

THE DEMOCRAT.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Go to Plunket's Theatre at Woodward's Hall to-night.

See card of F. Hostetter in this paper. Mr. H. is agent for the celebrated Mishawaka pump.

GONE EAST.—Several of our merchants are now absent, having gone east to purchase their fall stocks. Look out for new advertisements, and new goods in a week or two hence.

We received a private letter from our old friend and fellow townsmen, J. S. Reeve, a few days ago. He is at Chattanooga, and we are glad to learn doing well. Let us hear from you occasionally, James.

THE La Porte Democrat says horse stealing is quite brisk at present in that vicinity. Scarcely a day passes that its votaries do not leave some unwary wight to lament the loss of an equine servant.

Common Pleas Court will commence here the first Monday of October. Those having business in said court will do well to take notice and govern themselves accordingly.

POLITICAL DISCUSSION.—We are requested to say that a political discussion will take place at Argos next Saturday, between Mr. English, democrat, and Mr. Paine, republican.

The cash drawer of Rice & Bro's store was tapped last Saturday and about fifteen dollars abstracted therefrom. Suspicion rests upon a boy some twelve or fourteen years old who was left alone in the store for a few minutes, soon after which the money was missing.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.—The Indianapolis Sentinel of last Saturday says:

A young lady of education and refinement, attempted suicide on Friday evening, in the southwestern part of the city, by taking two ounces of laudanum. Disappointment in love affairs is said to be the cause. Through the aid of Dr. Carter she will probably recover.

PLUNKET'S THEATRE.—The inimitable Plunket with a talented corps of assistants will again visit our town and remain for a few days only. He will perform at Woodward's Hall to-night, also to-morrow and Saturday evenings. Those of our citizens who visited his Theatre when here before, will need no urging to attend during his present visit.

MISSOURI.—A friend of ours at Jefferson City, Mo., writes us that property in that State is changing hands rapidly and at low prices. Excellent farms can be bought at prices ranging from ten to forty dollars, and wild lands from three to ten dollars per acre, as per quality and location. That State is filling up rapidly with laboring men from Iowa, Illinois, Indiana, and other States.

INDIANA STATE FAIR.—Extensive preparations are being made for the coming State Fair, which will commence at Fort Wayne October 2d. This exhibition will undoubtedly be one of the most successful ever before held in the State. Half fare tickets will be sold on all the railroads leading to Fort Wayne, affording all an excellent opportunity to attend during the Fair.

The case of Margaret Keelan against Baruch Nussbaum, before Justice Maxey, to recover thirty dollars of gold said to have been stolen from her and sold to Mr. N. was decided on Monday last in favor of Mrs. K. the plaintiff. Whether the defendant will appeal the case to a higher court we are not advised.

COMMISSIONER'S COURT.—The Board of Commissioners convened in regular session on Monday last. A number of licenses to sell intoxicating liquors in quantities less than a quart at a time have been granted. The poor farm and county asylums were to have been let for the ensuing year, but we have not been informed who is the lucky man among the dozen or so of applicants.

We had a fine rain here on Monday last, which was much needed. The weather has been excessively warm for a few days past, Sunday last being the warmest of the season. The farmers are now very busily engaged in putting in the fall crop, though some are not yet done threshing their wheat. Business here is quite brisk considering the season, and a good fall trade' may be expected. The wheat crop has proved better than was expected though lighter than usual.

Work is progressing on the line of Railroad between here and Rochester in Fulton County. It is expected that the road will be completed to Rochester during the coming year. We are glad to see this work going on with a fair prospect of success, as it will add much to the value of property along the line, and especially accommodate our Fulton county friends who have heretofore suffered much for the want of a convenient outlet for their produce which this road will supply.

Hating Negroes.

The Republican charges that the senior editor of this paper was once an abolitionist that we then hated negroes, and that we now love to hate them more than ever before. We deny that we ever were an abolitionist, and if we have always disliked negroes, it is more than can be said of our neighbor, unless reports from his former place of residence belie him. Our dislike extends to the whole race of woolly heads, while his, if he has any, only extends to those of the male persuasion.

NEW GOODS.—Now is the time to purchase your Fall and Winter Goods, at J. M. Dale & Co.'s, they having just received a very large and comprehensive stock, and will sell cheaper than the cheapest, as their goods were bought before the recent rise.

They have also a large stock of clothing, just opened, at very low prices. Call and examine for yourselves.

TO THE Farmers of Marshall County.

We, the undersigned, are now prepared to manufacture sorglum molasses as good, if not better, than any one else in the county. We invite all those who have come and wish to have the best quality of molasses to call on us before going elsewhere.

You will find us one and a half miles northwest of Plymouth.

J. & J. A. MAXEY.

JEFF. DAVIS' CHILDREN.—The family of Jeff. Davis passed through Toronto a short time since on their way to Montreal, where the children, two boys and a girl, are to be sent to school. The Toronto Leader says, the oldest boy, Jeff., a fine, sturdy lad of about eight summers, sported a little sword, and when asked by a gentleman what he wanted with the weapon, he replied: "To lick the Yankees." "Yes, Jeff., but you know you are too small a boy to lick the Yankees," said the gentleman.
