Blank Notes.—We have just printed a lot of Blank Notes which will be sold cheap.

Hereafter all kinds of Blanks will be kept for sale at this office.

New Advertisements.—Read the advertisement of Wolford & Son, Bank Manufacturers; also the card of George Noll, Meat Market. Business men who advertise are the ones to patronize, if you want good bargains.

Penny—To hear a printer speak of a "bird of a square." Printers will double this a joke, almost as good as the "double and bird" take off, or the proposition to "tax the citizens on a day twenty or thirty feet high." "When ignorance is bliss, 'tis folly to be wise."

Read the advertisement of Ab. Becker & Co., in another column. They are reliable grocery men, and sell at a very small margin above cost, keep constantly on hand a large supply of provisions, pay the highest market price for produce, and deal honorably with their numerous customers.

Clocks, Watches, etc.—John R. Loeys has opened a clock and watch shop in the front part of Paul's building, occupied by Whitney Bros. & Co., where he keeps a good assortment of Clocks and Watches for sale. Watches, Clocks, Jewelry, etc., repaired on reasonable terms, and satisfaction warranted. Give him a call.

South Bend Stage Line.

The South Bend Stage Line says Messrs. Ireland & Gish, of that place, will hereafter run the stages from South Bend to Plymouth, and return, three times a week, leaving South Bend, Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays, and leaving Plymouth, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

Browned.—We learn that a sad accident occurred on last Saturday, near Knox, by which two persons lost their lives. A young lady by the name of Mrs. Mary Zerk, was crossing the Yellow River on a log near the log into the stream, when she fell off the log into the stream, and Mr. Zerk went to her assistance and both were drowned. This sad occurrence has cast a gloom over the community where the deaths occurred.

By reference to her advertisement in another column, it will be seen that Mrs. Dunham has removed her Millinery goods to the room formerly occupied by the Post office.—Mrs. D. has a very fine assortment of millinery goods on hand, embracing all the latest styles, which she sells cheap. We recommend her stock of goods to our lady readers.

"J. N."—The editor of the Indianapolis Herald has received a letter from the "immortal" which brings the gratifying intelligence that the philosopher still "abideth in the flesh." It seems from this that he has triumphed over the "grim monster" that was reported to have summoned his spirit to its final abode. "J. N." will visit Indianapolis in a few weeks, and "lift the veil" and "mitigate the pressure," at Indianapolis and other places.

The Indianapolis Journal says the Democratic party "will never be properly chastened until it is stone dead."

Then, Mr. Journal, the radical party will never see the Democratic party "properly chastened." The indications now are that the Democratic party will attend the funeral of the radical party at no very distant day, not later perhaps than 1898.

Mr. Frank Beck, whilom of the Pierceton Herald, gave us a call last week. He has disposed of his office at Pierceton, to a joint stock company, who will hereafter control the destinies of the Herald. Mr. B. talks of going to business at Warsaw, which should be, do, will doubtless pay better than publishing a newspaper in a small town.

Grady & Gilbert's Circus will exhibit at this place on Wednesday, May 29th.

This show possesses attractions of rare merit, and artists of first class talent. Madames Grady, Louise and Augusta, will appear in several highly interesting performances.

If you wish to purchase Books, Novels, Pictures and Picture Frames, Sheet Music, Letter Paper, Envelopes, Memorandum Books and Portfolios, Brushes, Photograph Albums, Perfumery and Hair oil of the very best quality, Fine Soap, Fine Tobacco, and Cigars, Musical Instruments, Violin and Guitar strings, or anything usually kept in a wholesale and retail notion store, go to the store of John M. Moore, in the old Post office building, under the Democrat office. John has a good fellow, and will do the fair thing with his customers. His stock is the best in town, and his prices very reasonable.

Our neighbor across the way was evidently very angry at last week. His little paper fairly boiled over with wrath and indignation, and it seemed he could not find language sufficiently abusive to heap upon the Junior's devoted head. We would remind the editor that it is the best evidence that an opponent is defeated when he gets angry and "applies epithets instead of argument." It is almost a wonder that the editor in his wrath has not resorted to that effective weapon he spoke of a few weeks ago which he called his "boomerang." He threatened then to hit us "on a straight line," with what is still worse, "in plain view," with his "boomerang." We don't know what the cursed thing is, but we don't want to be hit with it—not any.

Mad Dogs.—Several rabid dogs were killed between this place and Tyler City, last week. Two belonging to Mrs. Johnson showed symptoms of hydrophobia, and were killed before any one was bitten by them. Another large Newfoundland belonging in the same neighborhood, was taken with hydrophobia and was seen to bite several dogs and cows while running off; the dog had not been killed at last accounts. We hope our Marshal will enforce the provisions of the dog ordinance, and kill all the dogs found on the streets without a muzzle. The danger is alarm, and there should be no dogs allowed to run at large in violation of the ordinance.

Bourbon.—We visited the busy little town of Bourbon yesterday, and found the inhabitants struggling to keep their heads above water, any amount of that precious article having been showered down upon the good people there, as elsewhere, in the past few weeks. At the depot we found our genial friend, Pan. Mac, who attends to the business of the railroad company, the telegraph office, and the office of the American Express Company. Dan, fully equal to the important task of attending to all of these in a manner entirely satisfactory to the officers and to the citizens generally. Tyrrell & Chamberlain are doing the agreeable to those in want of groceries, provisions, etc.; and pay the highest price for marketable produce.—The Hawley Bros. have an excellent stock of Boots & Shoes, bought expressly for spring and summer wear, while their custom work is unequalled by any in the county. They are doing a fair business, which is steadily increasing. Bourbon seems to enjoy a lively lumber trade, and many of the business men of measure engaged in buying and shipping to eastern and western markets. Several business houses will be created the present season, which will add greatly to the wealth and beauty of the town.

The Diary of J. Wilkes Booth.

The Booth diary is published. It is simply a defence of his actions. He says under date of April 18 and 19:

"Until to-day nothing was ever thought of sacrificing to our country's wrongs. For six months we have worked to capture, but our cause being almost lost, something decisive and great must be done; but its failure was owing to others who did not strike for their country with a heart. I struck boldly, and not as the papers say. I walked with a firm step through a thousand of his friends, and was stopped, but pushed on. A colonel was at his side. I shouted 'sit scumper' before I fired. In jumping, broke my leg. I passed all his pickets, rode sixty miles that night with the bone of my leg tearing the flesh at every jump. I can never repeat it. Though we hated to kill, our country owed all her troubles to him, and God simply made me the instrument of his punishment. The country is not April, 1865 what it was. This forced upon me, not what I have loved. I care not what becomes of me. I have no desire to outlive my country. This night, before the deed, I wrote a long article and left it for one of the editors of the National Intelligencer, in which I fully set forth our reasons for our proceedings."

The President's Trip to Boston.

A Washington telegram says: A committee of Massons had an audience with the President to-day, relative to his contemplated visit to Boston, and asked him to attend the masonic celebration in that city on June 21. He replied that he could not name any particular day, as he did not know how long public affairs might detain him, and that the most he could say was that he should make the visit in June, and proceed thither in a revenue cutter. He was anxious to be present on the day named, and would endeavor to gratify the wishes of the massons; but he did not desire to make any positive promise.

INFORMATION WANTED.—A lady of this city wishes information concerning

Abram Fowler, Lafayette Fowler and Melinda Fowler, relatives, from whom she has been separated for the past twenty years. Abram and Lafayette formerly lived in the neighborhood of North Bend, Ohio, and Melinda at Madison, Ind. Any person knowing anything of the present whereabouts of these persons, or either of them, will confer a favor by addressing "Inquirer," Herald office, Indianapolis, Ind.

ARTENUS WARD was fond of telegraphing, and studied it for amusement. He was a very good "sender." Yes, and one of the best "senders" he ever made was the following: When he proposed going to California to lecture, an enterprising Yankee getting wind of the fact, saw his chance for a speculation, and telegraphed to Artemus thusly: "What will you take for the first ten nights?" To which Artemus sent as a reply, "Brandy and water!"

During the month of April last, 13,818 acres of public lands were disposed of at the Stevens Point (Wis.) land office, of which 9,480 acres were college scrip locations, 706 acres homestead entries, and the remainder taken up with cash and military warrants.

The New York Tribune publishes a long communication from one of its radical subscribers, in which he proposes the formation of a party whose platform shall be the "remission or forgiveness of the whole federal debt."

He says: "In the straightforwardness of General Grant, (he says) I propose that the next legislators in any state, as well as the next congress of the states, and the next president of the United States, shall all be put on a platform involving this element of the remission of the national debt. Let each belong to this benevolent society, and let each be sworn to the support of its principles, and then let the issue go before the people."

Radicalism is very forgiving. It is willing to forgive everybody to whom it owes a cent. It is willing to forgive all its creditors, and everybody else, save the southern states.

An adjourned meeting of the Marshall County Agricultural Society will be held at the Court House on Saturday, June 1, 1897, at 1 o'clock, P. M.

Henry S. Benson, Secretary.

ATTENTION.—To the farming community and all others.—Our stock of Groceries and Provisions is complete. We have paid attention to the markets, and have bought goods that we are enabled to sell them cheap and frequently much cheaper than our competitors.

All we ask is that you call and convince yourselves of this fact. Our place of business is one door north of Pyle's Jewelry Store.
