

RENSSELAER UNION

Thursday, July 11th, 1878.

Published weekly.

Charles E. McCully, recently sentenced by the White County circuit court to six years' confinement in the penitentiary for assault with intent to kill Reuben R. Pettit of Remington, has published the following card in the Monticello papers:

I beg that you will grant me space in your paper to return my grateful thanks to Judge Gould and the jury for the kind and impartial manner in which they tried my case. Also to all the officers of the Monticello bar, and to Mr. John H. Wallace and Simon F. Thompson, the prosecuting attorneys, I wish to say that I am very much indebted to them for their kind and generous assistance. I have been an inmate of the Monticello jail. As to my lawyers, Mr. Alf Reynolds, Mr. Dawson Smith and W. E. Uhl, they defended me as well as the circumstances of the case would admit. I had the case brought here on a change of venue from Jasper county. I am very much indebted to Judge E. P. Hammond, but since I have had a talk with my father-in-law, Reuben R. Pettit, I have been convinced that I was wrong in saying what I did, and if ever the opportunity is offered I will make the Judge a personal apology. To my friend Mr. Henry Downing, I shall remember his kindness through life. If I had taken his advice I would not now have six years of a state prison life before me. I do not feel hand toward anyone. Those who wronged me I forgive from the bottom of my heart, and those whom I have wronged I ask in the name of humanity to forgive me.

Sunday School Encampment.

The Inter-State Sunday School Encampment, under auspices of State Sunday School Associations of Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky, Tennessee, West Virginia and Michigan, will be held in a beautiful grove, one mile south of Loveland, Ohio, and twenty-one miles north of Cincinnati, on the line of the Pittsburgh, Cincinnati & St. Louis railway, from July 18th to 31st, 1878. Cheap excursion tickets to the encampment will be on sale at all stations on the line of the Pittsburgh, Cincinnati & St. Louis railway, good on any regular train during the encampment.

We believe but one candidate for judge of this district is now talked of. We were informed some time ago that Mr. Trovelli, of Kentland, a very clever gentleman and a lawyer with marked ability, would make a formidable opponent for the honorable position, but later reports come to us that he has decided to be a candidate. This leaves Judge Hammond alone upon the track, so far as we can learn, where he will probably meet the approval of all political conventions. A number of years of personal acquaintance with Mr. Hammond makes us doubtless that there could be no better man unanimously nominated than the present incumbent, Judge E. P. Hammond, of Rensselaer. —Goodland Register.

A little cunning trick is being attempted by the democratic managers to induce an immense upsurge of the masses to attend their representative convention at Bradford, next Monday. They will run a cheap excursion train down and back, hoping thereby to get enough people together to bulldoze the White county democrats, make them consent to nominate a Jasper county man for the third consecutive time, and to appear as if the whole county was rushing frantically to the new confederate standard. It is a diaphanous ruse for a small amount of cheap capital. Possibly a number of republicans may attend the pow-wow, but they won't join the tribe.

Col. I. B. McDonald, of Whitley county, was a candidate for the democratic nomination for congress in the 12th, or 13th, district. They had a red-hot stormy time, and on the 14th ballot united upon an old war-time compeer by the name of Col. McDonald. After the 11th ballot the veteran Col. McDonald withdrew from the contest with a heart bowed down with sorrow, and exclaiming, "I am not a candidate," he walked away, leaving a nomination at the hands of the democracy of the 12th district.

A call for a republican judicial convention for the 20th circuit appears under the heading of "Political Advertisements" in another column. Jasper county is entitled to a representation of 12 votes in the convention. Her appointed delegates are: D. D. McDermott, William B. Querry, Joseph Tanner, William Daniels, John M. Wason, William Warren, Allen J. Yeoman, John W. Hargrave, Thomas Antrim, Isaac F. Biggs, John Meyers, William H. Henkle, Charles M. Johnson, William Hammond, John Alter.

The republican convention for the 10th congressional district of Indiana will be held at Wamatah, LaPorte county, next Wednesday (July 10th). The delegates from Jasper county are: Jesse C. Gwin, Charles Sprague, William Meyers, William Day, James Ritchie, Simon P. Thompson, James V. Burton, Charles R. Bonjourn, William D. Van't Weeld, Seth J. Bonley, Eden W. Booth, Charles M. Campbell, William F. Shaw, James Booher and Clark McCully. But they will be entitled to only six votes in the convention.

Several new announcements of gentlemen who are willing to be candidates for county officers, subject to the decision of the republican nominating convention, appear in THE UNION this week. The democratic ticket already in the field is a little too weak for any use. It is spoken contemptuously of even by the men who nominated it. It is already a "busted" community, which even the virtues of Turk's Island salt cannot save from decay.

William S. Coen, trustee Marion township, publishes that he has designated the second and last Saturdays of each month as days upon which he will transact public business pertaining to his office. He is a prominent lawyer of his place, is well and favorably known both in this county and in Jasper, and his nomination was unanimously agreed upon by the Reynolds convention. —Monticello Herald.

Mr. Charles M. Johnson, formerly a partner in the Union establishment, and his brother George who was also employed in this office, are publishing a neat six-column folio paper, called the Clarion, at Rosam, Wabash county. Hundreds of friends in Jasper county unite in our wish of prosperity for them.
