

Bill Hill gets up the neatest Lemonade in town.

T. A. Simons has moved his stock of groceries to the room North of Blain's Drug Store.

Our energetic supervisor, Mr. Joseph Westervelt, is still engaged in the good work of improving our streets. Success to him in his arduous labor.

The weather has been oppressively warm and very dry for some time past; the thermometer reaching away up into the nineties, and the dust flying in clouds. Where's the man that is to sprinkle our streets?

If you want nice Photographs the place to get them is at the Photograph rooms of J. R. Losey, over Rice & Bro's Store.—Mr. Losey is taking the finest tone pictures in the County.

Col. Bailey is fixing up the store room below the Democrat office in grand style, and will move his stock of Books, Stationery, &c., together with the Post office, in a few days.

The death sentence of Milligan, Bowles and Horsey, has been commuted by the president to imprisonment for life. They were removed last week to Columbus, Ohio, and are now confined in the State prison at that place.

Father Paul, with whom all our citizens have been acquainted for several years past, died in this place, and was taken to Fort Wayne for burial. He was quite aged, and had been a consistent member of the Presbyterian Church for many years.

The Gipsy tribe which has infested this neighborhood for some time past have we learned changed their quarters and gone to some other locality—a good riddance.—May they have a safe journey and a long one.

We acknowledge the receipt, by express, of a beautiful and tastefully arranged bouquet of elegant flowers, from the south part of the State. The fair donor will please accept our thanks for the choice gift.

SUDDEN DEATH.—A little daughter of Mr. John Noll, of this place, was suddenly attacked on Sunday last with a severe fit of vomiting, while on a visit with her parents to Valparaiso, and expired in a very short time. It is supposed that her death was occasioned by sun stroke. Her remains were brought home by the afflicted parents, and buried here on Monday.

O. H. P. BAILEY, Ch'n.

I. MATTINGLY, Secy.

The other day, while in town, an over zealous but indiscreet republican, of the radical abolition negro-equality persuasion having imbibed somewhat to freely of that delectable fluid called, for short, "forty rod whisky," became very abusive to one of his democratic neighbors, calling him a traitor, and sundry other hard names. Democrat not relishing this kind of conversation, advised the other to abstain from the use of such epithets in connection with his name, intimating that if he did not the result might impress a lesson calculated to teach him a little discretion.

EDWARD H. ENGLISH, Guardian. JUNE 8.—349

This, of course, offended republican, and he "went for" democrat, and—found him, but the sound thrashing. The day has passed by when citizens will tamely submit to having heaped upon them outrageous epithets of the character heretofore much too freely used by a certain class of fanatics, a limited number of whom reside in this county.

The board of county commissioners commenced their June session on Monday last. This is usually a very laborious, and sometimes a somewhat lengthy session. Why the Catholic and Methodist Churches were not open for service, we have not learned. The attendance was small at both places, not more perhaps than a hundred or so being present including both congregations.

The Circus last week was largely attended both morning and evening, although the weather was so hot as to render the crowd very uncomfortable. Of the performance, we have only to say, that the equestrian was tolerable, the horses well trained, the clown confabulations exceedingly "fat, stale, and unprofitable," while the gymnastics were the best which have been exhibited here for a dozen years.

The board of Corporation Trustees should take immediate and energetic steps to have our streets and alleys cleaned. The accumulations of filth and garbage in some places are absolutely frightful, and unless something is done to remove them we may expect, before the warm weather comes, to see a vast amount of sickness in our midst. These depositaries of garbage and filth are productive of horrible stench, and odors quite the reverse of redolent.

They should be removed at once, and if the people who inhabit the lots adjoining will not do it, let the board order the Marshal to do it, and see that he performs the duty at once. Delay in this matter is death.

THE PLYMOUTH WEEKLY DEMOCRAT.

NUMBER 40.

The Indictment of Lee—Gen. Weltzel's Expedition.

The N. Y. Tribune's special dispatch from Norfolk, Va., June 2, says:

"The impeachment of Gen. Lee before the grand jury in the United States District Court, in session in this city, was postponed on last Wednesday until to-day, in consequence of the reception of the president's proclamation of amnesty, as the presiding judge stated, to afford opportunity to those interested to peruse and study."

The Texas expedition under General Weltzel, consists of two Divisions of the 25th corps, and sixty first-class steamers make up its transports. The command takes rations for forty days, and 500 rounds of ammunition for each man.

It is stated that the report that disunions had carried Virginia at the election last week, is altogether too sweeping in its character. Most all who are elected to the legislature voted against the secession of the states, and have been opposed to him ever since.

From Cairo.

CAIRO, June 3. The prisoners arrived at New Orleans from Camp Ford, Texas, consist of large detachments from the 77th and 13th Illinois, 12th Ohio, 173d New York, 16th Indiana, 2d and 6th Kansas, and smaller detachments from the 28th, 32d, and 14th Iowa, 86th Illinois, 50th Indiana, 162d and 169th New York, the Chicago Mercantile battery, and a number of miscellaneous squads from almost every state, together with crews of the steamers Emma, City Belle, and John Warner, also a few of the Clifton and Morning Light. The latter are the oldest prisoners of the war, having been prisoners twenty-eight months.

An Indianapolis dispatch of Monday says with reference to the payment and mustering out of Indiana troops, we have two reports—one that they are to be mustered out at Louisville, and the other that they are to come here. In view of the last named contingency, the commandant here has ordered the closing of all drinking saloons to soldiers.

To Delinquent Tax Payers.

Notice is hereby given that the Delinquent Tax Duplicate is now in the hands of an officer for collection. All who owe Delinquent Taxes will save costs by paying the same before being visited by the Collector. Taxes may be paid either at the Treasurer's office at Plymouth, or to Dr. How, who is properly authorized to receipt for the same.
