

THE DEMOCRAT.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Our friends would do well to remember that advertisements for insertion in the Democrat must be handed in as early as Tuesday noon.

The military court for the trial of the assassination conspirators met at Washington Tuesday. Gen. Hunter is president of the commission; nothing was done beyond arranging the rules and mode of proceedings.

We are under obligations to Hon. J. K. Edgerton, ex-member of Congress from the 10th district, for a copy of his able speech in Congress Feb. 20, 1865, on reconstruction; also for a copy of the speech of Hon. Robert Mallory, of Ky., on the subject of amending the constitution so as to abolish and prohibit slavery.

The June number of Peterson's Magazine has been received at this office. It is a capital number, equal to the best of its predecessors. It contains a table of contents for the last six months, together with a list of its steel, colored and wood engravings, and music. Now is a good time to subscribe for this charming two dollar monthly.

The newly elected Corporation officers were sworn into office, and the board organized last Saturday evening. We hope that efficient means will at once be instituted to clean the streets and alleys of our town. The condition of some of the alleys is deplorable, and wood-piles and trash exist in some of the streets to the extent of almost becoming a regular nuisance. Let these things be attended to without delay.

The new store room of S. & M. Becker is now being filled with a large stock of goods bought expressly for the spring and summer trade, and they are daily receiving fresh supplies to fill up the space made vacant by their extensive sales. The public are solicited to call on them in Brownlee's new brick, and examining their goods, they will not be undersold by any dry goods house in Northern Indiana.

Henry Higgins, Esq., for some time editor of the Fort Wayne Times, and who for several months has been lying very sick at the residence of C. H. Reeve, in this place, was removed on Monday to LaPorte where he will receive the medical treatment of Dr. Higday, of that place. Mr. Higgins has received no perceptible change for the better from the medical treatment he has had here, and it is thought by some of his friends in La Porte that Dr. H's treatment will work a radical cure. We sincerely hope his recovery will be speedily brought about, that he may be permitted to resume his labors in some field where they will be as fruitful of good to the community as when in the editorial chair of the Times.

A. J. Holmes Esq., Auditor of Fulton County was in town Monday evening last. When we saw him he was being instructed in some of the sublime mysteries relative to an ancient structure of which many often speak, and yet of which comparatively few know much. However Jack seemed bent on acquiring all the knowledge possible, and labored on in the rough and rugged way with commendable zeal until, it is believed, he gained the Sullim object of his search.

The Republican last week alluded to the non-appearance of this paper, and the sickness of one of its editors, in its characteristic style of low vulgarity and sense less slang. We presume the editor of that paper knows perhaps better than we, the craving of its class of readers, and it such pabulum as it furnishes them from week to week suits their taste, we know no good reason why it should not keep up the supply.

The three store rooms in Brownlee and Humrichouser's new brick building are now occupied. Dickson & Co., hardware merchants in the south room, S. & M. Becker, dry goods and clothing, in the middle, and Buek & Toan, hardware in the north room. These are three of the finest salesrooms in the State, and are occupied by men who appreciate a fine business locality. The upper rooms are being completed as rapidly as possible and will be ready for use in a short time. We understand that Mr. Humrichouser intends finishing the room in the third story of his part of the building for a Ball and Concert room. It will make a good one for those purposes.

The Family Gem Sewing Machine.
This worthless article is largely advertised in many of the leading papers all over the country. It is represented as being just the thing that is most wanted in every family, and is offered for the small sum of $5.00. We were induced by the puffs of such papers as the Independent, and More's Rural New Yorker, to send for a "masheen" which we now have on hand, and which we would be glad to sell for one dollar, just the amount of express charges paid by us for the concern; but we frankly say to our readers that if we buy it even at that price they will be badly cheated.

THE PLYMOUTH WEEKLY DEMOCRAT.

NUMBER 36.

PEACE, PEACE,

And good will toward all mankind, was the motto of General Grant in the occupation of Richmond, and the consequent surrender of Lee and his Confederate forces; thus allowing the world to behold a season of real and lasting peace, and the cessation of war, as well as a full permission to return to their friends and loved ones at home. Consequently on such operations a panic ensued in New York and sister cities, enabling the bar tender modestly informed them should not be dealt out without "pay in advance," whereupon they took forcible possession of the bar, and after beating the proprietor most shamefully, and drinking freely of beer, left for parts unknown.
