Give Your Horse a Chance!

Arrow Shots.

I shot an arrow into the air.
It fell to the earth; I know not where.
Lonely.

A great many men kill themselves with over work by doing a good deal more than they need to do.

People say their chimneys always burn out on windy nights.

There are three things we actually despise; they are paring corns, getting shaved and getting our teeth fixed.

We do not believe anybody tries as much to do more than he can as a musician. Musicians are always trying to play or sing something they can't do right.

We really do not blame people much for being small. They really cannot help it.

We do not blame a man for singing tenor solos, but really he ought not to charge for it.

Do not spoil a story just for the sake of having it correct.

If a girl goes along minding her own business, folks think she is queer.

Every once in a while we see an old man in an old-fashioned high buggy.

Nobody ever thinks perhaps a preacher does not get as much as he earns.

How would you like to be a preacher on a small salary and have the members say you were getting all you were worth?

A man need not tell us that he does not hold a grudge for a mean turn done him. It is human nature to treasure it.

We observe that the girl who is so flush with beaux usually dies an old maid.

A woman thinks a good deal more of her husband if he doesn't allow himself to be henpecked.

A man whose wife is taller than he is, always has the satisfaction of knowing that everybody they pass will look around after them.

A good way for a woman to get her husband to do a thing she dislikes is by starting to do it herself.

You can tell what church a family belongs to by looking at the family album.

If you want to see something real funny, hunt up a picture of yourself taken twenty years ago.

The truth spoils many a good story.

The most useless thing we can think of just now is a storm window in summer.

Every time a good man dies, everybody makes up his mind to be just like him, and it lasts for two days.

There are two sides to every story, but to the one you tell there is but one side.

The world is mostly a game of everybody trying to skin the other fellow.

Like a Drowning Man.

"Five years ago a disease the doctors called dyspepsia took such hold of me that I could scarcely go," writes Geo. S. Marsh, well known attorney of Nocona, Tex. "I took quantities of pepsin and other medicines but nothing helped me. As a drowning man grabs at a straw I grabbed at Kodol. I felt an improvement at once and after a few bottles am sound and well." Kodol is the only preparation which exactly reproduces the natural digestive juices and consequently is the only one which digests any good food and cures any form of stomach trouble. A. F. Long.

We are pleased to report that Mrs. Smith has fully recovered from her recent severe illness. She says that Bailey's Laxative Tablets did her more good than anything else. They cure biliousness, liver troubles, fevers, sick headache and all other results of constipation. Try them to-night. Price 10 and 25 cents at A. F. Long's.
