

THE DEMOCRAT.

News About Home.

Late Cheyenne and Denver papers from our friend S. R. Edwards. Many thanks.

The last hop was a pleasant affair. All seemed to enjoy the festive occasion and only regretted that this was the last of the series.

MARRIED.—On the 27 ult., at Haselger's hotel, in south Plymouth, by J. G. Osborne, Esq., Patrick S. Mulligan and Miss Margaret Ann Barrett.

SILVER plated ware, fruit dishes, etc., are ornaments which all desire unadorned by base and inferior metals of worthless tone. We notice, however, that our young friend, J. R. Losey, has received a large stock which he warrants to be Simon pure.

LOST.—On the evening of the last hop, a lady's fan. The finder will be handsomely rewarded by leaving the same at No. 14 Michigan st. The article is not valued for its intrinsic worth but as a "family relic" and its romantic career. The finder will receive the richest blessings springing from the warm imaginations of a grateful (diminutive) heart. Losey sells jewelry cheaper than ever.

The community of M'sawaka are excited over the condition of a young German girl, named Martin, living one-half mile north of the village, who has been ten weeks in a trance, with occasional lucid intervals, during which it is said she makes startling revelations. Dr. Fletcher in charge, pronounces it catalepsy.

A bridge on the Jeffersonville and Indianapolis railroad, 190 feet in length, which burned down on Tuesday night, was rebuilt so that trains passed over in 15 hours.

Isaac Hardin and Jesse Williams, and four horses, were instantly killed by a stroke of lightning, on the farm of William Cunningham, three miles from Martinsville, in Morgan county, during the storm of last week. Six teams were plowing in the same field, and when the crash came all the horses ran away from fright, so that those who escaped the bolt of lightning were more or less injured on their flight.

THE DEVIL'S OWN.—There is one eye-sore in this county more ulcerated than all others. A base, disgusting bulk of nausens. He visits Plymouth once a week and stays seven days. He becomes beastly drunk, acts like a beast, and verily is a pest. Gets into trouble, gets maltreated, gets robbed. His conduct and indecency make us ashamed to be called man; yet no official molest him. We have seen him covered with mud, besmeared by tobacco juice, almost in a nude state, confront ladies with his idiotic laugh—a laugh peculiarly his own and one that has made him notorious. We have seen him in a situation that well might damn his good name. Last Sunday evening his appearance, unaltered, in the house of one of the families of our place; this state of affairs led to his gentle expulsion,—so gentle, in fact, that he soon came around again; this time he passed out not quite so gently. The regret, on reflection, was that he did not pass out still less gently. (Communicated.)

THE POST OFFICE.—We are informed that Wm. M. Kendall, Esq., has been appointed postmaster for this town, in place of Maj. J. M. Moore, deceased. This appointment occasions considerable surprise on the part of all persons who were not instrumental in procuring it, and we imagine it will not tend to increase the waning popularity of Congressman Packard. Personally, Mr. Kendall is as unobjectionable as any man whose name we have heard mentioned in connection with the office, but it certainly does seem to us that he, and all other applicants should have refused, under the circumstances, to accept the appointment, so long as there was a possibility of procuring the office for the widow of Maj. Moore. She was entitled to the position and should have received it, and the unjust and untrue charge that democrats were attempting to secure it for her should have had no weight with any man. If democrats did desire that she should be appointed, it certainly was not on political considerations, and they were totally powerless to aid her, and the sentiment of generosity which prompted their desire was one repugnant, as well as democrats, might well be proud of.

FURNITURE.—We clip the following from the LaPorte Union & Herald: We made a tour through the extensive furniture rooms of Faragher & Co., on South Main street, the other day and were really astonished to see such a rich and valuable display of fine work. Their rooms, though large, are too small for their stock. Their bed-room and parlor sets are many, are splendid, rich in both style and material, and are being sold at prices that satisfy the trading public. They have a very full and complete assortment of sofas, lounges, bedsteads, chairs, bean-rooms, etc., etc. in fact every description of goods that can be called for in the furniture line. At no place in Northern Indiana can such another extensive assortment be found or where parties who wish to buy can do so well.

Owing to continued ill health, Mr. Sanford has been obliged to retire from the establishment, and his place is now being occupied by Mr. W. H. Volk, one of the best fellows in the kingdom, and, one, too, who will please all who may gain his acquaintance. Mr. Volk has an equal interest in the business, and will remain a permanent citizen of our city.

CHURCH ITEMS.

BY THE REV. WM. LUSK, JR.

THE sermon at St. Thomas' Church last Sunday evening, received forcible confirmation the same night by a "straggling coincidence" at the residence of one of our most respectable families.

THIS day is Ascension-Day, one of the higher festivals of the Christian Church. The day is observed by the entire Historic Church, representing about three hundred and ten millions of Christians. This day the Church, in the perfect unity of the faith, seems, like the lark, to take the wings of the morning and to sing at the very gate of Heaven her exulting hope. There is nothing which can enter the mind of man so ennobling to his nature, as the fact which this day celebrates.—The services at St. Thomas' Church are.—The full celebration of the Holy Communion at 8 A. M., and The Evening Prayer and a sermon at 7:30 P. M.

THE Sunday evening service at St. Thomas' Church, until otherwise announced, will commence at half past seven o'clock. The congregation deserves great praise for prompt attendance, both morning and evening, at the time for commencement of service.—For great liberality in support of the Church, and for the reverent manner and heartiness exemplified in the general participation in the common worship of the Church.

At a recent meeting of the vestry of St. Thomas' Parish, G. S. Cleveland, G. F. Benson and H. G. Thayer were elected to represent the parish in the thirty-second annual Council of the Diocese to meet in St. Paul's Cathedral, Indianapolis, on the first Wednesday of June.

A. P. ELLIOTT has been elected, for the third year, Sacristan of St. Thomas' Church. He has discharged the duties of his position with zeal and fidelity, and is always ready and prompt to wait upon strangers and attend to the wishes of the congregation.

ST. GEORGE'S day was observed in Chicago with full choral services at the Cathedral of Saints Peter and Paul. The address was delivered by Bishop Whitehouse. The Union Jack, blending the crosses of St. George and St. Andrew only needed that of St. Patrick to make the blending the beautiful symbol of Catholic unity.

THE Sunday schools of St. George's Church, New York, under the care of the Rev. Dr. Tyng, have instructed, within the past few years, ten thousand children. The monetary offerings of the children amount to $58,000.

BISHOP HUNTINGTON has arrived in his Diocese, Central New York, and has been presented with a beautiful residence by the Churchmen of Syracuse. On the evening of the 15th of April, at a special visitation, he confirmed sixty persons in Grace Church, Utica. A miniature mountain of bloom upon the super-altar was surmounted by a cross, and behind and above this upon an arch, was inscribed in the canonical colors of the Trinity, red, green and gold,—"My Grace is sufficient for thee." Beautiful banners were upon either side with appropriate inscriptions and designs, and the font was the base of an airy pyramidal frame covered with buds, leaves and blossoms. On the pendant in front of the pulpit was the inscription, in the color of Whit-un-day on golden background,—"Through the laying on of hands the Holy Ghost is given."

ST. PAUL'S Church, New Albany, in this state, raised $3,000 on Easter Day. St. Paul's Church has two noble-hearted, generous Churchmen, who are known throughout the Diocese.—Dr. Elijah Newland and Dr. C. Hoover. It might look like robbing St. Paul to pick St. Thomas, if we should invite Dr. Newland and Dr. Hoover to come and reside in Plymouth, but if they ever do leave New Albany we hope they will "patch their tents" on the bank of our golden river, and St. Thomas' parish will become vocal with joy at their appearance.

IN the United States there is no better school for boys than Racine College, Racine, Wisconsin. The school has the most thorough and complete system of education combined with a material care for the health and morals of the scholars.

As a king dwells in a palace, and as a white lily grows in a garden, so should the congregation of St. Thomas' Parish worship in a beautiful Church. Such a church will certainly be built, so soon as the question of title to the land on which the present building now stands is settled. The money will come, and there are plenty of ready hands and willing hearts for the work. When the legal question is settled, then farewell to the "shell" of other days, the "fire" bell, and the crowds and jams on high festival days, and welcome the realization of sweet anticipations to which the guiding angels of our destiny are steadily tending us:—

"Stained windows richly light,
Casting a dim, religious light."

(Communicated.)

An historical and statistical work entitled "Catholic Chicago," makes the following report on the progress of the Catholic religion and Protestant sectarianism in the city of Chicago: In the year 1833 the first Catholic church was built by the Rev. Father Schaffner and was completed the following year. In the year 1869 Chicago has 20 Catholic churches, among which are some of the finest and most costly buildings among the Catholic churches of the United States. Also 13 convents, 2 hospitals, 15 parish schools, 5 academies, 1 reform school for boys, 1 asylum for penitent Magdalen, and two orphan asylums. All these institutions are under the care and supervision of Catholic priests, nuns, and sisters of charity. The Catholic population amounts to 108,500 souls, and 15,700 Catholic children attend their schools. The value of the Catholic churches and sacred and charitable establishments amount to $1,575,000, and the whole Catholic church property in Chicago amounts to $3,543,000. The total number of Protestant churches belonging to the various sects is estimated at 41,500, so that the Catholics in Chicago have a majority of 67,000 over all others. According to the last census of the city there are 92,383 persons who belong to no church, and hence stand on the side of infidelity and indifference, from which, however, annually, hundreds turn Catholic, and frequently persons of high rank, learning and wealth.

The Methodists in Chicago have but 3,050 adherents, notwithstanding their great number of preachers who spare no pains to make proselytes and succeed so poorly. Hatfield, the most fanatical and bigoted Methodist preacher in Chicago, has but 165 members in his church. Fanaticism, bigotry and religious prejudices bear but little fruit.

On last Sunday the Catholic church of this place gave full satisfaction to all who attended the divine services. The church was crowded to its utmost and a large number of non-Catholics were present in the morning and evening. There was never since the erection of this sacred building such an imposing and solemn service celebrated as on Sunday last, at the dedication of the new statue of the blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of God. The English sermons were preached by the Rev. Father Rathman, from the college at South Bend, having for their objects, in the morning sermon, why Catholics honor and venerate the blessed Virgin Mary, removing those prejudices of sectarians who charge Catholics with idolatry, with regard to pictures and images of the saints, which charge is but a calumny. The object of the evening sermon was the explanation of the reasons why Catholics pay, so to speak, honor and respect to the cross and the crucifix. The German sermon was preached by the pastor of the St. Michael's congregation in his usual eloquent manner; the best sermon ever preached in this town, in the German language.
