

DR. BURROUGHS DEAD
Former President of Wabash College
Passes Away.

Crawfordsville, Ind., Oct. 24.—Word has come here of the death of Rev. George Stockton Burroughs, D. D., president of Wabash college from 1892 to 1899, who died Tuesday night at Clifton Springs, N. Y. The funeral will occur this afternoon at Fairfield, Conn. Some time ago Dr. Burroughs fell and broke one of his arms, and just as he had recovered from this loss he had the other arm broken by the porter of a railroad train, who was endeavoring to assist him on a train.

He had a cancerous affection of the bone, and suffered terribly before his death. Dr. Burroughs, at the time of his death, was professor of Old Testament literature in Oberlin college.

Indiana at Shiloh.

Indianapolis, Oct. 24.—The character of the monuments to be erected on the Shiloh battlefield in honor of the Indiana regiments and batteries that participated in the fight, will be determined this week by the Shiloh Battlefield Monument commission, which met yesterday at the statehouse. It is expected when the monuments are turned over to the National Shiloh park commission and there will be ceremonies similar to those at the unveiling of the Indiana monuments on the Chickamauga battleground a few years ago.

Indicted for Murder.

Washington, Ind., Oct. 24.—The grand jury has returned an indictment of murder in the second degree against Frank Purcell, who was arrested last August on the charge of killing his wife. The first charge was manslaughter and was preferred by Purcell's 14-year-old son. The death of Mrs. Purcell created a sensation, as it occurred on the eve of her daughter's marriage to Noah Sutherland, a prominent young farmer.

Second Trial Successful.

Anderson, Ind., Oct. 24.—Lee Sloan committed suicide at his home in North Anderson. He was about 28 years old and was married. Sloan had been employed at the tin plate works for two years. He had talked of suicide and took poison once before, but gave the alarm and was saved. Yesterday he drank nearly two ounces of carbolic acid.

Will Appeal the Case.

Richmond, Ind., Oct. 24.—Prosecutor Bond will appeal the Seifert case to the supreme court, in the hope that Judge Smith's decision will be reversed. The judge held that Joseph Seifert was not criminally responsible for the death of Miss Arletta Dwiggin, who died in using an instrument procured by Seifert.

Fire in Big Hotel.

French Lick, Ind., Oct. 24.—The French Lick hotel suffered a $8,000 fire loss Wednesday, the fire starting in the mineral bath room. Defective piping is supposed to have been responsible. There were about 250 guests in the hotel, but all escaped.

Sympathy of Rank and File.

London, Oct. 24.—The storm of comment and discussion regarding the dismissal of General Buller shows no diminution. It is asserted that there has been a very strong feeling of animosity between Lord Roberts and General Buller ever since the capture of Pretoria, but for a week the former had vainly endeavored to persuade the latter of the advisability of resigning. The matter has unusually excited military men, the rank and file having very strong sympathy with the dismissed commander.

Want to Keep an Eye On Him.

Pekin, Oct. 24.—There is strong opposition among conservative Chinese officials to Wu Ting Fang, Chinese minister at Washington, retaining a foreign mission. Those who take this view consider that his popularity abroad is a proof that he is not sufficiently loyal to the interests of China. It is probable that he will be recalled and given a position on the new board of foreign affairs, where his linguistic and legal attainments may be utilized under the eye of the government.

Rough Rider's Appointment.

Guthrie, O. T., Oct. 24.—Charles E. Johnson, whose appointment as custodian of the Oklahoma reserve of 58,000 acres is announced, lives at Perry. Johnson was a "Rough Rider" and served as Roosevelt's personal messenger in the Cuban campaign.

THE FINAL FUNCTION

Yale Celebration Winds Up in a Reception and Banquet.

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 24.—The final official function of the Yale bicentennial began at 5 o'clock last evening. The affair was scheduled as a farewell reception by President and Mrs. Hadley, but the presence of the president of the United States, upon whom yesterday was conferred the honorary degree of LL.D., and who assisted President and Mrs. Hadley in receiving, lent a far greater impressiveness to the occasion. Although there was no public announcement that President Roosevelt would be present, a rumor of his coming had been spread among the crowd and a big squad of policemen had some difficulty in restraining them at the entrance.

The reception was held in the great dining hall or commons owned by the university corporation. The building is one of the new bi-centennial structures. The purpose was to admit only those wearing badges. These numbered several thousand and a great number of the general uninvited public also managed to gain entrance. Particularly noticeable was the extreme caution, not only of the officers, but of those having the affair in charge, for the adequate protection of the president.

The most unique and original feature of the reception was the fact that there was no handshaking. The suggestion to eliminate this old time custom originated with President and Mrs. Hadley, and was readily adopted by the president, after consultation with Secretary Cortleyou. It is estimated that 5,000 persons attended the reception. At its conclusion the president returned to the Farnam residence, where dinner was served at 7:30. Following the banquet a final reception, given at 9 o'clock, was given at the Farnam residence, to a limited number of invited guests.

At 10:45 o'clock the president re-entered his carriage and again escorted by the mounted police, was driven to the station. The president's car was attached to a Washington special, which departed for the capitol at 11 o'clock.

REDMOND'S MISSION
In the Cause of United Ireland He Will Come to America.

Cork, Oct. 24.—John Redmond, M. P., in the course of the general reply which he made here to the numerous addresses presented to him previous to his departure to the United States, laid particular stress on his contention that his mission to America could be taken as a proof that the reunion which had occurred in Ireland had also occurred in the United States, and that England hereafter would have to fight the world wide Irish race of 20,000,000, "whose action is only limited to one consideration, namely, that all means were honorable and legal."
