

SIX YEARS AGO.

Six years ago the stars and stripes
Were floating proud and free;
Without an army on the land,
Or navy on the sea.
The Constitution was our guide,
It hung upon the wall;
Life, liberty and justice then,
Were free to one and all.

Six years ago our State was free
From negro equality's alarms;
And in the place of national debts,
We cherished national charms.
Then the Union blessings came to us,
In place of "Union dues";
And Congress sent out "garden seed"
In place of "guarding guns."

Six years ago, we had no use
For "provost guards, and clowns"
With big brass eagles on their caps,
Parading through our towns;
A police sergeant with his squad
Of half a dozen men,
Was quite enough, by day or night,
To quell a riot then.

Six years ago the press was free,
And men could speak their mind;
Nor had the "habes corpus writ"
Been kicked clear out behind.
We had no saucy negroes then,
To crowd our Senate Halls;
Nor did we ever read about
Amalgamation balls.

Six years ago a wench would wed
With Pomp or Sambo freely,
But now she wants a Stevens,
A Sumner or a Greeley;
For o'er the spirit of their dream
Has swept a mighty wave;
The negro is the master now,
The white man is the slave.

Six years ago the sunny south
Had not been made a waste;
Nor had the flag of liberty
Been torn in angry haste.
But Union, peace and harmony
Found refuge in our land;
And warm, fond ties of fellowship,
United us a band.

Six years ago a note on bank
Was just as good as gold;
Nor did we have to put a stamp
On everything we sold.
But now 'tis stamps on all we get,
Or give, or sell, or buy;
They tax us now because we live,
And stamp us when we die.

Six years ago the Democrats
Were masters in the House,
And every person north and south,
Was quiet as a mouse.
But now the abolition crew
Have undertaken the job;
The negro is their hobby horse,
Their object is to rob.
