The Occult Research society will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock with Mrs. James McNeill, 22 south thirteenth street.

Tuesday, Oct. 30, will be annual donation day at the Home for the Friendless on south tenth street. Gifts of money, clothing, fruit and provisions are urgently solicited.

A. G. Compton was exhibiting this morning a Duchess pear raised on his own lot on Randolph street. The pear weighs one pound and one-half ounce. It is fine grained and perfectly sound.

There will be a meeting of the local council of women Thursday afternoon, October 25, at 5 o'clock, at The Westcott. All members of the affiliated clubs are earnestly desired to be present.

One of the liveliest crowds that ever left Richmond was the one that went to Barton, consisting of the Quaker City Temple Ladies and Sir Knights of the Golden Eagle lodge. They were royally entertained.

The Richmond Rough Riders have been invited to take part in the pole-raising at Bethel next Saturday. They will accept the invitation, joining the Chester troop at the latter place at 11 a. m. The big 200 foot pole will be raised early in the afternoon at Bethel.

for the welfare of their fellow men. Meetings each afternoon at 2:30, evening 7:00 and 7:30.

Correct spectacle fitting, specialty, Haner's.

There is an extensive dearth of Bryan pictures over the city.

Colonel Ivan N. Walker of Indianapolis was in the city today en route to Cincinnati.

Wilder Inman returned to Seven Mile O. yesterday afternoon after a short visit in this city.

W. E. Jenkins will address a meeting of the third ward Republican club this evening at headquarters.

H. E. Farnsworth returned this afternoon from Logansport, where he had been on business for two days.

William M. Knight Smith and wife left this morning for Old Point Comfort, Philadelphia and New York city via Cincinnati.

Schilling, Earlham's big center, has been elected captain of the football team. Hadley has been retired on account of tonsillitis.

There could not be better weather for the Republican meetings in various portions of the county than this week is producing.

The bids for the rebuilding of St. Andrew's church will be opened Friday night. There were several Richmond and Indianapolis bidders.

William Musser has returned to town. He paid one fine and stayed another. The charge against him is association with a woman of bad character.

There will be a meeting of the Bugle Corps at the court house tonight, in full uniform, to attend the speaking at Republican headquarters. All are urged to be present to turn out.

On account of the two speakers and the two meetings billed for the Republican headquarters tonight there will probably be arranged a joint meeting and a division of the time.

Mr. Fletcher of Cincinnati is in the city to look after the contract for building the new St. Andrew's church. He has recently completed a church edifice just across the street from Col. W. T. Durbin's home in Anderson.

Ray K. Shiveley, Will Converse, Bert Mosker and Earl Widup spoke at Williamsburg last evening and the meeting was a rouser. There was a large attendance and a great deal of enthusiasm was displayed. The Whitewater glee club was present and furnished some excellent music. The same squad went to Boston this afternoon.

There is a possibility of Miss E. Grace Updegraff's being secured for a revival at Eastham college at some time within the present season. In the case she should be secured there would be ample assurance of a liberal patronage on account of her reputation and of the favorable impression she made here at her appearance before the Musical club's patrons.

Quite a number of persons are not heeding the advice of the county political organizations, and are changing their residences at this late date before the election, thus losing their votes.

G. W. Hendricks, at present connected with the Railroad Store, will go soon to Riverside, California, where he has accepted a position with the Riverside Business College. Mr. Hendricks is fully qualified to succeed in whatever he may undertake in a business way, and has of late applied himself with flattering success to some modest literary work. He will be with his sister, Mrs. S. W. Gillilan, in his new location.

Earle E. Widup will address the Fourth Ward Republican club at the main street rink tonight on the issues of the day. This is Mr. Widup's first appearance before a Richmond audience. The writer has heard him and can conscientiously guarantee to all who attend that they will hear an excellent campaign speech that would do credit to any of the old wheel horse campaigners. The meeting is not for the fourth ward exclusively, but for any who desire to hear Mr. Widup make a political argument. There should be a good turnout of all who wish to hear a good speech, from one of Richmond's own young men.

A very large congregation greeted Rev. Dr. Severinghaus of Chicago, Ill., at St. Paul's Lutheran church last night to listen to his lecture on "Germany in History and Life," and to renew old acquaintances. About thirty-five years ago the doctor was pastor of this congregation and is well and favorably known by many of the people. In his lecture he gave a brief review of the rise, growth and progress of the German race up to the present united German empire. He showed the influence which the German people have exerted in the political, religious and commercial world. His lecture was replete with interesting facts and incidents and was greatly enjoyed by the people.

MR. FOULKE RETURNS

After a Successful Campaigning Tour Through the South—Bright Prospects of Gains.

William Dudley Foulke has returned to Indiana after an extensive tour through several of the southern states, where he has been speaking under the direction of the Republican national committee. To the Indianapolis News he said:

"I found the conditions in Louisiana remarkable," said Mr. Foulke, in discussing his trip. "The better class of people, including the sugar planters and the business men of New Orleans, are Republicans. There has been a new party, called the white Republicans, formed since the negro vote has been so largely eliminated. This party is fighting the Democratic machine, but under great difficulties, as the Democrats have control of the count. In one town I passed through—Kenner—there were actually thirty-four white voters at the last election, and yet the town returned a majority of 800 for the Democrat. The candidate, Mr. Brine, was elected, and on the whole, the men are threatened are immediately discharged if they go to a Republican meeting. The campaign is warred by the Democratic managers to dismiss such and such men, and it does so, otherwise the plant would be in great danger of destruction. For the coming election there is a registration of 2,200 in a town called Jefferson and the actual vote is hardly half that number."

In spite of these conditions the Republicans expect to elect one or two congressmen, and they believe that in another four years they can get control of the state.

Mr. Foulke says that the colored voters have no chance at all to exercise the right of franchise, as few of them can make out registration papers themselves.

Trading stamps given all cash purchases.

THE DEMOCRATS

Had a Great Meeting at the Phillips Last Night—Big Gains Are Reaped.

The Kern-Bailey and too-much-Johnson meeting at the Phillips last night was a "snorter" from a standpoint of attendance and Republican vote making. The speech of Kern was quite ordinary and about like the usual run of Democratic harangues. The speech of young Joe Bailey of Texas was above the ordinary, and was probably the best Democratic effort that has been made here this campaign.

Bailey is one of the most brilliant leaders of the southern Democracy and is an orator of more than average ability. Of course he threw "hot shots" into Mark Hanna, President McKinley, Congressman Watson and about everybody else who believes differently than he does, but mud-slinging and the like all goes with the supporters of Mr. Bryan and is one of the essentials toward making votes for the other side. The audience, composed largely of Republicans, swallowed everything with grace, made comparisons, and all in all enjoyed the humor of the situation just like spectators at a ten cent circus.

Gray McCabe.

The marriage of Mr. H. H. Gray of Indianapolis and Miss Ethel Tallant McCabe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. T. McCabe, and sister of Guy S. McCabe of this city, took place last night at Sewickley, Pa. The Rev. Alexander McCabe of Springfield, O., an uncle of the bride, performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. McCabe of this city were in attendance and the former acted as one of the ushers. Miss Alice Plummer and Miss Bessie Marvin, both of Columbus, were present and furnished some excellent music. The same squad went to Boston this afternoon.

There is a possibility of Miss E. Grace Updegraff's being secured for a revival at Eastham college at some time within the present season. In the case she should be secured there would be ample assurance of a liberal patronage on account of her reputation and of the favorable impression

THE MORMONS.

Mrs. Sarah J. Elliott of Salt Lake City Discourses Upon the Utah Missions.

The Synodical conference opened up last night with a splendid audience that filled the auditorium of the First Presbyterian church. The attendance was not confined to Presbyterians, but people of all religious creeds were present to hear the reports of the work of the missionary societies and to hear the address of Mrs. Sarah J. Elliott of Salt Lake City on the present conditions in that interesting place. Mrs. F. F. McCrea of Indianapolis, synodical secretary, read an interesting report, after the opening exercises, and Mrs. Elliott then gave her lecture. Every word of it was full of interest and information, and every word was listened to with the most careful attention by all present. Much of the address was a decided revelation to those who had never been in the queer state of Utah or know from personal observation and contact the conditions there. The speaker is eloquent and able.

The meeting was a very auspicious opening of the conference, and all things point to a most successful session.

The report of Mrs. McCrea showed a total of 189 societies, with 4,412 members. During the year $8,753.83 was raised. The presbyteries contributed as follows: Crawfordsville, $1,619.34; Fort Wayne, $1,076.11; Indianapolis, $1,089.97; Logansport, $1,112.32; Muncie, $750.08; New Albany, $821.71; Vincennes, $1,077.19; Whitewater, $996.71.

Mrs. Kendall of LaPorte, president of the Indiana Missionary society, presided last night.

At the close of the forenoon session today the following officers of the home department of the synodical missionary organization elected the following officers:

President—Mrs. J. B. Kendall, LaPorte.

Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. F. F. McCrea, Indianapolis.

Secretary Young People's Work—Mrs. J. E. Brown, Indianapolis.

The work of the foreign department began this afternoon, and will continue till tomorrow afternoon.

SUGGESTIONS

For Democratic Transparencies—A Citizen Who Observes the "Procession" Last Night Gives Points.

A man who watched the ghostly bugle corps of the Democracy last night, said this morning: "That there bugle corps of the Democrats last night had a banner or a transparency or something that had some word in it. I couldn't see the word, for it took the procession just fifteen seconds to pass a given point. I was so busy looking for the rest of it I didn't get time to read the inscriptions. But I know what they ought to put on 'em. They ought to have on one side: 'What is Home Without a Mor'rage,' on another, 'For that Tired Feeling, Vote to Lose Yer Job,' on another one, 'Guess What We'll do if Brine's Elected,' and on the other side, 'We'll put the Fall Dime bin under their true colors, anyhow, an' that's somethin' that seldom happens to one o' them Brinites.'"

MATINEE RACES.

A Fair Sized Crowd Had Lots of Fun Out of Yesterday's Sport.

A crowd of about two hundred persons witnessed yesterday's matinee races at the driving park and everybody seemed to enjoy themselves about as well as at the races during the fair week. The most exciting event of the afternoon was the race between Chat Lancaster and Jesse Schultz, the former driving Joe Brokamp's horse, L. M. Hare, and the latter his mare, Nellie Schultz. Nellie had no trouble in walking away with the honors in straight heats, and at no stage was there any great danger of Mrs. Brokamp's horse giving the mare much trouble. The first heat was a mile and the latter two were made in half miles.

Dr. Zimmerman, driving Lona Z. was easily beaten by Hal Foster, owned by Dave Whelan. In three straight heats, the best time being 2:17. The last heat was a genuine horse race, Hal finishing only about half a length ahead of Lona. Schultz was a surprise to some people who gave L. M. Hare credit for making a better showing than he did yesterday. Considerable money exchanged hands at the bookers of Schultz's mare are happy over her splendid performance. There may be another similar meeting some time next week, and an effort will be made to have several such meetings next summer, in which Richmond spectators will have a chance to make a showing.

If there is any one who believes the gold standard is a good thing, or that it should be maintained, I warn him not to cast his vote for me, because I promise him it will not be maintained in this country longer than I am able to get rid of it.—Hon. William Jennings Bryan, Knoxville, Tenn., Sept. 10, 1896.

ON TO GASTON.

The C. R. & M. Is Pushing on to Gaston With the Work of Grading.

Fifteen teamsters with their families and teams passed through Muncie Monday from Ohio to Gaston. They will work on the grade of the Cincinnati, Richmond & Muncie railroad. The families will camp along the road, moving toward Muncie as the work is completed.

Monday afternoon a man was in Muncie from Economy looking for laborers to be used on the grading of the road from that direction. He said teams and teamsters from Pennsylvania were on their way to Indiana to work on that end of the line.

BUNTIN VS. BAILEY.

Their Divergent Views About the Philippines—A Rhythmic Discourse.

Says little Willie Buntin Hale about the Philippines: They're educated, cultured folk, and know as much as we know, and they're civilized to boot. I tell you this so when you vote you'll know just how to cast it. The Filipino Islanders are wonders in their way; they ride their automobiles to college every day; they wear dress suits in day-time and they've all silk underwear; they wear four-ply collars and the latest cut of hair. The only thing we need of them is just to learn their ways, and get their views on everything—that's what Willie Buntin says.

But what says Josie Bailey from the land of Texas steers? Bill Buntin must have heard him with a burst of bitter tears. He says the Philippines are all cannibals and ghouls; he says they eat the preachers who go out to save their souls; he says they go stark naked, live on rats and cats and mice, and they're worse than any other of the heathen hordes on earth, and when we gave them freedom it was more than they were worth!

Now little Willie Buntin from New York and elsewhere, how felt your little gizzard that is weighted down with cares, when little Josie Bailey from the land of Texas steers strove your Pino idol that you'd bathed with loving tears? Hereafter when you strike a town to give your little screed, you'd best be real careful not to run in the lead of Buster Joe from Texas with his contradicting view about the Filipino folk that owe so much to you.

Lynched By His Own People. Vicksburg, Miss., Oct. 24.—Gloster Barnes (colored) was lynched by a mob of his own people in the northern part of this county. In a drunken fury Barnes murdered his wife, stabbed and badly wounded a negro who interfered and engaged in a rifle duel with a white man who attempted to arrest him.

Mysterious Postal Robbery. Vancouver, B. C., Oct. 24.—Postoffice Inspector Dorman has gone to Grand Forks to investigate a mysterious postal robbery. Two registered packages, one containing $1,000 from the Bank of Montreal, at Greenwood, and the other containing $2,000 from the same bank, and addressed to the Eastern township bank, were stolen on the same night.

"Ich kämpfe nicht für Männer, sondern für öffentliche Gerechtigkeit. Für eine gesunde Finanzpolitik habe ich Jahre lang gekämpft, weil sie für den Wohlstand des Landes notwendig ist. Ich möchte diese Gerechtigkeit bringen (dabei die rechte Hand zum Eidswur erheben), als da ich meine Stimme dagegen abgebe."

Die Finanzpolitik der republikanischen Partei war gut, aber der Nation, die Finanzpolitik der demokratischen Partei, wie es die Demokraten verurteilen.

In Geldsachen hört die Gemüthslosigkeit auf und auch bei meinen demokratischen Freunden, wenn sie in die Zäufel greifen und zahlen müssen. Ich würde für die demokratische Partei sein, wenn sie dem öffentlichen Wohl dienete, aber ich bin gegen sie, weil sie demselben schadet. Ich habe die demokratische Partei kennen gelernt, weil ich einmal im Abendzimmer geschlafen habe."
