NOTICE: The new advertisement of Dr. Wm. Carus Von Kessler, in to-day's paper.

THE school exhibition on last Thursday evening was well attended, and the exercises equalled the brightest anticipations of the large audience assembled.

THE Presbyterian socialie meets this (Thursday) afternoon and evening at the residence of C. E. Tamm.

We understand that John Montgomery has purchased the open lot north of the residence, and intends putting up machinery for the manufacture of lumber.

THE trustees of the Presbyterian church have granted to the German Reform denomination the use of their church for worship at intervals.

DEBRE the day, Monday last, notwithstanding the endeavors to prevent the sale of whisky, a huge leak was sprung somewhere—evident from the number in a "weaving" way.

The Plymouth graded school, and also the Chapel school, open Monday next. Both present excellent opportunities for pupils.

SEXY last a conspicuous looking individual presented himself at the depot at this place, desiring passage on the freight train to Wanatah, contrary to rules governing this road. He professed the ownership of the cognomen, "General Hancock," and that he was enroute posthaste for Indianapolis, to confer with the governor on impeachment matters. A bit of telegraphing revealed the plausibility & tell. He arrived until next day to rid himself of his incredulous neighbors by getting aboard the express.

STARTING AFFRAY.—Last Monday evening about 8 o'clock, an alteration arose between one Hughes, a bar-tender of Dabaker's saloon and Lark Thompson. Hughes drew a knife and stabbed his opponent, inflicting a dangerous wound the knife entering the left side and passing a downward course. Drs. Bailey & Reynolds dressed the wound.

MONDAY last a number of cars intended for service on the Union Pacific rail road, passed through this place.

ESTATE occurs next Sunday. Every person is expected to indulge largely in "hen fruit," and nicely stain, color or disfigure at least one egg. Any person of "blood" should not hesitate on this day at gormandizing at least two dozen "billed eggs."

A few persons in this vicinity have commenced putting in garden.

SCENE ADRIANCE; OR TRYING THE WORLD.—This is the name of a new novel by Amanda M. Douglas, the talented author of "In Trust," "Stephen Dane," &c. It is the story of a young orphan girl's experiences. It is now being published in the Saturday Evening Post, and will run through from fifteen to twenty papers. One dollar sent to the publishers, H. Peterson & Co., Philadelphia, will secure the Post for six months, including this and other deeply interesting stories. Single number five cents.

A. HAWLEY has the largest, best-selected, and cheapest stock of boots and shoes, leather and findings to be found in Plymouth. He pledges himself to make a present of a pair of shoes to any person who is a judge of goods, if, after investigation they cannot candidly admit the above.

Call at the sign of the Golden Boot, Balcony Block.

NOTICE.—There will be an election at the Tyner City school house, on the 18th of April, 1868, at 2 o'clock p.m., for the purpose of electing directors to hold church property in said town.

THE board of equalization, consisting of the county commissioners and the township assessors, will meet at the court house next Monday, for the purpose of deciding questions growing out of the assessment this year. All who have complaints to offer, will make them then, or "forever hold their peace."

GRAND CONCERT BALL.—To be given by the German Concert Band of Plymouth, Indiana, at Hohman & Woodward's Balcony Hall, on Monday evening, April 27th, 1868. This ball will be a new feature in the amusements of our citizens, as well as one of the most pleasing and agreeable entertainments ever given in this place. The best of music has been secured for the occasion and a great variety of beautiful changes will be given in the programme for the evening, consisting in part of marches, gallops, waltzes, mazurkas, valseviennes, quadrilles, and contra, to be diversified by the performance of many pieces of excellent music by the full band in complete concert tone. Every person is invited to attend this entertainment, who feels an interest in encouraging and celebrating the musical talent of the town.

Koch & Co. at the New Warehouse have just received the very best quality of Pittsburgh Lump Coal, especially adapted to blacksmithing purposes. Blacksmiths in the country can rely on this coal being what is here represented.

DEPARTMENT.—Only $1 a set for teeth and warranted of the best material. C. H. MCGREGOR, Dentist of South Bend, will visit Plymouth, on the 1st Monday in each month, and will remain three days. Rooms at the Parker House. All other dental work done on the most reasonable terms, and all work warranted to give entire satisfaction or the money refunded.

ADVERTISEMENTS

CATHOLIC CHURCH.—Easter Sunday: Feast of the glorious resurrection of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Divine service: 7:45 a.m., Early Mass; 10 a.m., solemn High Mass, during which sermons will be preached in both languages, English and German. Evening services will commence at 7:45 p.m. with spiritual reading, followed by solemn Vespers. Mozart's grand Magnificat will be sung. Benediction with the most blessed sacrament will close this great holy day.

A considerable number of non-Catholics are of the wrong opinion, as if our church only opens its door for the respective members, and all outsiders are not permitted to be present at the performances of the sacred functions. Wherefore I hereby do declare, that everybody is allowed at any divine service to enter our church, and the non-Catholics shall be favored with seats by the counsellors of the congregation provided they show a behavior and conduct worthy of this sacred place, the house of God.

F. SIEGELACK, Pastor.

LEAP YEAR HOP.—Our last, but by no means our least hop will come off on Thursday evening 16th inst. As the ladies are determined to have the pleasure of enjoying their rights and privileges, at least once in four years, and universal custom gives full consent, it is, therefore, no more than reasonable to presume that this will be one of the most pleasing hops of this or any series.

LAST Thursday afternoon, between two and three o'clock, the dwelling of Noah Replege, in West township, was entirely consumed by fire, together with all its contents, with the exception of one feather bed.

PETER CLAPP, an industrious and hard-working man, died at his residence in this place, on Monday, April 6th, after a short illness.

MARRIED.—By Rev. Mr. Schlosser, on the 21st, at the house of Daniel Jacoby, Esq. Mr. THOMAS J. GOBLE and Miss PLEASANT T. WILLIAMS, all of Marshall county.

WE failed to notice last week the April number of the American Phrenological Journal. This number contains portraits, characters and biographies of prominent persons; interesting, scientific and philosophic reading matter. Phrenology, physiology, physiognomy, etc. Address, with 30 cents, S. R. WELLES, 389 Broadway, New York.

NOTICE new advertisements of D. P. Correll's new clothing establishment. Also advertisement of Tippecanoe town woolen factory.

DEATH.—March 30th, 1868, Caroline A. Cleveland, aged 50 years, 8 months and 1 day.

The deceased was born in Ontario county, the 20th day of July, 1817. She came to this place with her father in 1835, at a time when there was only one family residing here. Her father put up the first store. She was married in 1838, at South Bend, there being no clergymen or minister in this place. She was baptised in the christian faith by the Rev. Almon Gregory, May 29th, 1860, and confirmed on the same day by the Rt. Rev. George Upfold, D. D., L. D.

As one of the oldest citizens of this place, her memory is precious through several generations. The poor, the sick, the stranger, and the children lose a devoted and sincere friend. The family, a wife and a mother in the highest christian sense of the word. The community a citizen who example received the strong mark of appreciation, by a vast concourse attending the burial service with tearful eyes and sorrowful hearts. The church a faithful and influential communicant, whose works follow her though she now rests from her labors. Her life was the life of an earnest, sincere, practical christian, honoring every relation, and closing with peace, hope, joy and faith in the risen, and reigning savior. "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord."
