

THE STANDARD.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1879.

Canada was visited by a snow storm September 25th.

Secretary Sherman is killed for three speeches in Ohio next week.

Tilden stock is rapidly declining since the Blackburn boom sprang into existence.

O. W. Church, Esq., has bought the Remington Reporter office. We wish the new management success.

De La Matyr is said to be making stump speeches in Iowa. Look out for an increased republican majority in that state.

About 2,000 Cincinnati cabinet makers, coopers, shoemakers and railroad employes struck for higher wages on Monday last.

Delphi Journal: There will be a strong republican frost in Ohio about the 14th of next month and then look out for dried up democrats.

Blackburn, the yellow fever fiend, and Barksdale, the murderer of Dixon, would make good standard bearers for the democracy to rally around in 1880.

A specimen of democratic reform is illustrated in the defalcation of Clarence A. Buskirk, late democratic attorney-general. There is a deficiency in his accounts of over $26,000.

Blackburn and Barksdale—how would that sound for a democratic presidential ticket? They would certainly represent the principles of nine-tenths of the bourbon element of the democratic party.

Delphi Journal: Hendricks, "the gifted son" is sorely grieved that there is a disposition to make a solid republican North. The Stradler never shed any lachrymal torrents over a solid South, did he?

During the month of September the public debt was reduced $2,563,751. Pretty good lood to be taken off the shoulders of the people in one month, and that, too under a republican administration.

Rumor was rife in Chicago on Friday of last week, to the effect that President Hayes had died very suddenly of heart disease. Investigation, however, revealed the fact that there was no truth in the report. The rumor occasioned no little excitement.

The business boom that the country is now enjoying comes in a bad time for the democrats and greenbackers. It looks now very much like there won't be a vestige left of those two parties in the states in which elections are to be held this month.

Hon. Francis Gillette died at his residence in Hartford, Conn., on Tuesday last. He was a Free Soil United States Senator for the sessions of 1854-'55, for the unexpired term of Truman Smith, and was the father of Congressman Gillette, of Iowa.

It is likely that the friends of Senator Voorhees will give him a grand reception when he returns from his political tour through Ohio. Daniel is held in almost as high esteem by his political followers as is the notorious yellow fever fiend, Blackburn.

The business portion of the city of Deadwood, D. T., was destroyed by fire on the morning of September 26th, rendering 2,000 people homeless and entailing a loss of $2,000,000. The city will be rebuilt as speedily as possible and in a more substantial manner.

Luther Bonson came very near "passing in his cheeks" the other day. He got on a bender, locked himself up in his room and was attacked by 10,000 "snakes," more or less. It was a close call for Luther, but he is again recovering. It is hoped for the good of the temperance cause that the next attack will settle his hash.

Chicago Inter-Ocean: The name of U. S. Grant upon a republican ticket would be equal to a quart of "soothing syrup" poured down the throat of every "brigadier." You could "put him in his little bed" and he would go to sleep without a kick. The people have an idea of trying it, and fellows who don't like the diet had better change their boarding-houses.

Indianapolis Journal: The gifted Gooding of this State is prancing around in Ohio making what he calls political speeches. People who used to stand within a hundred yards of William Allen while he was speaking cannot come within a mile of Gooding without putting cotton in their ears. He and Senator Voorhees spoke together at Columbus, Saturday night, David furnishing the sound and Daniel the fury. The audience was completely prostrated.

The presidential party arrived in Indianapolis, Wednesday evening, where they met with a grand reception. They visited the State Fair, Thursday, and departed for Fremont, Ohio, the President's home, Thursday night.

Jasper H. Keyes, one of the best natured quill-drivers in Northern Indiana, has assumed control of the Monticello Democrat. "Jap" has had years of experience in the newspaper business and knows full well how to get up a neat and acceptable paper. We predict for the Democrat a long and successful career under its new management.

Indianapolis Journal: Senators Voorhees and McDonald, of this State, are both making speeches in Ohio. The former is laboring to prove that resumption has not been accomplished, and that the country is on the road to ruin, while the latter freely admits that there is a great revival of prosperity, and that the only true money is gold and silver. These two Indiana statesmen, at opposite ends of the financial line, fairly represent the patent reversible Democracy.

An interview with Senator McDonald published in Monday's Cincinnati Enquirer shows that he is decidedly shaky as to the result in Ohio. He says: "There does not seem to be a very intense political feeling among the people, and it is very clear that at the beginning of the canvass the Republicans took the lead and maintained it until within the past ten days." It is a remarkable coincidence that just about ten days ago a committee called upon Tilden to see if he would not open his "bar" for Ewing.

The democratic state central committee of Ohio have "skinned it back and fixed it" that is, they have canceled the engagement of Gov. Blackburn, the hero of the yellow fever plot, to speak in Columbus. They might as well let him fill the engagement. It would do the cause no more harm than has already been done by the election of that illustrious gentleman (?) to the highest position in the gift of the people of democratic Kentucky. The canceling of this appointment won't save them. Their cause is lost, hopelessly lost.

Indianapolis Journal: Preparations for the reception of General U. S. Grant on a grand scale in Chicago are gradually taking shape. On Saturday there was a private meeting of regular army and militia officers to arrange a programme. The committee reported that the Exposition building had been secured from November 5 to 10 inclusive, for holding a splendid military reception and ball. The Palmer House will be Grant's headquarters while in Chicago. Potter Palmer left Saturday night for New York to procure electric and calcium lights and unique decorations. It is the intention not only to have the entire state militia in Chicago during the reception, but also all of the state posts of the Grand Army of the Republic, with full complements of men in the old uniforms. Two posts of the Grand Army in Iowa have sent word that they will be present. A prominent military man denies that the demonstration is to have any political significance. It is simply a welcome and recognition by the military of Grant's own state extended to the silent man upon his return to his native heath. "We desire to keep our proceedings quiet," said the officer, "but we intend to have the grandest spectacle in Chicago upon Grant's return that has been witnessed in this country since the war."

Jasper County Temperance Union. The regular meeting of the Jasper County Temperance Union will be held at the Methodist church on Monday evening, October 6th, 1879. The following is the programme of exercises: Opening song by the Choir. Prayer by Rev. A. W. Wood. Reading Scriptures by the Vice President. Reading minutes of previous meeting by the Secretary. Song by the Choir. Declaration, Miss Fannie Wood. Essay, E. R. Pierce. Song, Miss Lola Moss and others. Select Reading, Louis Hollingsworth. Declaration, Nellie Kelley. Song, Willie Innes. Essay, Bell Alter. Select Reading, S. P. Thompson. Song by the Choir. D. B. MILLER, Pres.

The secretary of the Jasper County Agricultural Society will be at the post office on Saturday, 4th, and Monday, 6th, to record entries of stock and other articles for exhibition at the fair next week. On Tuesday, 7th, he will be at the Fair Grounds. By an order of the Board of Directors, all entries must be made on or before Tuesday evening.

Joseph Doolittle, who burglarized J. M. Huffy's store, at Pilot Grove, in Newton county, last August, of about $40, plead guilty to the charge, last Tuesday, before his honor Judge Hammond, at Kentland, and was sentenced to two years at hard labor in the Northern Prison, at Michigan City.

REMINGTON POT-FOURRI.

[From our special correspondent.]

Gates did not take a "sojourn" through the country last week, but he was undoubtedly on one of his periodical benders and therefore failed to connect with his communication.

Alas for the Remington Reporter! Its brains, wit and educational column as embodied in C. S. Cox, shook the dust of the sanctum from the said human form, and retired to private life as a "country school teacher." "What a fall was there my countrymen!" Will the Reporter survive?

Business is looming up and the unemployed can now find something to do. Mechanics are all busy and none who are able to work need be idle now. There is quite a demand for farm hands. Remington is awakening from the three or four years sleep in which she has been indulging.

If any one doubts the beneficial effect of agricultural fairs let him take a "sojourn" through the country and contrast the stock and agricultural productions now seen, with those of ten or even five years ago and he will be fully answered. Blooded stock, or at least half breeds, are seen on every farm, and the manner of farming has been greatly improved. Even the gardens and flower beds have changed greatly for the better.

I little expected to live to see the day in which our old and respected townsman, F. R. Donnelly would be taken to the penitentiary to serve out a term of years. Yet such is the case. He was sent there last Wednesday for a term of years, depending upon his good behavior during that time. Crime committed, voting the democratic ticket straight and receiving an appointment of guard over the convicts therefore.

Poultry breeders have their trials and tribulations, as well as the rest of mankind. Cholera and roup are going for the feathered bipeds in a way that is extremely unprofitable for the raisers of chickens. Thirty years ago when the long-tailed barn-yard fowls were the only chickens raised, nothing ever killed them but weasels, skunks and hawks. But the more valuable a thing becomes, the more liable it is to disease. Ducks seem to be the only kind of poultry that is exempt from the prevailing disease. Quacks are seldom sick, anyhow.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

For the week ending October 3rd, the record of transfers of real estate in Jasper county was as follows:

Frederick Hoover to John W. Shover, esq se 6, 27, 7—80 acres, $1,750.
Jemima Mallatt to Ralph Fendig, n 1/2 ne sw 5, 29, 7—20 acres, $1. Quit claim.
Mary E. Baker to Ralph Fendig, same tract, $1. Quit claim.

Daniel V. Martin to Newton School Township, ne corner of e 1/4 nw 7, 29, 7—1 acre, $1.
Wm. W. Jones to Amos S. Wills, w side nw ne 35, 82, 5—20 acres, $400.
Ralph Fendig to James H. Loughridge, undivided 1/2 of 5-9ths w 1/2 nw, undivided 1/2 of 5-9ths n end w 1/2 sw 34, 30, 6—95 acres, $360.

Elijah M. Tyner to Nottis S. McKahan, s 1/2 ne, n 1/2 se, se 12, 27, 7—200 acres, $100.
O. W. Church, assignee, to John H. Tribby, tract in Remington, lot 9, block 20, in Remington, $1. Quit claim.

Also recorded four mortgages, three chattel mortgages, two school fund mortgages, one assignment of mortgage, one soldier's discharge and one oath.

EXCURSIONS.

Excursions will be run over the I. D. & C. R'y next week, as follows:

To Cincinnati, October 6th, leaving Remington at 9:30 p. m., arriving at Cincinnati at 8 a. m. the next day. Fare for round trip, $4. Good till October 11th.

To Louisville, by same train and for same fare, arriving at Louisville at 10:40 a. m. the next day.

To Chicago, the last of the season, October 7th, leaving Remington at 12:30 p. m., arriving at Chicago at 7 p. m. Round trip fare, $2.

To Remington during fair.

Articles of association of the Kentland and Lafayette railroad—a short line running from Kentland, in Newton county, to a point on the C. L. and C. road between Earl Park and Raab—were filed yesterday with the Secretary of State. The capital stock is $25,000, and the president of the board of directors is J. S. Hatch.—[Indianapolis Journal.]

Mrs. W. H. Parcells has just finished a fancy rug which will be on exhibition at the Remington fair. It is made of rags and has a large eagle skillfully worked in the center. —[Monticello Herald.]

A CURIOSITY.

$15,000 Worth of CLOTHING

On Exhibition at LEOPOLD'S.

A. LEOPOLD is the only merchant in the county who buys his goods for cash down and gets a nice discount off. He recently bought so low that he was offered $2.00 advance on every suit by the house he purchased of. His stock of Overcoats will beat anything ever exhibited in that line in the county. They are indeed a bargain, and will be sold for $1.00 less on the Coat than his competitors can afford to sell them. Call and see those consisting of Scotch Kilts, English, Saylor and American Jockey Suits for little ones. My stock of will excel anything in that line ever shown in Rensselaer. My stock of is all O. K. for style, quality and price. Now, friends and patrons, I assure you, upon the honor of a man, that this is not a blow, neither is it exaggeration, but simply a statement of facts that can be proven by comparing my prices with those of other merchants. I advise you as a friend, if you wish to save money these hard times, to call upon your humble servant,

$15,000 worth of Clothing

BEAUTIFUL SUITS FOR CHILDREN AND BOYS,

HATS AND CAPS

A. LEOPOLD,

At the Famous Stone Building, Rensselaer, Indiana.
