomac are moving their stock towards Pennsylvania for safety.

The rebels have 85,000 troops at Atlanta, 40,000 being Georgia militia. Sherman has felt their lines to the extent of eighteen miles, but has as yet been unable to turn their position. It is reported that Wheeler's cavalry have crossed the river above Chattanooga and gone to East Tennessee.

The forces under Gen. Grainger are within 500 yards of Fort Morgan. The rebels have opened fire upon them, and the surrender of the fort is hourly expected.

The State of Illinois has been made a military district, and Gen. Paine, of Wis., appointed commandant, with headquarters at Springfield.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 21.

Some days ago Gov. Morton received a dispatch from the East stating that a large quantity of arms were being shipped to disloyal parties in Indiana.—On the 17th inst. four boxes were received addressed to J. J. Parsons' firm of H. H. Dodd & Co., printers, of this city.—Last night twenty-two boxes more to the same address were received: and drayed to Dodd's office. The military authorities immediately placed a guard around the building and took possession of the boxes. Upon examination they were found to contain revolvers of the best quality and fixed ammunition.

J. J. Parsons and Charles P. Hutchins, Dodd's partners, and Wm. Harrison, Grand Secretary of the Sons of Liberty were arrested and placed under guard at the Soldiers' Home. The two former were released on taking the oath of allegiance. This evening a book, containing the list of the Sons of Liberty, was found in Dodd's safe, including the Secretary and Auditor of the State, Attorney General and J. J. Bingham, editor of the National, and the names of four hundred rebel

To the President of the United States.

The undersigned, citizens of the State of Ohio without regard to party, and in sentiment devoted to the Constitution and the Union, respectfully petition and request that the draft for half a million more men ordered to take place on the 5th day of September next, may be postponed until an attempt has been made by negotiation to secure Peace, based on the Constitution and the Union.
August, 1864.

The above is circulating throughout Ohio, and we are informed, is receiving the signature of without respect to their past or present party status. No harm can come of signing it, while much good may result. We advise everybody, men, women, to sign it, and forward immediately to the President.

Whether the appended answers are proper responses to the interesting interrogatories preceding them, doubtless those familiar with spirits can decide. As our city is now honored with the presence of many of this class, it is at least an "apt time" to attempt to gain information on these points.

If the Devil wished to invite a mortal to join his chained spirits, what name would he use? Link-on.

If he wished to command his imps to abduct a strong-minded, virtuous female, what name would he use? Hooker.

If he wanted to describe the punishment he inflicts on his subjects, what name would he use? Barnside.

If he wanted to borrow under clothing, to whom would he apply? Shurtz.

If he wished to defend hell against assault, whom would he hire? Garrison.

If he wished to wreck a vessel, whom would he hire as pilot? Beecher.

If he wished to scorch a man in his deepest pit, whom would he hire? Brownlow.—Chicago Times.

"The Albany Journal reads Senator Wade out of the party, and bids him a 'long farewell.'"—Albany (N. Y.) Argus and Atlas.

The Journal is edited by a son of Secretary Seward, and draws its inspiration from Thurlow Weed. Wade will never be forgiven for his bold protest by Lincoln & Co.
