

THE DEMOCRAT.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

ADVERTISING AGENTS.—C. H. SCHWEN & CO., 31 Dearborn Street, and Cook, CONYERS & CO., 85 Dearborn St., Chicago, Ills. S. M. PERINIOU, New York City, and GEO. P. BROWN & CO., 23 Congress St., Boston, Mass., are authorized to receive advertisements for the DEMOCRAT.

The first rose of summer—Negroes.—They are most fragrant in the country.

The special term of court in session here last week, was brought to a close on Saturday last, the jury rendering a verdict for the defendant, Hester. This is the third trial of this cause.

We are indebted to our liberal friend, N. D. Lovely, for a gallon of most excellent catsup. Happy be the man who remembers the printer.

Tuesday morning we were greeted with the cheerful sight of a delicate fall of snow. Rather late for such conduct in the weather, or clerk.

Many of our farmers, becoming disengaged with the prospects of a crop of winter wheat, are sowing spring wheat in its place. At very best we shall have but little wheat in this vicinity this season.

The April number of Arthurs' Magazine was received some time ago, and for some reason was not noticed by us, at the time. No magazine is more worthy of notice than Arthur, and we shall hereafter be more punctual in noticing it.

Our well-known fellow-townsman, Billy Burns, we are informed, has taken charge of the Stark County Times, and will make it the advocate of democratic principles hereafter. The Times gave up the ghost some time last winter while sailing under the black flag of abolitionism. Success to the enterprise under the new order of things.

The wide side-walk in front of Blain's, Work's and Hill's, on Michigan street, is a decided improvement on the old order of things. The side-walks heretofore in use were absolutely impossible on busy days, and if a man got into a fight on one of them he was subject to be knocked into the gutter, and an inebriate could not indulge in half a stagger. Our neighbor used to suffer great inconvenience on this account.

Passing the grocery store of Ab. Becker & Co., a few days ago, we were reminded of the immense trade they have had this spring, by seeing them opening out another installment of fresh groceries, which had just arrived, and which were being marked lower than any heretofore received. They can be found one door north of Buck & Toan's hardware store.

M. French, President of the I. R. & C. R. W. Co., is at present stopping in town looking after the interests of the road.

The commissioners appointed to make appraisement of damage for right of way, made their report on Saturday, the 21st. We understand that exceptions will be filed to their report by the attorney for the road. The money for work due on the road is expected on Wednesday.

We propose taking a trip to Tennessee in a few days on business, and will therefore be absent from the office three or four weeks. Mr. Osborne has kindly consented to take exclusive control of the editorial management of the Democrat in his absence, while a competent and experienced workman will be found in the office to attend promptly to all business in connection therewith. Those who are indebted to us are requested to call and settle either at this office or with J. S. Scott, who is authorized to receipt for all claims paid to the office.

Last Saturday we witnessed a pugilistic display which was rather amusing than otherwise. The combatants were strangers to each other and were both ignoramus of the causes belles. Much pummeling, resulting in no bodily harm, finally satisfied both parties that it was much pleasanter to "Let dogs delight," &c.

CORPORATION ELECTION.—We wish to call the attention of the democracy of the corporation to the near approach of the corporation election. It is time a convention was called to make nominations. Our neighbor has already given notice that he designs opposing the democratic nominees, and, to use his favorite expression, "that his forbearance is well-nigh exhausted" with the management of affairs. He objects to the engine, cistern, paying taxes, and the general course of affairs; to provide against the old gentleman's promised assault on the late administration, the democracy must be "worry watchful."

LE BON TON.—We are in receipt of the May number of this highly popular French Journal of Fashion. This is a superior number, containing a large number of beautifully colored fashion plates, together with numerous patterns, illustrations, &c. Price 27 a year, single copies 75 cents.—Address, S. T. Taylor, 349, Canal St., New York City.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING.—On Wednesday last about four o'clock in the afternoon, Mr. James C. Vinnedge while at work in his cellar was struck by lightning and instantly killed. The electricity entered the house by the chimney, without damage, until it reached a partition door between the two only rooms up stairs. The door and its hangings were torn to pieces. From there through the two floors no trace of it is found except the appearance of a ball of fire on the kitchen stove, which was seen by Mrs. Vinnedge and her daughter. No further trace of its presence can be found; had no one been in the cellar its passage thence could not have been suspected. It must have been communicated from the stove to one of the sleepers over the cellar near to where Mr. Vinnedge must have been standing at the time. His hat rim was badly torn, and the boot on his left foot had a large hole torn in it at the ankle joint, where the electricity passed to the earth.

He was found a few moments after the accident, by his wife and daughter, who being frightened, sought safety with a husband and father in the cellar, only to find a more horrible scene than that from which they had fled. He had fallen forward, his face striking the foot of the stairway as he fell, causing an abrasion on the nose and forehead.

Mr. Vinnedge was a man who had a large circle of warm friends in this county, and his death is deeply felt.

MACHINE POETRY.—Some years since there was published in our town paper, a half column of rhyme called "machine poetry," a few lines of which, ran something like this:

Come to the "Regulator" that popular Store,
Where Laws and DeLaines wave cool in the door.
Come where they sell sheep, but not with a cross.
And where they will show you without looking across.
But Hank has gone into other business, and the machine has become rusty and won't work, and they have to content themselves with common pros now; yet, if you wish any kind of Dry Goods, Carpets, Boots or Shoes, you cannot do better than at Westervelt's, where they sell for Cash and have Only One Price.

ATTENTION, GOOD TEMPLARS.—The members of Hope Lodge, No. 310, I. O. G. T., will meet at their Lodge room in Plymouth, on Friday evening, April 27th at 7:15 o'clock, precisely.

A prompt and full attendance is earnestly requested, as it is the intention of the Lodge to clothe themselves in the regalia of the Order and proceed to the Presbyterian Church to hear a lecture on the neglect of Temperance, by Rev. Mr. Alington, Agent of the State Temperance Society.

It is hoped that a demonstration will be made worthy of ourselves and the noble cause which we advocate. Let us show the friends, as well as the opponents of Temperance, that we are at work, and intend to keep at work, until Intemperance is driven from the land.

By order of the Lodge,
Wm. H. MATTINGLY,
Committee on Publication.

Last Saturday was a very rough day on the class of citizens in our midst who have not a proper regard for the rights of property. Joseph Tea and Charles Duval were committed to the watchful care and judicious treatment of Sheriff Legan, after examination on a charge of grand larceny, committed at Inwood, they failing to produce bail in the sum of five hundred dollars each.

Also Bruce Pelton, on the charge of grand larceny, bail three hundred dollars, and Dennis Brennan for further examination on the charge of larceny.

Mr. Legan has now seven boarders, and has just room for seven more.

MARINERS.

In the Church of the Nativity, La Porte, by Rev. Mr. Lawler, on Friday, April 6th, Mr. JOSEPH E. BARRETT, of the La Porte Democrat, to Miss NELLIE CONDON, of La Porte.

We congratulate Bro. Barrett on the wise step he has taken, and hope he and his fair partner may enjoy happiness without a (¶) even to the latest (¶) of their existence; that he may never be "out of sorts," and that in due time they may have numerous "heads" appropriately set up in "SMALL CAPS."

By James M. Wickizer, Esq., at the residence of Jim South, in Argos, on the 23d inst. Mr. WILLIAM BOWLD and Miss RACHEL COWEN.

The May number of Godey's Lady's Book has been received at this office. It is a sparkling gem in the coronet of magazine literature. Those who desire the best, need go no farther than Godey—they will find it the acme of excellence.
