-The enterprising firm of Willey & Sigler, who are now building a fine brick business house on the south side of Washington street, have changed their mind as to the plan of the second story of their building. They have decided to make a large and commodious opera hall of it, with galleries, stage, orchestra, etc. The size of the hall will be 40x80 feet, and the height twenty feet. The hall when completed will accommodate a larger audience than has ever assembled in Rensselaer on any ordinary occasion.
-The following is said to be an almost absolute cure for snake or mad dog bite, and it is well worth trying out and preserving. It has been tried in hundreds of cases, and has never yet failed to effect a cure: "Chloroform and concentrated ammonia, equal portions; mix and apply with a sponge or piece of soft cloth to the bitten parts for six or ten minutes. The parts bitten, if swollen or inflamed, may be rubbed with equal portions of ammonia and spirits of turpentine, for a day or two, to relieve soreness." [Marion Democrat.
-A young man named Doolittle broke into John Huffy's store at Pilot Grove in Jackson township, on Friday night of the 15th inst., and stole $40. He was captured at Rensselaer and taken back to the place where the theft was committed when the money was found upon his person and he confessed that he had stolen it. He subsequently made his escape from the person who had charge of him, stole a horse, was recaptured, and had a preliminary examination before Justice Miller, who recognized him to appear at the September term of Circuit Court, and in default of bail he was placed in the custody of Sheriff Parker who lodged him in the Fowler jail to await his trial. -Mr. D. H. Yeoman, one of the most active members of the Jasper County Agricultural Society, called at THE STANDARD office Thursday and talked fair to us for a short time. Dave is very enthusiastic on this subject and is working with his whole might to make the coming exhibition a grand success.
-Dr. A. H. Wirt, dentist, of Monticello, is in town and will remain one week. Persons desiring work in his line will do well to give him a call. The doctor's long experience and reasonable charges entitle him to a good share of public patronage. Office with Dr. B. Miller, in Hemphill building.
-Mr. Willis J. Innes and Miss Louisa M. Parris, daughter of Mr. Berry Parris, were on Wednesday last united in the holy bonds of wedlock. The happy couple started the same day for Niagara Falls. THE STANDARD extends congratulations to them. May they live long to enjoy the fullest realization of their hopes.

-An election was held in Michigan township, Clinton county, Tuesday, on the question of appropriating $12,000 to the I. D. & C. R. Y. This township was considered the most doubtful one on the line, and the proposition was carried by only nine majority. Warren township, in the same county, was carried by a good majority.
-For more than one year I had chills and fever, third day and dumb Ague, until my health was gone. Tried many things to cure me but failed. A friend whose family was all cured with Liebig's Ague Cure induced me to try it. I did so and was cured. I have sold it to scores of others who have been cured. -JOHN QUERRY. Sold by W. J. Innes.
-Little Gerlie, daughter of E. L. Clark, Esq., while playing with a bottle the other day fell, breaking it and running a sharp edge of the glass into her hand. The blood spouted out in a perfect stream, and upon examination it was found that an artery was severed. Drs. Moss and Loughridge were called in, and it was with considerable difficulty that they succeeded in checking the loss of blood.
-DISOLUTION NOTICE.—The partnership heretofore existing between the undersigned has this day been dissolved by mutual consent. The business will be continued by the senior member of the late firm. All accounts due the firm must be settled within the next thirty days, as the gentleman retiring from the business is going away and needs the money. S. E. ECKWIS & SON, Rensselaer, Ind., Aug. 16, 1879.
-The enterprising firm of Willey & Sigler, who are now building a fine brick business house on the south side of Washington street, have changed their mind as to the plan of the second story of their building. They have decided to make a large and commodious opera hall of it, with galleries, stage, orchestra, etc. The size of the hall will be 40x80 feet, and the height twenty feet. The hall when completed will accommodate a larger audience than has ever assembled in Rensselaer on any ordinary occasion.
-The following is said to be an almost absolute cure for snake or mad dog bite, and it is well worth trying out and preserving. It has been tried in hundreds of cases, and has never yet failed to effect a cure: "Chloroform and concentrated ammonia, equal portions; mix and apply with a sponge or piece of soft cloth to the bitten parts for six or ten minutes. The parts bitten, if swollen or inflamed, may be rubbed with equal portions of ammonia and spirits of turpentine, for a day or two, to relieve soreness." [Marion Democrat.
-A young man named Doolittle broke into John Huffy's store at Pilot Grove in Jackson township, on Friday night of the 15th inst., and stole $40. He was captured at Rensselaer and taken back to the place where the theft was committed when the money was found upon his person and he confessed that he had stolen it. He subsequently made his escape from the person who had charge of him, stole a horse, was recaptured, and had a preliminary examination before Justice Miller, who recognized him to appear at the September term of Circuit Court, and in default of bail he was placed in the custody of Sheriff Parker who lodged him in the Fowler jail to await his trial.
