

LOCAL ENTHUSIASM

On One Subject Richmond People Grow Enthusiastic.

The increase of popular enthusiasm on the following subject is almost daily manifested by public expression and local endorsement. Read that this citizen says and discover the cause of the constant showering of praise which follows in the wake of Doan's Kidney Pills.

Mrs. Jennie Ludwig, 16 south eleventh street, says: "As a result of a severe attack of diphtheria my daughter was troubled with a weakness of the kidneys. I tried numerous remedies and was treated by various remedies but the relief was only temporary. Learning about Doan's Kidney Pills and seeing them so highly recommended I procured a box at A. G. Luken's drug store and she began their use. In a short time the trouble entirely disappeared. After several weeks it again began to appear. She used Doan's Kidney Pills and the attack was promptly warded off."

For sale by all dealers, price 50 cents per box. Foster-Milburn Co. Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no substitute.

FOR THE HOUSEWIFE

Furnishing Dining Rooms.

Don't have an overmantel of looking glass with little wooden brackets and pillars at the sides. It has a dingy appearance, and mirrors seem to be somewhat out of keeping in a dining room.

A pretty engraving in a plain deal frame stained to represent the same wood as the furniture is in far better taste and not nearly so expensive, considering that really artistic engravings of good pictures can be bought so cheap.

A still cheaper method is to have a valance of stamped velvet or some oriental tapestry gathered to a little rod which shall be fixed to the wall about two feet above the mantel board, and just above the valance there should be a stained deal shelf to hold pottery.

Don't have only linoleum on the floor. It has such a chilly effect.

Don't have a medley of colors in a dining room, and let those which you decide upon be deep and rich in tone. The reds, blues and greens of the old fashioned Turkey carpets give the three best shades to work with, taking one or at least two for a room.

In a small room wall paper, curtains and tablecloths should be of the same color, and the carpet should either be a darker tone of the same or of oriental design.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Christmas Doughnuts.

A necessity of the colonial Christmas table was a generous plate of raised doughnuts. A formula for these which is contributed by a famous New England housekeeper is as follows: One cupful of sugar, four or five eggs, nutmeg and a pinch of salt. Warm together the milk and lard, then add the yeast, stir in flour enough to make a batter and let it stand over night; then add the other ingredients. Knead soft and let it rise again; then roll out and let rise before frying. Sprinkle with sugar and spread, not pile, on a platter over which a napkin has first been laid.—Harper's Bazar.

A Dainty Holder.

An especially dainty curling iron holder is shown in the illustration. This is made from buff linen drawn smoothly over a shaped cardboard. A ribbon across the back affords a place in which to slip the iron. The front

FOR THE CURLING IRON.

Is embroidered with dainty colors, blue delicate green, and a touch here and there of black to give character to the whole. The baby ribbon, made into full rosettes at the sides and at the top where it is hung, is of old rose. The combination of colors is soft and artistic.—Housekeeper.

A Firm Paste.

Take a tablespoonful of dry flour and half a teaspoonful of powdered alum, mix slowly with half a teaspoonful of cold water, set on the back of the stove and pour into it another tablespoonful or two of boiling water; stir briskly and cook but a short time. Pour into a wide mouthed bottle while warm and use a wooden paddle to take it out with. The paste may be perfumed and will keep indefinitely. I used this to fasten hanging cords on celluloid picture frames, putting a square piece of stiff white paper over each end of the cord, and it holds as firmly as would a screw on a wooden frame.

Everything For Use.

That dear old lady, Julia Ward Howe, bids the young housekeeper to have nothing for show. She says in Good Housekeeping: "Let your rooms look as if they were lived in. Provide convenient cases for your books, comfortable chairs to sit in, tables or desks at which one can write with comfort, pleasant pictures or engravings to look at. Do not envy the melancholy splendor of superfluous apartments rarely opened and full of ghostly shadows. The time and money expended in the care of these possessions are out of all proportion to any pleasure that can be derived from them."

Dyed Carpets.

It is not generally known that carpets can be successfully dyed and thus enter into new life. Almost any style of weave can be so treated; but, of course, ingrain must have no cotton thread on the surface. It is best always to select for the new color something quiet in both color and tone. A dead leaf brown is excellent, while an olive green or dull red is almost as good. Of course the dyed carpet must be a solid color, and this is why only the quietest shades should be chosen.

The SPORTING WORLD

Promising Young Jockeys.

Two young jockeys are well fixed for next year, and their marked success in salary getting will doubtless excite many more youngsters to take to the saddle for a livelihood. Wonderfully and Redfern, the two youngsters who performed splendidly the last season, are the lucky ones, and if they continue in the way they have begun but a few years will elapse before they have bank accounts equal to Ted Sloane, Lester Reiff and Danny Maher.

Redfern has signed with John E. Madden's stable for a term of two years. He is to receive $15,000 for that period, $8,000 for the first year and $10,000 for the second. Redfern is but seventeen years old.

J. B. Haggin, the multimillionaire owner and breeder of thoroughbreds, has signed Jockey Wonderly, who is only sixteen years old, to ride for him next year at a salary of $15,000. Mr. Haggin receives second call on the boy's services. J. H. Carr, owner of a good string of thoroughbreds, developed him and holds the claim to first call. The $15,000 which Wonderly receives for second call is greater than any salary heretofore paid to a jockey for similar services in either England or America.

International Six Day Races.

The great international six day race at Madison Square Garden, New York, will begin Dec. 9. The teams that left Europe to come here in quest of honors and American gold are as follows: Gougoltz and Simar, France; Chevalier and Fisher, Switzerland; Muller and Le Poutre, De Roeck and Kerff, Belgium, and Frederick and Jaak, Germany.

The contingent of continental cyclists is the most formidable that has ever taken part in Gotham's great annual cycle race, and Yankee speed and grit will be tested to their utmost to prevent one of the foreign teams capturing the laurels in this year's race.

Some of the pedalers who sailed are already well known on this side. Gougoltz and Simar, it will be remembered, were only a lap behind the winners last year and furnished considerable excitement throughout the week by their remarkable sprinting in an endeavor to shake off their fast flying opponents. Fisher and Chevalier, the Swiss pair, took part in the 1899 race and created the sensation of the week by stealing the lion's share of the race that were gained in that fashion by furious, well timed spurts that killed off one after the other of the opposing riders. Muller rode here before, but was handicapped by a poor partner. This year he has as mate one of the best distance men abroad. Le Poutre is no stranger to the six day grind either, having on several occasions astounded Europe by his wonderful stamina. Frederick, who has also frequently ridden in this country, is likewise better equipped with a partner than he has ever been before. De Roeck and Kerff will wear the Belgian colors in the coming battle on wheels. They have earned an excellent reputation on the other side and are said by McFarland to be a dangerous team.

New Jersey Game Laws.

Much has been said concerning the new game laws of New Jersey, which prohibit dogs from running loose in the gamefields, forbidding the removal of game from the state and the tracking of rabbits and quails in the snow, but most of the sportsmen agree that the right move was made for the preservation of the game during the close season and for the protection of game from pot hunters during the open season. Quails are more plentiful in New Jersey than for a number of years. Not many were killed last year, and most of the birds survived the winter season. Many sections have quails in sufficient number to furnish good sport.

Baseball Echoes.

Manager Hanlon claims that Pitcher McGinity wants to return to him and that Scott would gladly go back to Cincinnati.

Harry Wolverton and Jack Barry are going into the tailoring business in Philadelphia. Of course they'll try to suit their friends.

Catcher Joe Sugden will not be with Comiskey next season. It is said that he has signed a contract to play with the Perfectos.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition, beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.

Home of Swamp-Root. Write for it. The request was complied with, and it proved to be a call upon "Tute's" services as a white-washer and cleaner of cellars. "Why," "Tute" said the man, "this is very plainly written, and you surely ought to be able to read this yourself, for I have frequently seen you reading the papers." "Well, that just," replied "Tute." "Ye see, I can't read writin' readin', but I kin read readin' readin'."

This peculiar explanation revealed that "Tute" could manage to read print, but was unable to read writing.

Reading Passion.

"Wasn't it remarkable, the way that speckled little soldier rushed forward and captured that gigantic Filipino holoman single-handed? I never saw anything braver in my life."

"That wasn't bravery. That was devotion to science. He was afraid the other soldiers would kill the fellow and he wanted to make a study of him. He used to be a professor of anthropology in Boston."

All British newspapers combined had a circulation of 60,000 in 1801. Their present circulation is estimated at 8,500,000 a day.

Distinctive "Reading."

An aged colored man, who is well known to some of the attaches of the city hall, for whom he frequently does odd jobs at their homes, is familiarly called by the sobriquet of "Tute." One day "Tute" asked one of his many employers if he would kindly read a note for him. The request was complied with, and it proved to be a call upon "Tute's" services as a white-washer and cleaner of cellars. "Why," "Tute" said the man, "this is very plainly written, and you surely ought to be able to read this yourself, for I have frequently seen you reading the papers." "Well, that just," replied "Tute." "Ye see, I can't read writin' readin', but I kin read readin' readin'."
