

THE DEMOCRAT.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

THANKS are due to our esteemed friend for the nice turkey on which we dined on Christmas day. We could use another on New Year's day if any of our friends should conclude to bring one for that occasion.

NEW EATING HOUSE.—Mess. Clark & Davis have opened an eating house two doors north of the Branch Bank. Give them a call.

Christmas gifts by Santa Claus constituted the order of the day on Monday last.

The Parish Sociable of the Episcopal Church will be held on next Tuesday evening at the residence of H. G. Thayer.

We are under obligations to Philip Orent for a basket of walnuts, presented to the DEMOCRAT office as a Christmas present.

A STAY TURKEY laid the impudience to take refuge on the roof of the DEMOCRAT office last Saturday evening, and remained until Sunday afternoon, when some boys discovered him in the enjoyment of undisturbed quiet and peace, pelted him with stones so severely that he took wing and left for parts unknown. His peaceful stay in the society of the printers was owing wholly to their ignorance of his coming.

ANOTHER MAN KILLED.—On last Tuesday morning Jeremiah Keller, an employee of the P. & W. & C. Railway, was run over by a train of cars and instantly killed a short distance west of the depot in this place. The circumstances by which he came to his death, as elicited by the verdict of a coroner's jury, are as follows: The deceased had been imbibing too freely of liquor, in company with several others until late on Monday night, and until about two o'clock Tuesday morning, when they separated to go home. Keller was unfortunately so stupefied from the effects of liquor that he wandered off on the railroad and no doubt lay down on the track, where he was found about seven o'clock that morning, his head crushed horribly and one arm severed above the elbow. The deceased was a native of Ireland, and about 45 years of age.

A BUSY DAY.—The sidewalks of Plymouth were so densely crowded with people on last Saturday that it was with difficulty that pedestrians sought their way through the dense crowd. Our enterprising merchants were busy from early dawn till the lamps were lighted for closing up accounts in the evening. People who say Plymouth is not one of the most promising points in northern Indiana for trade, have little knowledge of the real prosperity which she enjoys.

HEAVY BURGLARY.—We learn that the safe of the Treasurer's Office at Win. Pence, Pulaski County, was broken open on last Sunday night and the sum of $8,000 stolen therefrom.

BEHEMMENT.—Individuals fight, as well as nations, and when defeated are ready to make peace. At least this appears to have been the case with a crowd of fighting boys who visited Plymouth from Tipton City, on Monday last. They provoked a quarrel and risked an engagement with a number of Plymouth boys, which culminated in the defeat and utter demoralization of the assailants.

"The Western Farmer's Own Journal."

THE WESTERN RURAL, established at Detroit last year, has attained such an extended circulation throughout the Northwest that the enterprising publisher, Mr. J. W. Lewis, has decided to publish it hereafter in this city simultaneously with its issue in Detroit. It is a weekly agricultural and family newspaper, published in quarto form of eight pages, and is gotten up in a highly creditable manner. We are pleased to say that it does not, like several leading papers of the same class, devote to party politics, but is strictly devoted to the interests of the farmer and the needs of his family. Western farmers will find it better adapted to their wants than eastern journals. Examine it before subscribing for any other. Address for specimen copies, and particulars as to premiums for clubs, H. N. P. Lewis, Publisher, Western Rural, at either Chicago or Detroit.

We take the foregoing from the Chicago Daily Times, and heartily add our recommendation thereof. The terms are $2.50 per year, or $2 in clubs of four and upwards, with premiums to club agents. The publisher will gladly send specimens to any desiring them. It gives a large variety of stories and miscellaneous reading for the family, including the little ones. It is in every respect a first-class journal and is a credit to the West. We will furnish the WESTERN RURAL and the DEMOCRAT one year for $4. Now is the time to subscribe.

LEGAL ADVERTISEMENTS.—We notice that the attorneys of La Porte, and almost every other county but this, in the State, control the legal advertising. How is this? Is the law in Marshall different from that of other counties?—REPUBLICAN.

The attorneys of Marshall county did make an effort to control the publication of their legal advertising when Mr. Pershing was Clerk of the court, but that official, we learn, put a sudden veto on the movement, and consequently the Republican escaped the harvest of legal advertising during that gentleman's administration. The Republican man is getting short up for ration, perhaps, and would like to have "the law of Marshall" repealed, a notwithstanding it was put in operation by a republican official for his exclusive benefit. It is said to be a poor rule that won't work both ways; however, rather than see our neighbor finish, we will promise that hereafter he shall have a legal "aid," or so to keep his commissary adroit.

The Chicago Times thinks Mr. Sumner's proposition that, in all States where one-half of the population are colored, one-half of each grand jury shall consist of colored men, should be amended so that, in places where two-sixths of the population are black, all the jurors shall be colored, and where one-sixth of the people are mulattoes, one-half of the jurors shall be mulattoes.

A youngster of fourteen years, and his "sweetheart" two years younger, recently eloped from Wallingford, Conn.

CHRISTMAS FESTIVITIES.—"Merry Christmas," so full of joy to the young heart, and of pleasant reminiscences to the old, has once more come and gone. In our town the day was indeed a merry one, and most becomingly celebrated. Divine service was held at all the churches in town, and the various ministers of the gospel held forth to crowded houses. All the churches were, we believe, ornamented and decked with evergreens. We were unable to visit but one, the Episcopal, where we found the house trimmed and decorated in a manner difficult to excel in taste and beauty. In the forenoon an appropriate and interesting sermon was delivered by the Pastor, Rev. Wm. Lusk, communion administered and the rite of baptism bestowed upon six persons. In the evening a Christmas Tree gladdened the hearts of the Sunday School scholars with its rich and abundant fruits. The tree was a model of beauty, and was literally laden down with presents, many of them very beautiful and quite valuable. Mr. Lusk was the recipient of a substantial favor from the ladies of his congregation, consisting of quite a liberal collection of "greenbacks" of various denominations. All connected with the Sunday School were remembered and provided for, and all were happy and satisfied. We learn that at the other churches the same programme, slightly varied, was observed.

In the evening, also, at Corbin's Hall the young people, and those old but feeling young, gathered together in a social dance, where all went "merry as a marriage bell" until the "switching hour" when our age and infirmities admonished us that we were not as young as we "used to be," and further our report said not.

Synopsis of Legislative Proceedings.—In Senate, a message from the House of Representatives was received, with House resolutions as follows: Appointment of Committee to investigate management of State Prison; empowering the State Librarian to receive books, papers, archives and property of Indiana Historical Society; appointment of committee to inquire into conduct of Sinking Fund Commissioners; on subject of foreign interference with government of Mexico.

A resolution was adopted authorizing the State Printer to bind and send to each member of the Senate, and officers and reporters thereof, three copies of "Legislative Brief Reports," two copies of Senate and House Documentary Journal, and two copies of acts of present session, bound in full.

Governor Dunning was complimented for the able discharge of his duties as President of the Senate.

A Senate committee were informed by the Governor that he had no further communications to make the Senate, and with some remarks by the President pro tem the Senate adjourned without day.

The bill to repeal the dog law was returned by the committee, with the recommendation that it be indefinitely postponed.

The committee on Federal Relations submitted a report on "Hong Jeff Davis on a tour of the State." An humorous discussion followed, and the report went to the table.

On the subject of the location of the Agricultural College, a minority report was submitted opposing its location at Bloomington.

Enrolled act of the House, No. 187, was corrected, and $3,467.83 was appropriated, as the balance due from the State on account of the National Cemetery at Gettysburg.

On motion of Mr. Baskin, a resolution of thanks to the Clerks was adopted.

The Acting Governor informed the committee, who were appointed to wait upon him, that he had no further communications to make to the General Assembly.

The session having expired by constitutional limitation, the House was formally adjourned ad libitum by Mr. Spenser.

PITTSBURG, FORT WAYNE AND CHICAGO RAILROAD.—The Pittsburg Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad Company have made a contract for twenty-five new engines, to cost between $50,000 and $60,000. The company has, during the year, made large expenditures for construction, and has sold stock, it is stated, to the extent of a million and a quarter dollars.

The earnings of the road for the month of November were $713,461, against $691,555 for the same period last year, increase $21,915.

LIGHT BREAKING.—We give this week the first substantial indication of President Johnson's breaking with the ultra Abolitionists. Sumner denounces him in the Senate! Et tu, Brute! Gen. Grant backs the President. Another good sign, for in the midst of a revolution armies are sometimes handy. Let us wait further developments. The Abolition majority in Congress are now the avowed disunionists! So far so good.—Eng. Echo.

TOO HIGHLY COLORED.—The Salem (H) Advertiser says an ebony colored female of the African persuasion, recently entered a store, not a hundred miles from that place, and asked the clerk to "show her some flesh colored hose." Taking a second glance at the shade, the young man went in search of heartless returning with a lot of black wool stockings, whereat the sable customer indignantly turned suddenly upon the "middle of her foot" and "jerked" herelf out of the store, remarking as she went out that he "couldn't fool her with dem old black stockings"—she wanted flesh color or none at all.

GEN. GRANT.—It is stated in Washington quite positively that Gen. Grant will sail immediately after the holidays, in the flagship of the Gulf squadron, for the Rio Grande. Com. Winslow has sailed in the champion, the New Orleans, leaving behind his flagship for the General.

MEXICO.—A Vera Cruz correspondent, dating the 12th inst., writes that the old Imperialist rumor that Juarez had resigned the Presidency of the Mexican Republic, was again being circulated. The story is a canard, and intended, as in previous cases, to affect the Mexican R. publican loans. The Imperialists, just before the sailing of every French steamer, hatch up and circulate some rumor to bolster up Maximilian's cause in the minds of the public in Europe.
