The game of ball at the park next Sunday will be the last scheduled game of the season. It will have a big crowd, judging from the talk.

The foot ball games scheduled on the Earlham grounds are Miami University, Oct. 5; De Pauw University, Oct. 26; Franklin College, Nov. 16; Wabash college, Nov. 28.

Rev. C. E. Bacon, formerly of Richmond now of Indianapolis, has just reached home after a trip to England where he was sent as a delegate to the ecumenical congress.

The suit of the town of New Castle and various concerns there against the Richmond Natural Gas company, to enjoin the use of pumps, was yesterday sent to Fayette county on a change of venue.

The reunion of the 19th Indiana battery will be held at Knightstown on Tuesday and Wednesday next. The battery was organized at Cambridge City, mustered in August 20, 1862, and mustered out June 10, 1865.

The first car of supplies for the Starr Piano company went down their switch this morning and the switch will be used from now on. Frank Bescher made the trip with the freight in safety, though it made his hair a little lighter in color for some hours.

The three dogs belonging to Mrs. Coleman where they have a contagious disease were all shot today by Officer McManus under orders from the health office. Dogs and cats are able to carry contagious diseases in their hair and are destroyed under these circumstances.

The ways and means society of the Fifth Street M. E. church have elected the following officers: President, Mrs. J. P. Chamness; vice-president, Mrs. Lydia Hill; secretary, Mrs. Jennie Williams; executive committee, Mrs. J. W. Tingle, Mrs. Bescher, Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Phelps and Mrs. Ora Fisher.

Among those registered at the Arlington this morning were J. D. Kromer of Indianapolis, D. Wright and S. Doty of Dayton, E. M. Heator and J. C. Stanford of Bradford, Lewis Theisen and A. W. Caney, New York, W. H. Biles of Cincinnati, R. Martin and W. DeWitt of Chicago, E. C. Ewing, Middletown, Ind.

A plumber says that in their endeavor to save water which they take from the water company by meter there is a family in this city which uses the water over six times. The first time it is used without soap for washing the hands; next time to wash the dishes with; then to scrub the kitchen floor; then to scrub the back porch; and lastly what is left is used to sprinkle the grass.

One of the interesting points to be considered at the Episcopal convention at San Francisco and which is likely to be adopted is a ruling with regard to divorces. The report of the special committee, and which is expected to be adopted, is that no divorced persons shall be permitted to remarry in the Episcopal church. Heretofore the privilege of remarriage has been granted to the innocent party in a divorce suit granted on grounds of infidelity.

C. F. Crump of Greensfork is in the city today on business.

Constable Lytle was the guest of friends in Hamilton yesterday.

C., to be in attendance at the National Funeral Directors' association which meets there on Oct. 9, 10, 11. The will return home via New York and Buffalo and will be gone two weeks.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society met at the beautiful home of Mrs. Curtis, Richmond Ave. They found her veranda half hidden by the latest and brightest blooms of the summer and festoons of a vigorous coccia-scandens. The ladies are rejoicing in the success of the societies work. The music was appropriate and refreshments were served by the hostess and her daughter.

J. B. Craighead, wife and daughter, went to Greenville this morning to look over some decorations in the house of Ex-Judge Bickle there. Hahn, the decorator, who is doing the work at the Elks' club rooms, had that in the Bickle mansion and has it about completed. It is said to be as fine work as there is in Ohio in a home. The Craigheads wish to see it, with a view of having something in the same line in their new home if it pleases them.

Puls and Lane, promoters of the Schwab line, have been at Union City, and met the commercial club of that city. They propose to run a line there from Winchester, connecting with the line from Richmond to Portland and a line from Muncie to Winchester. The Daily Eagle adds: "Mr. Puls says that the line from Richmond to Portland will be built this year and if they can get the kind of treatment that they deserve, 'will throw dirt before the snow flies,' on the Union City and Winchester line."

Old People Have Their Troubles.

Mr. Francis Little of Benton Harbor, Mich., is over eighty years of age. Since 1865 he has been troubled more or less with indigestion and constipation and has tried almost everything in use for those ailments. Last August he began using Chamberlain's stomach and liver tablets and was soon feeling much better. In a recent letter he says, "I have used three boxes of the tablets and now think I am well." These tablets improve the appetite and invigorate the stomach, liver and bowels. For sale by W. H. Sudhoff and A. G. Luken & Co., druggists.

A SALE OF WARTS.

One Juvenile Transaction That Seemed to Confirm a Theory.

"This theory," said the traveling man, "that warts will go away when you stop thinking about them may have something in it, and I am inclined to have faith in it. I know from actual observation that warts can be transferred and will give you the case in point. 'I was buying a newspaper when I noticed that the hands of the newsboy were covered with warts. His stand was within a block of my house, but I am away so much the little fellow did not know me by name. I said to him: 'You should get some one to charm away those warts,' that being the method of getting rid of them when I was a boy. 'They ain't mine now,' he said. 'I sold them last week to Teddie Stearns, and they'll all go to him.' 'Now, Teddie Stearns is my own boy, and I did not like to think of his smooth, chubby hands being disfigured with warts, and we did not live in a wart atmosphere. They belong more exclusively to the barefoot boy with cheek of tan conditions. I had been such myself. When I went home, I called my boy to me and looked with some anxiety at his hands. They were as clean and white as a girl's. 'What is it, papa?' he asked curiously. 'I am looking for warts.' 'Oh,' and he drew a long, delighted breath, 'there ain't any yet, but they're sure to come, for I bought them from 'Carrotty Mike' for a pin. He says I'm sure to get 'em. Ain't you glad?' 'Glad! I could have cried, and I believe his mother did cry. But that blamed little cub said he wouldn't be a tenderfoot, and he would have warts. I read the riot act to him and went away for a month's trip, and when I came back he was as proud as Punch. His hands had grown a crop of warts that discounted anything I ever saw in that line. I hunted up 'Carrotty Mike,' and would you believe it, there wasn't a wart on his hands! He had transferred them all to my boy.'—Chicago Record-Herald.

CULLINGS FROM FICTION.

The man who knows a woman knows the world.—"A Summer Hymnal."

The people who help us most are those who make light of our achievements and have faith in our possibilities.—"Sir Christopher."

For things never come quite right in this world. The threads seem to slip out of our hands as we are going to tie the knot.—"Sister Teresa."

There's nothing like marrying a man if you want to know him better, only it limits your acquaintance with other people afterward, you know.—"A Little Gray Sheep."

But if you are looking for a wife, Carus, choose ye the woman ye would like to keep ye company through a month's rainy weather in the Isle of Mull.—"Cinderella."

What is the good of it? What will it bring her? No woman yet has possessed a wonderful head who did not pay for it at some time with her heart.—"A Woman Alone."

As a rule, the men whom men draw and the women whom women depict are nearer the truth, for it is a blessed law of nature that men and women shall view one another through the eyes of the imagination.—"A Point of Honor."

The Proofreader.

An anonymous writer in the American Printer of New York says:

"The ideal proofreader for a small printshop ought to be an accomplished printer, a sensible person, a person understanding the scope and limitations of the English language, one comprehending the true offices of punctuation, one with a keen and true appreciation of literature, a storehouse of exact knowledge, a perfect grammarian, a perfect speller and with a fund of humor sufficient to enable him to do his whole duty along these various lines without making for an early grave. If he does not really know everything, he ought assuredly to be able to scent out an error and to know how to get at the truth. If he reads the proofs for a weekly newspaper also, he ought to know all about local affairs and all about the town or city in order to prevent the reported marriage of the girl who merely acted as bridesmaid and untangle the mixed topography of the reporters' articles."
