DAILY TRAINS REMINGTON.

Gen. Passenger & Ticket Agent.

THE STANDARD.

SATURDAY, JULY 26, 1879.

—Have you signed the pledge?
—A Sunday school picnic is talked of.
—Mr. A. S. LaRue now occupies his new dwelling.
—Advertise your new fall goods in THE STANDARD.
—Ask your neighbor to subscribe for THE STANDARD.
—Teachers' examination at the school house to-day.
—The successful business man is the one who advertises.
—Dawson Smith, Esq., of Fowler, was in town, Thursday.
—Valparaiso claims the champion pedestrian of the state.
—J. W. Duval and Louis Bass visited Lafayette this week.
—Miss Bertha Tuteur, we are sorry to learn, is seriously ill.
—Now is a good time for merchants to commence advertising.
—W. S. Lingle, of the Lafayette Courier, was in town, Thursday.
—George Catt was visiting Rensselaer friends part of this week.
—Another gentle shower of rain visited these parts Monday night.
—Mrs. L. Tuteur returned from a visit to Lafayette, Thursday evening.
—Mr. M. L. Spidler and family are visiting relatives in Newton county.
—The Remington Camp Meeting begins one week from next Wednesday.
—J. T. Earl, a Brookston M. D., was in Rensselaer the first of the week.
—Miss Ella Evans, of Westville, visited her Rensselaer friends this week.
—Miss Dora Ward, of Kentland, was the guest of Miss Lulu Hammond this week.
—Fifty coats, worth from $3 to $8 each, for sale for only $2 each, at A. Leopold's.
—Mrs. Michael Schneider, of Cleveland, O., is visiting relatives in Jasper county.
—A splendid variety of calling and visiting cards at this office. Call and see them.
—The weather of the past week or ten days has been very favorable for harvesting.
—Dr. W. L. Hamar returned, Saturday evening last, from a business trip to Frankfort.
—Several cases of diphtheria appeared in Francesville, last week, one of which proved fatal.
—Call at THE STANDARD office for envelopes—a large stock, of best quality, on hand.
—About forty teachers and pupils are in attendance upon the Normal, and more are expected.
—An exchange sincerely remarks that one girl in the kitchen is worth two at the front gate.
—One hundred vests, worth from $2 to $3.50 each, for sale for $1.50 each, at A. Leopold's.
—Mr. Hart, the gentlemanly clerk of the Narrow Gauge store, is visiting friends in Canton, Ill.
—Mr. W. S. Orwin is a widower for a few days. His family are visiting friends in Logansport.
—Subscribe for THE STANDARD. Only $1 a year, six months for 50 cents, three months for 25 cents.
—Miriam Lucas, of Brookston, recently fell heir to $25,000, a legacy left him by a rich uncle in New York.
—The Brookston Reporter says "the best recipe for a bee sting is soft soap applied to the stung part immediately."
—Rev. T. E. Webb, of Remington, preached a very acceptable sermon in the M. E. church Sunday evening.
—Preliminary steps have been taken to secure the admission of John R. Hurley to the hospital for insane persons.
—James F. Irwin, of Carpenter township, called at THE STANDARD office, Monday. He reports everything lovely in southern Jasper.
—General Manager Yeoman, of the I. D. & C. R. R., and wife, spent Sabbath last in Rensselaer, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. McCoy.
—Twenty five visiting cards, with name and address neatly printed on them, for ten cents, at this office. Call and leave your order.
—A party of ladies and gentlemen came over from Remington, Thursday evening, to attend the temperance revival in progress at this place.
—Green corn and cucumbers, with the usual attendant, cholera morbus, bring broad smiles to the countenances of physicians now days.
—The work of excavating for the cellars of the new brick business rooms of George Kannal and Willey & Sigler is being vigorously prosecuted.
—A new lumber yard is being established in this place by Rev. B. F. Ferguson and a Mr. Jordan, of Francesville. We wish the gentlemen success.
—F. L. Cotton is doing an extensive grain business. He has this week shipped several carloads of new wheat. Price paid from $5 to 90 cents per bushel.
—Old newspapers for sale at this office for ten cents a dozen, or six for a nickel. These papers are unutilized and contain a great variety of choice reading.
—A basket meeting will be held at Blue Grass school house on the second Sunday in August next. Services conducted by Rev. W. G. Vessels and others. Everybody invited.
—Mrs. Howard, on Van Rensselaer street, can accommodate two or three more regular or day boarders. Good tables, clean beds and low rates are her recommendations to public favor.
—Mr. D. C. Wood returned from Rensselaer Tuesday night. He reports several costly residences going up in that place, among them an elegant one for His Honor, Judge Hammond. [Winamac Journal.]

THE STANDARD.

SATURDAY, JULY 26, 1879.

—Fred Webber has had a splendid "flip" for his "E flat" since the advent of that eight-pound boy at his house.
—Letter-heads, note-heads, envelopes, business cards, calling and visiting cards neatly, cheaply and promptly executed at this office.
—Mr. Joseph Price, of Barkley township, has again been adjudged insane and was this week taken by Sheriff Robinson to the insane hospital at Indianapolis.
—Normal pupils will find scratch books, note, letter and fools cap writing papers, envelopes, pens, lead pencils, inks, etc., of good quality, cheap, at the post office.
—Three hundred pairs pants, worth from $2 to $3 a pair, for sale for $1.75 a pair, at A. Leopold's. The above bargains are offered in order to give room for a $20,000 stock.
—Bro. McEwen, of the Sentinel, is baching it now, which accounts for the forlorn expression of his countenance since Wednesday. His family is in Monticello visiting friends.
—At the suggestion of the town marshal the citizens have had the obnoxious weeds along the streets and sidewalks mown down, thereby adding materially to the appearance of the town.
—Mr. Kirk Dunning, a young and talented artist of Detroit, is visiting his friends Mr. and Mrs. H. R. W. Smith, at the residence of Mr. Wm. F. Paxton, in Newton township.
—A quiet wedding took place in Rensselaer, Thursday evening. The contracting parties were Mr. Alexander H. Witman and Miss Lucy Reigle, of Remington. Justice Harding tied the knot.
—The I. D. & C. R. R. Co. commenced running regular trains to Pittsburg last Monday. Train leaves here as usual at 11:15 a. m., and arrives at 7:15 p. m. instead of 6:15 as heretofore.
—Mr. Thos. E. Willey and family, of Long's Point, Ark., are visiting relatives and friends in Jasper county. Tom made it convenient to come North and remain during the yellow fever scare.
—The evenings are growing longer, a fact that will carry joy to the heart of many a young man. A gain of five minutes each Sunday evening is a bonanza to a young man who dreams of love. [Huntington Herald.]
—A blind man was preying upon the sympathies of Rensselaer people, Thursday. He sells "The Blind Man's Appeal" for what ever sum the citizens are disposed to give, and thus earns an honest living for himself and family.
—Mr. Joshua Ponsler, one of the best farmers in the land, recently threshed out two and one-half acres of wheat which yielded an even hundred bushels of grain, an average of forty bushels to the acre. Not so bad, that.
—Regular trains now run to Pittsburg on the I. D. & C. R. R., the mail train passing this place southward at 2:30 p. m. and returning arrives here at 6 p. m. Arrangements will soon be made to connect with Wabash trains. [Monticello Herald.]
—Marshal Powers arrested a party of boys, Thursday, for bathing within the corporate limits of the town in violation of section 3 of ordinance No. 52. They were taken before Justice Harding and each fined $1, which was paid in work on the streets.
—We are pained to announce the death of Mrs. Malachi P. Comer, which occurred at her home in Union township on Friday of last week, after a protracted illness. She was universally respected, and her loss will be deeply regretted by all who knew her.
—Orwin, the jeweler, has received several new pieces of music for the organette, and the melodious strains that are daily wafted upon the July zephyrs to the ears of the music-loving portion of the community is enough to soothe the breast of the most daring savage.
—Business men have no idea what a help it is to them to advertise in a good, live local newspaper unless they have tried it. If not already an advertiser in its columns try THE STANDARD, which bids fair to soon become the best advertising medium in Jasper county.
—In another column will be found an interesting article from the Cimarron (N. M.) News and Press concerning the discovery of gold near Elizabethtown by Dr. Ira C. Kelley, formerly of Rensselaer. The Doctor has probably struck a bonanza out there, and we are glad of it.
—The residence of Mr. Wm. Murray, one mile south of town, was burned to the ground yesterday morning, including part of his furniture and clothing. Loss about $800; no insurance. The fire is supposed to have originated from a defective flue. [Goodland Saturday Herald.]
—Bro. Thomas, of the Winamac Democrat, recently founded a couple of tramps for invading his premises and scaring his family. That's right. If the law will not take these fellows in hand, let individuals give them their just deserts. If a few more were treated in that way they would not be so numerous.
—Mr. E. H. Tharp, who has for some time past been in the employ of Walter A. Wood & Co., of reaping and mowing machine fame, with headquarters in Chicago, visited his mother and numerous friends in this place the past week. He has secured a position in Indianapolis, to which place he started yesterday.
—Dr. S. W. Ritchey, one of the sturdy farmers of Jasper county, and a fervent advocate of the greenback cause, gave THE STANDARD office a friendly call, Wednesday. The Doctor is one of those liberal-minded, whole-souled gentlemen, with whom it does a person good to converse. Call often, Doctor, and stay longer.
—The board of town trustees met, Monday evening, pursuant to announcement, for the purpose of hearing complaints of, and appeals from, the assessment roll, and to equalize taxes. But there being no one present, with any grievances to offer the board concluded everybody was satisfied, and adjourned to meet in regular session on the first Monday evening in August.
