

Wanted.

AN HONEST INDUSTRIOUS BOY.

We lately saw an advertisement headed as above. It conveys to every boy an impressive moral lesson.

"An honest, industrious boy" is always wanted. He will be sought for by his services will be in demand; he will be respected and loved; he will be spoken of in terms of high commendation, he will always have a home; he will grow up to be a man of known worth and established character.

He will be wanted. The merchant will want him for a salesman or a clerk; the master mechanic will want him for an apprentice or a journeyman; patients for a physician; religious congregations for a pastor; parents, for a teacher of their children; and the people for an officer.

He will be wanted. Townsfolk will want him as a citizen; acquaintances as a neighbor; neighbors as a friend; families as a visitor; the world as an acquaintance; nay, the girls will want him for a beau, and finally for a husband.

An honest industrious boy! Just think of it, boys; will you answer this description? Are you sure you will be wanted? You may be smart and active, but that does not fill the requisition—are you honest? You may be well dressed and create a favorable impression at first sight—are you both "honest and industrious"? You may apply for a "Good Situation"—are you sure that your friends, teachers, acquaintances, can recommend you for these qualities? Oh, how would you feel, your character not being thus established, on hearing the words "can't employ you." Nothing else will make up the lack of these qualities. No readiness or aptness for business will do it. You must be honest and industrious—must work and labor; then will your "calling and election" for places of profit and trust be made sure.

THE SIEVES OF SOCIETY.—You would not put your precious wine into a sieve; yet that were as wise as to make a confidant of one of those "leaky vessels" of society that, like water-carriers, seem to have been made for the express purpose of letting out what they take in. There is this difference, however, between the perforated punchon and the leaky brain—the former lays the dust, and the latter is pretty sure to rise one. Beware of cozy-headed people between whose ears and mouth there is no partition. Before you make a bosom friend of any man, be sure that he is secret-keeper. The mischief that the non-retentives do is infinite. In war they often mar the best laid schemes, and render futile the most profound strategy. In social life they sometimes set whole communities by the ears, frequently break up families, and are the cause of innumerable misfortunes, miseries, and crimes. In business they spoil many a promising speculation, and involve hundreds in bankruptcy and ruin. Therefore be very careful to whom you intrust information of vital importance to your own interests or the interest of those you hold dear. Every man has a natural inclination to communicate what he knows, and if he does not do so, it is because his reason and judgment are strong enough to control this inherent propensity. When you find a friend who can exercise absolute power over the communicative instinct—if we may so term it—wear him in your heart, "yes, in your heart of hearts." If you have no such friend, keep your own counsel.

Hogs in Orchards.

A Cayuga county correspondent advises as follows in the Country Gentleman: "The true way for eastern pig feeders who do not wish to put up their swine is to have their pens connected with their orchards. Don't ring the pigs, but feed them well, and just let them root as they will. This course will mature your orchard, and you are sure of a good crop of apples. In hot weather the shade is grateful to the swine, beside the great benefit to future crops by having all wormy and cecidial stung fruit picked as it falls. I have followed this course with swine and orchard twenty-five years, and but one year failed in having an abundance of fruit. If the orchard becomes too weedy plough and plant with early potatoes, or some crop which matures early. Sow with small grain next spring, seeding with clover and orchard grass, harvesting grain by turning in pigs; and if the pigs are fattened by liberal feeding, which confinement in a close pen, the consumer will find it an improvement in the quality and flavor of his pork."

The best anecdote of Lorenzo Dow that we have seen, is that of a conversation that occurred between Dow and the late General Root, in the presence of one Rush, at whose house they were stopping. The dialogue is related as follows: "You say a good deal about heaven, sir," said the General, "pray tell us how it looks."

Lorenzo turned his grave face and long waving beard toward the General and Mr. Bush, and replied with imperturbable gravity:

"Heaven, my friends, is a vast extent of smooth, rich territory. There is not a root or a bush in it, and there never will be."

A BOY'S LAWYER.—Under a great tree close to the village, two boys found a walnut. "It belongs to me," said Ignatius, "for I was the first to see it." "No, it belongs to me," cried Bernard, "for I was the first to pick it up," and so they began to quarrel in earnest. "I will settle the dispute," said the older boy, who had just between the two boys, broke the nut in two, and said: "The one piece of shell belongs to him who first saw the nut; the other piece belongs to him who first picked it up; but the kernel I keep for judging the case." "And this," he said, as he sat down and laughed, "is the common end of most lawsuits."

It is stated that over $40,000 have been subscribed by the wealthy friends of General Lee in Baltimore and vicinity, for the purpose of relieving him and his family from actual suffering for the common necessities of life, caused by the confiscation of his property.

SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP,

SEAWEED TONIC,

AND

MANDRICKE PILLS

The above is a correct likeness of Dr. Schenck, just after recovering from Consumption, many years ago. Below is a likeness of him as he now appears.

When the first was taken he weighed 107 pounds; at the present time his weight is 220 pounds

DR. SCHENCK'S

Principal Office and Laboratory at the N. E. corner of SIXTH and COMMERCIAL Streets, Philadelphia, where all letters for advice or business should be directed.

He will be found there every SATURDAY, professionally to examine lungs with the Respirator, for which his fee is three dollars; all advice free.

In New York at No. 32 BOND Street, every TUESDAY, from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M.

At the MARLBORO' HOTEL, Boston, January 12 and 13, February 12 and 13, March 12 and 13, April 12 and 13, May 12 and 13, June 12 and 13, July 12 and 13.

The time for my being in BALTIMORE and PITTSBURG will be seen in the daily papers of those cities.

The History of Dr. Schenck's own case and how he was cured of Consumption.

Many years ago, whilst residing in Philadelphia, I had progressed gradually into the last stage of Pulmonary Consumption. All hopes of my recovery being dissipated, I was advised by my physician, Dr. Parsh, to remove into the country. Moorestown, New Jersey, being my native place, I was removed thither. My father and all his family had lived and died there—and I was put to bed, where I lay for many weeks in that wretched condition.

Dr. Thornton, who had been my father's family physician, and had attended him in his last illness, was called to see me. He thought my case entirely beyond the reach of medicine, and decided that I must die, and gave me one week to arrange my temporal affairs. In this apparently hopeless condition, I heard of the remedies which I now make and sell. It seemed to me that I could feel them working their way, and penetrating every nerve, fibre, and tissue of my system.

My lungs and liver put on a new action, and the morbid matter which for years had accumulated and irritated the different organs of the body, was eliminated, the tubercles on my lungs retracted, and I expected from my lungs as much as a pint of yellow offensive matter every morning.

I became a healthy man, was a large healthy man, and I was able to devote my undivided attention to lung diseases. In truth, I was next to forced to it, for people would send for me far and near, to ascertain whether their cases were like mine.

For many years, in conjunction with my principal office in Philadelphia, I have been making regular professional visits to New York, Boston, Baltimore, and Pittsburgh.

For several years past I have made as many as five hundred examinations weekly with the "Respirator." For such examination my fee is one dollar, and it enables me to give each patient the true condition of his disease, and tell him frankly whether he will get well.

The Pulmonic Syrup is one of the most valuable medicines known. It is nutrient, powerful, and healing. It contains no opiates, yet it loosens the phlegm in the bronchial tubes, and nature throws it off with little exertion. One bottle frequently cures an ordinary cold; but it will be well to take a dose of Schenck's Mandricke Pills to cleanse the stomach.

The Pulmonic Syrup is readily digested and absorbed into blood, to which it imparts its healing properties. It is one of the best preparations of iron in use, is a powerful tonic of itself, and when the Seaweed Tonic dissolves the mucus in the stomach, and is carried off by the aid of the Mandricke Pills a healthy flow of gastric juice, good appetite, and a good digestion follow.

The Seaweed Tonic is a stimulant, and none are so required when it is used. It is pure and pleasant; no bad effects like when using Bourbon whisky, which disorders the stomach, torps the liver, locks up the secretions, turns the blood into water, dropsy sets in, and the patient dies suddenly.

The Seaweed Tonic produces lasting results, thoroughly regulating the stomach and digestive system, and enabling it to eliminate and make into healthy blood the food which may be used for that purpose. It is so wonderful in its effects that a wine glass full will digest a hearty meal, and a little of it taken before breakfast will give a tone to the stomach which few medicines possess the power of doing.

THE MANDRICKE PILLS may be taken with entire safety by all ages and conditions, producing all the good results that can be obtained from calomel, or any of the mercurial medicines, and without any of their hurtful or injurious results. They carry out of the system the feculent and morbid contents, and dissolve by the aid of the Seaweed Tonic and Pulmonic Syrup. It will be seen that all three of my medicines are needed in most cases to cure Consumption.

SEWING MACHINES.

EMPIRE

Shuttle Machine.

PATENTED FEBRUARY 14TH, 1860.

Sales room, 536 Broadway New York.

This Machine is constructed on an entirely new principle of mechanism, possessing many rare and valuable improvements, having been examined by the most renowned experts of material, and pronounced to be the SIMPLICITY and PERFECTION COMBINED.

The following are the principal objections urged against Sewing Machines:

1. Excessive labor to the operator.
2. Liability to get out of order.
3. Expense, trouble, loss of time in repairing.
4. Incapacity to sew every description of material.
5. Disagreeable noise while in operation.

The Empire Sewing Machine is Exempt from all these Objections.

It has a straight needle, perpendicular action; makes the LOCK STITCH, which will neither run nor unravel, and is alike on both sides; performs perfect sewing on every description of material, from Leather to the finest Nansook Muslin, with cotton, linen or silk thread, from the coarsest to the finest number.

Having neither Cam nor Cog-wheel, and the least possible friction, it runs as smooth as gales, and is

EMPHATICALLY A NOISELESS MACHINE.

It requires FIFTY per cent. less power to drive it than any other machine in use. A girl of twelve years of age can work it steadily without fatigue or injury to health.

Its strength and WONDERFUL SIMPLICITY of construction render it almost impossible to get out of order, and is GUARANTEED by the company to give entire satisfaction.

We respectfully invite all those who may desire to supply themselves with a superior article, to call and examine this EMPIRE SEWING MACHINE. But in a more especial manner do we solicit the patronage of Merchant Tailors, Dress Makers, Coat Makers, Corset Makers, Gaiter Makers, Shoe Binders, Shirt and Bosom Makers, Vest and Pantalon Makers.
