—Mr. Ezra C. Nowels, county auditor elect, is building a cozy little dwelling in the northern part of town.
—Temperance meeting next Monday evening, at the M. E. Church. See programme in another column.
—Mosquitoes are said to be good collectors. They are not in the least backward about presenting their bills.
—Little Walter, son of Mr. J. H. Willey, was severely kicked by a horse last week. He is able to be about again.
—Don. Garis has succeeded Jos. Milliken as express messenger on the Indianapolis, Delphi and Chicago railway.
—E. T. Harding, Esq., and A. S. LaRue are now partners in the drug and grocery business. Success, gentlemen.
—Mr. W. S. Smoot's wife and baby returned, Thursday, from a prolonged visit to friends in the "Hawkeye" state.
—Esq. Huffy, the genial postmaster at Pilot Grove, Newton county, took two carloads of hogs to Chicago this week.
—Monticello boasts of having the finest harp player in the state. There are several in Rensselaer that are hard to beat.
—Do not fail to call in and see the grand musical organette, just received, at W. S. Orwin's. Something new and novel.
—The list of subscribers to THE STANDARD is rapidly looming up. From three to six new subscriptions are received daily.
—General Manager Yeoman, of the I. D. & C. R. Y., was in Crown Point, last week, looking after the interests of his road.
—The first huckleberries of the season appeared upon the streets Monday. They found ready sale at eight cents a quart.
—Rensselaer Lodge No. 82, Knights of Pythias, installed their new officers Thursday evening. The installation was private.

—Walter Rallsback, of Remington, was in town, Tuesday. He reports business dull with merchants but lively with farmers.
—Mr. L. S. Mitchell will open a select school at Center school house, Gilliam township, on the 15th instant, to continue seven weeks.
—The publishers of the Remington Reporter are furnishing their readers with quite an interesting history of Jasper county.
—Scarlet fever is playing sad havoc with the little folks at Peru. Scores of them have died of the dread disease and still it is raging.
—Letter-heads, note-heads, envelopes, business cards, calling and visiting cards neatly, cheaply and promptly executed at this office.
—Twenty-five visiting cards, with name and address neatly printed on them, for ten cents, at this office. Call and leave your order.

—The wife of Sheriff Harmon nee Miss May Grant, of Benton county, was visiting her numerous friends in Rensselaer and vicinity this week.
—A party of nine handsome and patriotic young ladies of Rensselaer hired a team and went to Morocco yesterday to celebrate the "glorious Fourth."
—County Superintendent Nowels reports quite an interesting time at the state convention of county superintendents held in Indianapolis last week.
—The Protestant Methodists will hold a basket meeting in Gushwa's Grove, eight miles south of Rensselaer, to-morrow. Services by Rev. Mr. Luse.
—Died, of consumption, at the residence of her father in Newton county, on Monday last, Mrs. Mallatt, wife of Mr. T. J. Mallatt, of this place. Age not known.
—Old newspapers for sale at this office for ten cents a dozen, or six for a nickel. These papers are uncut and contain a great variety of choice reading.
—Esq. E. T. Harding has purchased the stock of drugs owned by the late D. I. Jackson at Delphi's bluff, Ark., and will have it shipped to this place immediately.
—Charles Journeat, editor of that wide-awake paper, the Crown Point Star, and his brother Frank, constitute a new law firm at Crown Point. Success, gentlemen.
—Mr. Thos. Robinson is building a new barn on his farm, three miles northeast of Rensselaer. Mr. Robinson is one of the live, go-ahead farmers of Jasper county.
—Sheriff Robinson is a faithful and efficient public servant. He has recently repaired the court house fence and otherwise added to the appearance of the public square.
—Last Monday was a remarkably quiet day in Rensselaer, which is accounted for by our modest County Clerk Price by the fact that eight of the attorneys were absent from town.
—Ladies, if you want to see something nice call at W. S. Orwin's. He has just received a large stock of cuff pins, breast pins, charms, rings, sleeve buttons, watches, chains, etc.
—The weather the past week has greatly improved the corn prospects in Jasper county, and the average farmer now wears a smile on his countenance that is "childlike and bland."
—J. Mulder, living near Tyler's school house, has for sale, or exchange for cattle, one new side-spring buggy, one half spring wagon and spring seat, and one farm wagon as good as new.
—The Indianapolis, Delphi and Chicago railway company will issue their new time-card about the 15th instant, when it is expected regular trains will be running between Rensselaer and Delphi.
—The habeas corpus case which was tried before Judge Hammond last Friday and Saturday resulted in favor of the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart, in whose custody the child will remain.
—The Crown Point Cosmos is authority for the statement that Rev. Richard Harrgrave, father of John Harrgrave, of this county, and one of the pioneers of Methodism in Indiana, is severely ill.
—Mail route No. 22,028 has been extended to Delphi, taking effect on the 1st instant. The mail for the present is carried from Delphi to Monticello on a hand car and there transferred to the train.
—D. B. Nowels, county superintendent, gives notice to teachers that the regular monthly examinations will be held as heretofore, at the school house in Rensselaer, on the last Saturday of each month.
—The Brookland Reporter is authority for the statement that John Lee has sued the I. D. & C. R'y Co. for $11,000, the amount claimed to be due him for services and money furnished in aid of the road.
—W. S. Orwin has just received a nice line of all kinds of musical merchandise, such as violins, violin strings, accordions, flutes, piccolos, harps, violin bows, bridges, keys, flute harmonicas, hair organettes, etc.
—The Ladies' Society picniced in the grove at the Misses Smith's Thursday afternoon. Carriages and buggies were provided by the friends of the society to carry the invited guests to the grove. A good time is reported.
—Died, on Monday, June 23d, of congestive apoplexy, Mrs. Laura Lamborn, the aged mother of Frank and John Lamborn. The funeral took place Tuesday. She leaves many relatives and friends to mourn her loss. (Remington Reporter.)
—The town was almost deserted yesterday by the citizens seeking recreation and enjoyment elsewhere. There were no attractions at home, so they divided up, some going to the Morocco celebration, some to the Monticello races, and a goodly number to Michigan City.

—Gents' vest chains, charms, pins, shirt-studs, collar buttons, sleeve buttons, and in fact a fine assortment of everything in the jewelry line. Call and see them before it is too late. They are selling rapidly. At W. S. Orwin's.
—The board of directors of the Jasper County Agricultural Society will meet in special session at the court house this afternoon. One object of the meeting, we believe, is to devise a premium list for the fair to be held this coming fall.
—Dave Pritchard will be a little careful about leaning against show cases hereafter. He let himself down through one of the show cases in Orwin's jewelry store, the other day, and now complains of the contraction of his currency to the amount of $1.75.
—Business men have no idea what a help it is to them to advertise in a good, live local newspaper unless they have tried it. If not already an advertiser in its columns try THE STANDARD, which bids fair to soon become the best advertising medium in Jasper county.
—Mr. Joseph T. Landrey, of the Lafayette Temperance Herald, gave us a pleasant call Thursday morning. He was quite favorably impressed with Rensselaer—its people, location, surroundings and natural attractions, and will probably be a frequent visitor here.
—Call at W. S. Orwin's and Charley Sears will show you the wonder of the nineteenth century, the organette. It will play polkas, waltzes, schottisches, gallops, quadrilles, etc. It can be used for dancing and thus save the expense of a fiddler. The price is within the reach of all.
—The Warsaw Republican publishes the following, which is said to be an excellent remedy for hog cholera: "To one-half pound of copperas dissolved in half a gallon of water, add one quart of coal oil and one pint of turpentine. Give to each grown hog three table-spoonfuls once per week in slop."
—Public installation of officers of Iroquois Lodge No. 143, I. O. O. F., occurred Tuesday evening last at their hall, which was witnessed by a large number of spectators. The ceremonies were concluded with an ice cream festival in Starr's Hall. It was pronounced an enjoyable affair by all who participated.
—Yeoman is the name of a new station located on the line of the I. D. & C. R'y, about half way between Monticello and Delphi. It is named in honor of General Manager Yeoman, to whose ceaseless energy and untiring zeal is due the success of the road. An effort will be made to establish a postoffice there.
—The Knox Ledger warns the farmers of that county to beware of lightning rod and patent right swindlers who are roaming about the country seeking whom they may devour. This is a good idea, and it would be well for Jasper county farmers to keep their eyes skinned for these traveling humbugs and dead beats.
—Mr. Joseph T. Landrey, more familiarly known as "Harry Burton," gave a temperance lecture in the M. E. Church Wednesday evening. The attendance was good and the lecture well received. Mr. Landrey is one of the publishers of the Lafayette Temperance Herald, the most wide awake temperance papers in the state.
—A. J. Beasley, the photographer, has vacated the room recently occupied by him in the Hemphill building, and has rigged up a tent for traveling. He intends to take in the fair this fall and all large gatherings, and proposes to take pictures as cheap as they can be had anywhere. He opened the campaign at Morocco yesterday.
—Married, on Sunday, June 29th, 1879, at the residence of the bride's parents in Kankakee township, by Rev. Mr. Luse, of the Protestant Methodist Church, Mr. Alonzo C. Jones and Miss Nettie J., daughter of Seth J. Bentley, Esq., all of Jasper county. We congratulate the happy pair on their new departure, and wish them much joy.
—The loss of Jim Maloy's "Maid of Richmond" has been somewhat alleviated by a friend of his living in Kentucky presenting him with a fine horse. Mr. Maloy has also purchased another mare noted for her speed, and with the two he proposes to make a lively campaign on the turf this season. He is attending the Monticello races to-day.
—The Roann Clarion is going on two years old, having completed its first year last week. The Clarion is published by our friend and former fellow-citizen, Charles M. Johnson, and is the liveliest "yearling" we have seen for many a day. May it have a long and useful career, and always be a source of profit to the publisher as well as the readers of the same.
—The National Temperance Camp Meeting will open at Laporte on the 15th instant and continue in session forty days. This promises to be most interesting session ever held and will be participated in by the friends of the temperance cause from all parts of the country. The ablest temperance advocates in the land are expected to be in attendance, and the committee of arrangements will leave nothing undone to make the affair a success in every particular. The railroads leading to the city will offer greatly reduced rates of fare to all persons desiring to attend. Who will represent the temperance interests of Jasper county at this meeting?
—The Fourth did not pass wholly unnoticed in Rensselaer. The day was ushered in by the ringing of bells and the deep-toned music of the "A. McCoy" locomotive. A day break serenade from the Rensselaer Cornets as they departed from Morocco, the deafening roar of the anvil artillery, the occasional firing of a gun or shooting of fire crackers, and the decoration with flags of several of the prominent business houses all reminded us that the "glorious Fourth" had come. The following business houses were appropriately decorated with the national colors: F. J. Sears & Co.'s dry goods store, W. H. & C. Rhoades' harness shop, Willey & Sigler's dry goods emporium, Louis Kern's grocery, H. V. Childers' hardware store, Austin House, Tuteur Bros.' grocery, and R. E. Spencer & Co.'s restaurant.
