

TURKEY ACCedes

Display of Force on the Part of France Brings Abdul to Terms.

THE INCIDENT CLOSED

M. Constant Will Now Return to Constantinople and Resume His Former Diplomatic Post.

The Sultan of Turkey Agrees to All the Demands Made by French Government.

Paris, Nov. 11.—Upon receipt of official notice that the sultan had signed an order for the execution of his engagements with the French government, the foreign office announced Sunday that the Franco-Turkish dispute is now at an end. M. Delcasse, minister of foreign affairs, has informed the porte that France will resume diplomatic relations with Turkey and that Admiral Caillaud's division of the French Mediterranean squadron has been ordered to leave Mitylene. It is understood that M. Constant will soon return to Constantinople.

Tewfik Pacha, Ottoman minister of foreign affairs, wrote a letter to M. Bapst, councillor of the French embassy in Constantinople, notifying him of the signing of the trade, which while settling the original French demands, accepts the fresh demands, together with an additional clause by which the sultan pledges himself to consider as authorized in full right the foundations, extensions, constructions and repairs of the schools and religious and hospitable establishments which France may desire to carry out if the porte is advised of her intentions and makes no objection within five months. France has thus far received full satisfaction, and M. Delcasse on the receipt of M. Bapst's dispatch Sunday, telegraphed him to inform Tewfik Pacha that diplomatic relations had been resumed and that M. Bapst should consider himself as regularly charged with the affairs of the embassy.

The Temps, which describes the results as a "brilliant victory for French diplomacy," says: "The great merit of the government was in being able to restrict its action. Very serious difficulties might have arisen had France departed from her reserve. The favorable disposition shown to our representations abroad has been due to the fact that the civilized world has had opportunity during the last seven years to observe the progress of the anti-European movement in the sultan's councils. Frenchmen, Americans, Austrians, Italians and Britons have all been victimized by the sultan and his councillors. After the Armenian massacre and the successful war with Greece, they thought everything was permitted to them. We hope the sultan will now understand his duties toward the civilized powers and toward his own subjects, unto whom he has taken solemn engagements which he has always disregarded. Otherwise Europe, which, thanks to the energetic action of France, is now able to resume at Constantinople the authority she lost seven years ago, will applaud the initiative which the signatory powers of the Berlin treaty are reported to be about to take to extort from the sultan an execution of clauses too long fallen into disuse."

In True Chicago Style.

Chicago, Nov. 11.—Two masked men entered a lodging house at 383 South Clark street Sunday evening, and with revolvers intimidated the hotel clerk and 15 guests seated about the office. They then emptied the cash drawer, which contained only about $10 and then escaped, leaving no clue to their identity.

Town's Serious Loss.

Butte, Neb., Nov. 11.—Fire supposed to have been of incendiary origin destroyed nearly the entire business portion of the town. Not a hotel or restaurant remains, and 10 business places in all were burned. The loss is about $30,000, one-third of which is covered by insurance.

Election Riots.

Barcelona, Nov. 11.—The municipal elections here Sunday were attended by bloodshed and excitement. Revolver shots were exchanged and one person was killed and 40 others were wounded.

MRS. STONE'S CASE

Difficulties Still Lie in the Way of Her Release.

Sofia, Bulgaria, Nov. 11.—Information has been received here from Doubnitsa that the band of brigands holding captive Miss Ellen M. Stone, the American missionary, called about a fortnight ago at the village of Smetchevo and subsequently proceeded to the monastery of Rilo, but the movements of the troops compelled the brigands to flee toward the frontier, where they are now in hiding. It is also asserted that the brigands have recently been treating Miss Stone with more severity in order to exercise pressure and to compel a more ready acceptance of their conditions.

Consul General Dickinson is inflexible. He insists that the surrender of Miss Stone must precede or be simultaneous with the payment of the ransom. His attitude is justified by the known determination of some members of the band, particularly the captain, Yanne Sandansky, to kill Miss Stone and her companion as soon as the ransom is received, owing to the fact that the captives have now acquired information concerning the secret committees. Competent persons, however, express the opinion that the cupidity of the brigands will overcome their fear of revelations, and all such approve the declaration of Mr. Dickinson. Mr. Dickinson has made energetic representations to the Bulgarian government against the movements of the Bulgarian troops, reproaching the officials with the fact that notwithstanding their solemn promises to give him all assistance in their power, their action was embarrassing the negotiations, retarding a settlement and placing in jeopardy the life of Miss Stone. He made a definite declaration that the Bulgarian government would be held responsible for the death of Miss Stone and of all the consequences of her death, should it be proved that the attitude of the Bulgarian government forced the brigands to kill their captives.

Robbed the Paymaster.

Pensacola, Fla., Nov. 11.—Paymaster Stevens of the United States army arrived from Atlanta Saturday and before leaving that city placed in a hand satchel 200 silver dollars and $4,800 in paper money for the purpose of paying the several hundred artillerists at Forts Barancas and McRea their salaries for the past month.

When he reached the fort here he opened his grip and found all the paper money had been abstracted. The 200 silver dollars remained. Amazement and surprise followed the discovery, and the news soon spread, becoming known here about midnight. The police were instructed to watch out for the treasure. Paymaster Stevens thinks some professional pickpocket followed him and relieved him during the trip. He cannot recall a single incident of the trip that would lead to anything on the robbery, but has an idea the money was taken before he left Atlanta.

Cheeky Outlaws Escape.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 11.—Sheriff Cook of this county and Deputy Sheriff Williams were captured by two escaped convicts from the Fort Leavenworth military prison Sunday afternoon at Pauline, five miles south of Topeka, and held prisoners in the farmhouse of a man named Wooster for several hours. The convicts finally escaped between a line of police sent from Topeka to reinforce the sheriff, and are now at large. Both were slightly wounded. Wooster was badly wounded by one of the convicts when he tried to fire on them. Mrs. Wooster and Sheriff Cook were held before the convicts as a shield by the prisoners in making their escape. The convicts are well armed, having taken all the guns in the farmhouse, including those of the sheriff and his deputy. They are both white men, but their identity was not learned.

More Vigorous Measures.

London, Nov. 11.—It is understood that Major General Ian Hamilton, who sailed Saturday for South Africa to act as Lord Kitchener's chief of staff, takes a plan prepared in London for a more vigorous campaign with a view of ending the war before the coronation festivities begin. It is said that General Hamilton's appointment is part of a plan arranged after the king's return from the continent about six weeks ago. Unless Lord Kitchener should decline to be complaisant, the new scheme is likely to develop about the beginning of the year.

A Patriotic Village.

Tower, Minn., Nov. 11.—To this village belongs the honor of having erected the first monument in honor of William McKinley. Thousands of people from all over the state and the entire Northwest were on hand at the unveiling Sunday. When the monument was unveiled all the bands that Tower and surrounding country could muster played together "Nearer My God to Thee." The chief speaker was Governor Van Sant.

Revives Old Memories.

Valley City, N. D., Nov. 11.—While a bus was on its way to North Valley City Sunday night it was held up by masked men, and of the 17 passengers aboard the vehicle, about half of them lost money and other valuables, the amount secured being about $400. The robbers after they had secured their booty escaped.

Escape Shaft Burned.

Spring Valley, Ills., Nov. 11.—The escape shaft to No. 1 mine burned down Saturday night, causing a loss of $10,000 to the Spring Valley Coal company. There were 30 miners at work below, but they escaped. Seven hundred men are thrown out of work.

COLDS

The quickest relief, for a cold, is by Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil.

We all have colds, you can try it and see. You will find the edge taken off in a night and, in three or four days you'll be wondering whether that cold amounted to anything anyhow.

That's relief. If you take it quick, the relief is quick and complete, if you wait till the cold is in full possession of head and lung, why, of course the relief is quick if it comes in a week.

A little emulsion won't clear and restore your whole breathing-machine in a minute; don't be looking for miracles.

We'll send you a little to try, if you like.

THE SATISFACTION IN TRAVELING ALONE

"Oh, the pleasure of eating alone," wrote Charles Lamb in one of his most expansive letters. We are not quite sure how serious he was in the exclamation. But change "eating" into "traveling," and there may be found thousands who will echo the cry. Thackeray thought there was nothing to equal it. Louis Stevenson, in the Cevennes, made the same discovery, for his donkey cannot be said to count.

Jean Paul Richter, though he did not live in touring times, was too accomplished an individualist (of the sentimental kind) not to harp on this musical string. "I hold the constant regard that we pay in aid our actions to the judgment of others as the poison of our peace, our reason and our virtue." Translated into plainer speech, Richter's words may read thus, "Unless you can have your own way life is but a poison ed puddle."

Curzon, Stanley, De Windt, Miss Kingsley, Landor and a host of smaller men and women have acted on the same assumption. And as in larger travel, better known as exploration, so also in the less stately yet more pleasurable "trips" of common life. After a full purse there is nothing so good for the vagrant as a free hand.—C. Edwards in Speaker.

When Children Smoked.

Jorevin de Rochefort, who published in Paris in 1671 an account of his travels in England, tells the following: "While we were walking about the town (Worcester) he asked me if it was the custom in France as in England that when the children went to school they carried in their satchel with their books a pipe of tobacco, which their mothers took care to fill early in the morning, it serving them instead of breakfast, and that at the accustomed hour every one laid aside his book to light his pipe, the master smoking with them and teaching them how to hold their pipes and draw in the tobacco."

In England at the time of the great plague it was reported that no one living in a tobacconist's house fell sick of the disease. This caused a great demand for tobacco. Hearne says in his diary, "I remember that I heard formerly Tom Rogers, who was yeoman beadle, say that when he was a schoolboy at Eton that year when the plague raged all the boys of that school were obliged to smoke every morning and that he was never whipped so much in his life as he was one morning for not smoking."

A Garden of Milk.

The Milk garden of Frankfort, reserved for the children of that aristocratic city, is in itself one of the most democratic of places. Here rich people who wish to be relieved for a time of the presence of their children send them, accompanied by their nurses. Here also poor people who can neither afford to devote their own time to their children nor hire separate nurses for them may bring their little ones, certain that from the garden nurses they will receive all the care and attention necessary to safety, health and amusement.

Private nurses of the rich people and public nurses of the working people are subject to a supervision sufficient to protect the children of all classes from cruelty and neglect. The only food furnished in the garden is milk, whose freshness and purity are assured, inasmuch as it is drunk warm from the milked cows which occupy stalls on one edge of the field.

Sleepy Grass.

Sleepy grass is found in New Mexico, Texas and Siberia. It has a most injurious effect on horses and sheep, causing a strong narcotic or sedative and causing profound sleep or stupor lasting twenty-four to forty-eight hours. A horse after eating it is a pitiable object, its head and tail drooping, its body quivering and sweat pouring down its sides.

Reasons For His Belief.

"Do you think, young man," he said, "that you will be able to take care of my daughter Flora in the style to which she has been accustomed?" "I think so, sir," answered the young man confidently. "She refused to go to the concert with me last week because she said she had 'nothing to wear,'"—London Sun.

Spring Valley, Ills., Nov. 11.—The escape shaft to No. 1 mine burned down Saturday night, causing a loss of $10,000 to the Spring Valley Coal company. There were 30 miners at work below, but they escaped. Seven hundred men are thrown out of work.

CLAIM MADE BY AN INSURANCE COMPANY OF SUSPECTED FRAUD

Little Rock, Ark., Nov. 11.—The corpse sent here from Jeffersonville, Ind., as that of Newell C. Rathbun of this city, United States recruiting officer here, who was reported to have died in a Jeffersonville hotel a few days ago, is not the body of Rathbun, is the claim made here by Sam M. Powell, state manager of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company. The body was to have been buried in Oakwood cemetery Sunday afternoon.

In his statement the insurance official is supported by Dr. C. Jennings, the company's examining physician; E. P. Sisk, who placed one-half of the insurance on Rathbun, and by Mrs. J. C. Watkins of the Grand Central hotel, with whom Rathbun boarded up to the time of his marriage a short time since, and by others. Mr. Powell requested the undertaker to postpone the funeral until this afternoon, and Sunday afternoon placed information of his alleged discovery in possession of the authorities.

HOW THE MAN DIED.

Jeffersonville, Ind., Nov. 11.—Two men who registered as William Ten Eyke of Watertown, N. Y., and Newell C. Rathbun registered at the Falls City hotel here last Wednesday. On Thursday the men who registered as Rathbun was found dead in his bed. The coroner's examination revealed laudanum in the dead man's stomach sufficient to have killed two men. The man who registered as William Ten Eyke had left the hotel when the dead body of the other man was found. A letter was received Saturday by Deputy Coroner Coots from Ten Eyke. He wrote on plain paper and failed to give his address in Louisville, from which city the letter is supposed to have been written. Ten Eyke stated that he met Rathbun in Little Rock and was befriended by him. Meeting him in Louisville and noticing that Rathbun was in distress, he took him to Jeffersonville, gave him a coat and vest, paid his hotel bill and Wednesday night accompanied him to Louisville and the two had a time. The supposed Rathbun was helplessly intoxicated, it is said, when he returned to the hotel Wednesday night. Deputy Coroner Coots wants to find Ten Eyke, but has not been able to do so. The man who registered as Rathbun was very shabbily dressed. Neither of the men was known to anyone at the hotel.

KILLED IN A CHURCH.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Nov. 11.—At a colored church near Hopkinsville Sunday morning during service, Henry Davies quarreled with Abe Allen, with whom he was occupying the same pew. Davies shot at Allen with his pistol. The bullet missed Allen but pierced the heart of Jerry Wilson on the opposite side of the church and killed him instantly. Davies was arrested.

ONE TO GASOLINE.

Minonk, Ills., Nov. 11.—In a fire which destroyed the home of Joseph Tomashiski, a Polish miner, on Sunday, his 13-year-old daughter and 11-year-old son burned to death. The father and another son, aged 7 years, were seriously but not fatally burned. The fire followed an attempt on the part of an older daughter to start a fire with gasoline.

MADE A CONFESSION.

St. Louis, Nov. 11.—John Callahan, who was arrested in the Union Iron foundry after an attempt to hold up the night watchman, has confessed to Chief of Detectives Desmond that he was one of the three men who robbed a bank at Turon, Reino county, Kan., in October, 1899. Callahan says his home is in Cleveland.

FOUND HIM GUILTY.

Wausau, Wis., Nov. 11.—The jury in the Swantes murder case, after being out all night, Sunday morning brought in a verdict of guilty. The convicted man, a young farmer, was charged with setting fire to the home of an aged couple named Klokow, thus causing their death.
