

THE REPUBLICAN.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 5, 1882.

Roads are good and business better.

Fine variety of Ladies Chains and Necklaces, at Hamar's.

H. B. Smith is at Logansport visiting his mother.

Ladies don't fail to look at J. V. W. Kirk's samples of fine dress goods.

Corn is coming into the market at a rapid rate. Price, 55 cents.

A whole car-load of Barbed fence-wire just received at N. Warner & Sons'.

The new residence of Miss Reese is about completed. It is a very nice looking building.

H. B. Smith, the EXPERIENCED Jeweler, can be found at Hamar's

What has become of the Great Southern railroad? Is Rensselaer going to make any further effort to secure it?

I have a limited amount of private capital to let to good men on acceptable real estate security, at living rates of interest.

F. W. Babcock.

A telegram just received by S. P. Thompson, states that the Occidental Hotel at Kentland was burned to-day.

Willey & Sigler have the best stock of Boots & Shoes in Rensselaer. They handle the very best custom-made work that can be bought.

Rosser, McClure & Morey, printers and stationers at La Fayette, have made an assignment in favor of their creditors.

Try C. C. Starr & Co.'s roasted coffee. Coffee roasted fresh every other day.

REMEMBER.—That Campbell & Farden's is the place for Rubber goods. Boots and shoes a specialty. Remember, too, that the work is warranted on all our goods.

Oak Leaf coal or wood burning heating stoves are the best ever made for schools or offices. At N. Warner & Sons'.

A new station has been established on the Air Line three miles beyond Pleasant Ridge, which will be called McCoy, in honor of Alfred McCoy, esq., of this city, on whose land it is located. Already several buildings are in course of construction, and McCoy promises to be a live business point.

Everything now on hand will be closed out at, and below, cost, in order to move but little, if anything, into the New Store Room. Give me a call and you will go away pleased with lots of goods for little money.

Truly yours,
A. LEOPOLD.

The sneak thieves are becoming wonderfully bold. They not only pilfer from wood-piles and coal-heaps, but in the still hours of night, they pick door-locks and enter dwelling houses. As yet they have succeeded in getting nothing of value. The authorities are on the track of the ghouls, and they will doubtless be checked in this business soon.

Willey & Sigler still lead the trade on clothing. Have you examined their stock of Overcoats and Ulsterettes?

ROLL OF HONOR.—Since our last report and up to Dec. 31, 1881, we have received subscriptions to THE REPUBLICAN from the following named persons: G. W. Owens, A. W. Cleveland, C. D. CENTURY MAGAZINE.
(SCRIBNER'S MONTHLY.)

with the November number begin the new series under the title of THE CENTURY MAGAZINE, which will be in full color, now, enlarged, and improved "SCRIBNER'S." The page is somewhat longer and wider, admitting pictures of a larger size, and increasing the reading matter about FOURTEEN ADDITIONAL PAGES.

The following is a summary of the leading features of the new series for the year:

A new Novel by Mrs. Barnett (author of "That Lass of Lowrie," etc.) entitled "Through Our Administration," a story of Washington and the Louisiana Creoles. By Geo. W. Cable, author of "The Grandissimes," etc., a series of illustrated stories on the traditions and romance of Creole life in Louisiana.

A Novel by W. D. Howells (Author of "A Chance," "The Gentleman from Indiana," with characteristic features of American life.

The Ancient and Modern Sculpture," by Mrs. Lucy M. Mitchell, to contain the finest series of engravings yet published of the masterpieces of sculpture. This will also appear in "Young Sculpture of America," fully illustrated.

The Opera in New York, by Richard Grant White. A popular and valuable series to be illustrated with wonderful completeness and beauty.

Costumes and Decorations in America will be treated in a way to interest both household and housewife, with many practical as well as beautiful illustrations from recent designs.

Representative Men and Women of the 19th Century. Biographical sketches accompanied by portraits of the subjects by the late Dr. Howells, Matthew Arnold, Christian Rossetti, Cardinal Newman, and of the younger American authors, Wm. D. Howells, Henry James, Jr., and George W. Cable.

Sketches of "The Pickwick," "Hartnup's," and George Eliot's Novels. Successing the illustrated series on the scenes of Dickens's Novels.

The Reform of the Civil Service. Arrangements have been made for a series of able papers on this pressing political question.

Poetry and Prose. Poetry will be selected from Lowell, Whittier, Emerson, Whipple, and others, by E. C. Stedman.

Stories, Sketches and Essays, may be expected from Charles Dudley Warner, W. D. Howells, "Mark Twain," Edward Eggleston, Henry James, Jr., Mrs. May, Miss May, and others.

Mr. Geo. W. Cable, José Chávez, Harry A. C. Redwood, F. D. Milette, Noah Brooks, Frank R. Stockton, Constance F. Woolson, H. H. Boyesen, Albert Stickney, Washington Gladden, John Burroughs, Parker Godwin, Tommaso Salvini, Henry King, Ernest Ingersoll, E. L. Godkin, and many other members.

One or two papers on "The Adventures of the Tile Club" and an original Life of Bewick, the engraver, by Austin Dobson, are among other features to be later announced.

THE EDITORIAL DEPARTMENTS

Throughout will be unusually complete, and "The World's Work" will be considerably enlarged.

The price of THE CENTURY MAGAZINE will remain at $1.00 per copy, or $12.00 per year.

The postage (size 21x27) of the late Dr. Howells, issued just before his death, was graffed from a life-size drawing by Wyatt Eaton, will possess a new interest to the readers of this magazine. It is offered at $5.00 related together with THE CENTURY MAGA-

ZINE for $5.00. Subscriptions are taken by the publishers, and by book-sellers and news-dealers everywhere. THE CENTURY CO.,
