

THE DEMOCRAT.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

ADVERTISING AGENCIES.—The following advertising agencies are authorized to contract for advertising at our lowest cash rates: COOK, CORBIN & CO., Masonic Temple, Chicago; S. M. PETERSON, 31, Park Row, New York; Geo. F. ROBERTS & CO., 40, Park Row, New York; COOK, CORBIN & CO., Cincinnati, O.

Special Notice.
Having taken all the accounts due our predecessor, Mr. S. L. Harvey, on subscription, we desire all those knowing themselves indebted for the DEMOCRAT, to call and settle, as we wish to start with an open record.
The unexpired time of those who have overpaid will be filled by us.

Some few of our citizens, who have "Nimrod" on the brain, have just returned from a protracted hunt in the wilds of Michigan. There were three companies, one of which, Mr. Mungold's, we believe, consisting of three Belongers, Willis Wright, and two or three others, was very successful, killing in all, ten deer, and seeing one black bear, which, unfortunately for them, proved to be tame. Another party, of which J. L. Westervelt was a member, secured four deer; and still another, under the leadership of Mr. Haven, killed five. Enoch says the weather got too warm to bring any of the venison home, but our readers will not, on that account, doubt the "ten deer" part of the story, for no hunter has been known to tell anything of a "fishy" nature.

Whoever took an umbrella, marked "C. B.," from the hall of the Presbyterian church, on Sunday evening last, can return the same to this office, and "no questions asked." "Charles" thinks it was taken through mistake, but is of the opinion that such mistakes occur a little too often.

Messrs. Cleveland & Houghton, at the City Grocery, have just received a large supply of fresh family groceries, which they will dispose of at the lowest living rates. Anything in the line of groceries, from a barrel of sugar to a paper of mustard can be obtained at the City Grocery. Give them a call.

PATENT APPLIED FOR.—When "Uncle G." of the new hay scales on Garro street, learns how to weigh a hog with two of his feet on the scales, the remaining two being on the ground, he will be entitled to a patent for the discovery. His success, so far, has not been flattering; but our "devil" lives in momentary expectation of hearing the thrilling cry of "All right, Hank! I've got him!"

A complete assortment of port-monnaies, pocket-books, and blank books, at very low figures, at Moore's Book Store.

VAN TYNE, the young man who was, at the last term of the Circuit Court, sentenced to three months confinement in the county jail, for appropriating money which belonged to another person, has been pardoned. He was released last Tuesday evening.

The New York Day-Book.

We have received the prospectus, for 1868, of this sterling democratic journal. It is a straight-forward, "radical" democratic paper, with a larger circulation than any other democratic journal ever published on this continent, and it enters on the threshold of 1868 more prosperous and more hopeful than ever before. Standing on the foundation of the Declaration of Independence, that "all citizens are created free and equal," and therefore entitled to equal rights, it is opposed to all forms and degrees of special legislation that conflict with this grand central truth of Democracy, and over all, and above all, does it combat that monstrous treason to American liberty, which, thrusting the negro element within our political system, MUST OF NECESSITY, wreck the whole mighty fabric left us by our fathers.

We earnestly commend the Day-Book to such of our readers as wish to procure a reliable estate paper. Terms—cash in advance—$2 per annum. Address

GREAT rush for goods at J. M. Dale & Co's. People all wonder how they can sell so much cheaper than any other store in town; but the mystery is easily solved; they have sold off all their old goods at cost, and have purchased another large stock of goods at the recent great decline which enables them to undersell all other merchants. They are selling best Prints from 8 to 12 1/2 cts.; best Delaines from 15 to 20 cts.; all wool Merinos, 25 cts.; good yard wide Sheeting, from 10 to 12 cts.; ready made clothing at gold prices before the war; men's cloth coats from 4 to 6 dollars; cloth pants, 3 dollars; Overcoats from 5 dollars. If you want to save from 10 to 20 per cent less than elsewhere go to J. M. Dale & Co's.

THE new side-walk on the north side of Garro st., near the Laporte R. R., is an improvement that has been long needed.

LADIES.—When you buy Saleratus please notice how much larger the Best Chemical Saleratus papers are than others. They weigh more.

M. H. Rice, county Surveyor elect, gave bond and was sworn into office last Tuesday.

COMMISSIONERS.—The Board of County Commissioners met in special session on last Monday, at the Court House.

We have not, this week, to insert the rules and regulations adopted by the county commissioners; will print them next week.

Plymouth Bachelors.

The New York Mercury has inaugurated a new sensation by printing, from week to week, lists of the bachelors in the rural towns throughout the country with appropriate remarks. The last number of the Mercury contains a very full list of the "great unwedded" of Plymouth, which we copy (making a few corrections of "omissions and commissions") for the benefit of interesting young ladies and managing matrons hereaway:

"John R. Losey, aged twenty-three; a jeweler by trade; seems larger-beer and rich, but is a great admirer of the ladies; a good taste for a modest young dandy."
"Metrick Nichols; a type in the Democrat office; aged twenty-two; regular at church and Sunday school; wears stone clothes, and has a peculiar fondness for millinery shops."
"Henry S. Benson; aged 24; has his regular gal, who is about O. K.; is given much to mind cigars, Hohen's lager, and billiards; he must see his gal at least once a day or he goes much sleep; clerk in the Pewee Central Railroad office."

"Leary Capron; a billiardist of pretensions; makes heavy runs; loves the fair sex, and moors on wild ducks in good order; never refuses a party of glass of beer."
"H. Woodbury; a hardware merchant; aged twenty-five; rather fancy; a ladies' man; fashionable colored side-whiskers; attends to business closely, but never misses attending a nice dance or a German walk."
"Burl Harbut; a noisy bach, of much fun; many stanzas; and numerous years; smiles blisfully on his stock; deals in stove bolts; a slaving gent."

"Elijah Kelsey, a bachelor of fifty-two, watches the great creatures merrily from grocery to grocery, but don't propose."
"Eugene Lewis, clerk in drug store; aged twenty-two; a feather-weight; writes to Stanton for full particulars of cabinet changes, etc., about to take place; never drinks; a ladies' man."
"Lott Dickson, photographer, has his regular little fun, and oftentimes mentions, by way of preliminary, that he gazes at the bewitching belle of the place; he rides at the fairs along with the equestrians for the premium; a good boy."

"S. L. Harvey, editor of the Democrat, smiles on fat ladies; admires the ladies; never misses a dance; abhors the national game, but smiles audibly on fried oysters and a gin cocktail; not engaged."
"Joseph Laver, jeweler, age not known; modest young man; engraves finely; a tip-top fellow; not yet engaged."

"John Palmer, dry goods clerk, attends to business closely; smokes only in the line, and whistles 'Il Bachelors' distinctly."
"Good boy, Johnny; aged twenty-three; very polite to the female children about sixteen years old."

"Henry Simons, a sawmillist, aged twenty-four, pines and pines to every day; on picnics and camp-meetings; fond of ladies; a good chance."
"Delos Vanvalkenburgh, opposed to light boots; scrutinizes the chignons, and has quines very closely, and is even on the look-out for feminine glances on crowded and muddy streets; age not known; character unapproachable."

"Charles Woodbury, hardware-clerk, age not recorded; what everybody calls a good fellow; has one girl in view; probably engaged."
"Perry Klinger, post-office clerk; rises with the lark; aged twenty-six; never swears; chews the regular Virginia twist; good chance."
"Charley Hupp; clerk in the office of the P. & W. & C. R.; a bit twenty-two; has amania for pretty women and nice young ladies; a splendid tale; never smokes more than fifteen cigars a day; a nice young man."

"Rev. Wm. Lusk; a batch of thirty-four; rector of the Epis. ch. church, an eloquent speaker, and a fair amount of popularity; several vain attempts have been made by experienced young ladies to soften his heart, but it seems invulnerable; a confirmed bachelor."
"C. Belongue, a serious youth of twenty; a type in the Republican on crosses and young man, and a good 'catch' for some fair one; is at present endeavoring to train in 'Gideon's band'; supposed to be out of the market."

"Emanuel Simons, aged near twenty-eight; has no reservation to the fair sex; goes regularly to all the Sunday school sing but never raises his voice; is open to conviction on the subject of matrimony."
"Tommy Hughes; aged twenty one; checks baggage at the railway office; a useful fellow; to have in a family where there is a little life—he stirs them up, and inaugurates life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness."

"Phil. Ryan; a drowsy boy from Limerick; aged twenty-eight; draw-poker is his hobby; can put you to sleep in a short space of time; never eats pretzels; don't dance anything but quadrilles."

"Francis M. Hite; a grocery man; aged thirty-one; opposed to polite societies, but possessed of a liberal quantity of hospitality; probably engaged; never sleeps late in the morning."
"Elias Lloyd; caters to the thirsty imbibers of cocktail, whiskey-smashes, etc., at the hotel de Shakes; never goes to bed with his clothes on; aged twenty-five; wears good clothes."

"Robert Knapp; Deputy County Clerk; aged twenty-eight; never drinks nor smokes; belongs to the Episcopal church; very exemplary."
"Wm. Cowan; carpenter; aged twenty-eight; a faithful worker; good dancer, but never eats Limburg cake; wants to marry."

"John R. Hunt; aged 30; a late arrival; gives his 'tea' hearty; drives a fast horse; cultivates his mistresses assiduously, and would be worth trapping if he were not already engaged."

BOURBON ITEMS.

Since last wrote you, a wonderful change has come over the spirit of the people's dreams. The elections have been held in Indiana, Ohio and Pennsylvania, and the party of a "great moral idea" has "Ben Wade" in the balance and found wanting.

"Through the best of the change. And the trembling of the tyrants in their old, Let them quake. Let them quake."

"At the rising of the brave heart of old."

In this township the democrats did a good work, and are not behind their brethren in other parts of the county who did so nobly. From '52' a year ago, we have reduced the abolition majority to less than ten; and a year hence we shall certainly give a handsome majority for the democratic ticket. In Tippecanoe also, the democracy have shown that they are determined to be all right when the time arrives for them to give the radical rump another blow. The majority against them in that township a year ago, was 52—now it is but 27.

The Bourbon brass band are preparing to give a series of concerts, for the purpose of procuring means to purchase an instrument for the leader. The instrument has arrived, and we shall soon have music even if it is "in a horn." The date when the concerts are to take place has not yet been announced.

The murderers of Mrs. Dale are still at large, and although every effort has been made by our people to ferret out the perpetrators of the dreadful crime, yet no track or trace of them has been obtained. As time passes, the affair becomes involved in deeper mystery and the chances for the detection of the murderers lessen more and more every day.

Hawley & Bro have moved their boot & shoe store to the room formerly occupied by M. M. Galentine. They have a good stock, are fair dealers and their success in business is only a question of time.

A Dictionary of the Bible.

This work is universally admitted, by all who are competent to form an enlightened opinion, to be the best book of its kind in the English language, and to have no rival in importance for the elucidation of the scenes and facts of Scripture, and is so full, accurate, and comprehensive, as to leave little to be desired in the department of which it treats. Complete in one volume. Edited by Dr. Wm. Smith, Classical Examiner of the University of London. Published by National Pub. Co., Cincinnati, O. Sold only by subscription.

One of Hunslett's fellow convention-ists is a negro who can not read or write, and who has been convicted five times in the courts for stealing. He was elected over a respectable Union man.

It is stated in a Cincinnati telegram that there is an extraordinary number of convicts in the Ohio penitentiary. This fact will aid to explain the falling off in the radical vote at the recent election.

A NET of one thousand dollars was made in Chicago, on Thursday night, that Weston, the pedestrian, would make the trip to that city within the specified time.

The total losses by fire in Chicago for the past six months is $1,177,000, upon which the insurance companies lost over $1,000,000.

The statement that King William, of Prussia, would be visited at Berlin by the Emperor of Austria, is contradicted.

George W. Julian is still canvassing his new district for the nomination to Congress. He addressed his fellow-citizens of Delaware county yesterday.

CAPT. DAN. ABLE's room, at the Southern hotel, was robbed on Saturday night of a costly gold watch and chain, and papers, notes, etc., representing about $10,000. No clue to the robbers.

THERE were 7 internments from yellow fever on the 4th, in New Orleans, and 11 on the day previous.

From the Lynchburg News.

We are gratified to learn that one hundred and fifty negroes, employed at the Wythe iron mines, all of whom voted the straight radical ticket, were discharged on Tuesday by the owners of the works.

This is precisely the step which every white employer should take with the blacks who by voting with "Hansdout and his set" declared themselves openly, and above board, the enemies of the white race. They support the radicals by their votes; let the radicals support them by giving them work. We say unhesitatingly as much as we are grieved at being compelled to write it, no white man in Virginia should keep a negro radical in his employ a moment longer than he can pay him up and discharge him. To do so will encourage him in his dangerous radical views, instilled into his mind by the white scum who manipulate the loyal leaguers, and will be virtually placing the knife at your own throat.

To be turned out of a home, improved by years of labor, would be a great hardship, yet there are hundreds of men in Marshall county at all times subject to this misfortune.

A very large number of titles to land in this County are perfectly worthless as they stand; but many of them can be corrected and perfected at a slight expense. The American Cooking Stove.

After twenty years' experience in the manufacture of stoves, we became convinced, some years since, that a vast amount of money was being expended by the people of this country in buying cheap and almost worthless stoves, a large portion of which was wasted in the use of the same. We determined to make a stove that could be made, notwithstanding the price of fuel, at a low cost, and which would be economical and efficient. With this view, we introduced a new stove, and we have brought it to a higher state of perfection than has hitherto been attained in cooking stoves. The recent improvements in the stove have made it more economical and efficient. In all the varieties of stoves we manufacture, we study economy, durability, convenience and economy in operation, rather than cheapness in price, and in so doing we are satisfied we study the interests of those purchasing our stoves.
