

HIGHLY DRAMATIC

Was the Senate Scene Between the South Carolina Senators.

BITTER CONTROVERSY

Which Raged Between the Two Men Last Spring Is Renewed On Uncle Sam's Time.

Tillman Challenged McLaurin to Resign But the Latter Didn't Hear Him.

Washington, Dec. 10.—A highly dramatic episode stirred the somber old senate chamber yesterday when Senator Tillman of South Carolina challenged his colleague, Senator McLaurin, to resign with him on the spot in order, to use his own language, that they might be able to "wash their dirty linen at home." Mr. McLaurin did not take up the gage. The incident was the direct sequel of the very bitter controversy which arose between the senators from South Carolina last spring. Mr. McLaurin arose to a question of personal privilege and proceeded to explain what he charged was a conspiracy to discredit him in his own state for acts and views which did not meet the approval of certain Democratic leaders. He declared that he was being humiliated, and, according to public prints, was to be excluded from the Democratic caucus because he had acted upon certain public issues in a way which he considered was for the best interests of the country and the people of his state. He announced himself a believer in the old Democracy, and after denouncing the new Democracy leaders, who, he said, had brought destruction upon the party, declared that he could not be driven from his old allegiance into a party with which he did not care to affiliate.

Senator Jones, chairman of the Democratic national committee, denied that he had any "ulterior motives" in not inviting Mr. McLaurin to enter the caucus. Mr. Tillman reviewed the whole controversy. Mr. Hoar took occasion to express the opinion that it was very doubtful whether both the South Carolina seats in the senate were not in reality vacant. He contended that when the resignations were offered last spring to the governor they could not be withdrawn thereafter, having become immediately operative. The climax came when Senator Tillman challenged Mr. McLaurin to join with him in preparing their joint resignations and handing them to the presiding officer of the senate. This challenge Mr. McLaurin did not accept, and the episode was brought to an abrupt close by Senator Lodge moving an executive session.

Lonely Isle Wanted.
Washington, Dec. 10.—Senator Hoar has introduced the following resolution in the senate: "That the president be requested if he shall deem it practicable, to enter into negotiations with other civilized countries to the end that a convention may be made in accordance with the terms of which some island, or, if that cannot be done, some other suitable territory, may be set apart to which under due precautions and after fair and proper trial persons found guilty of attempting or instigating or counselling the overthrow of all governments or of criminal attempts upon the life of chief magistrates or high officials of such government, may be transported and to which they may be confined."

Sacred Spot Marked.
Buffalo, Dec. 10.—A bronze tablet now marks the spot where the body of the late President McKinley lay in state in this city in the lower corridor of the city hall. The inscription on it is as follows:

HERE LAY IN STATE THE BODY OF WILLIAM MCKINLEY, PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES, SEPTEMBER 15, 1901.

Forty-five stars form the border of the tablet, and the letters are cut into the bronze to the depth of three-sixths of an inch.

He Claims Self Defense.
White River Junction, Vt., Dec. 10.—The endeavor of S. D. Waite to escape danger which he alleged was threatened by a crowd at a hotel here Sunday night, has resulted in the death of E. T. Gosher from a bullet wound in the abdomen. Waite himself is in jail at Woodstock, pending a hearing on the charge of murder. It is alleged that Waite is employed by New Hampshire prohibitionists to obtain evidence in liquor cases, and that his methods had become unpopular. Waite says that a crowd gathered on the hotel piazza apparently hostile to him. One person, he says, struck him, and in self-defense he drew a revolver and fired.

Accidental Poisoning.
New York, Dec. 10.—The coroner's inquiry into the death of Emeline Dale, the child of Elizabeth Howe Dale, was held in Hoboken last night and resulted in a verdict of accidental death from poisoning.

THEY ARE AGITATED

Russian's Attitude Gives German Politicians a Chill.

Berlin, Dec. 10.—The statement of the Russian minister of finance, M. De Witte, that the German tariff bill when boiled down means: "You strike my agriculture and I will hit your industry," has naturally caused a stir among German politicians. The German opponents of the tariff bill utilize the opportunity given by M. De Witte's utterance to urge that this bill is a measure of selfishness which if inflexibly pursued, will inevitably lead to trade isolation and ruin. Those who support the government in this matter and especially the great ministerial organs, aver that M. De Witte simply sets forth the right of Russia to reconstruct her own tariff, and point out that this present declaration is in reality more moderate than the one of last August; that it indicates no recent change in the position of the Russian government, and that consequently nothing in these utterances can come as a surprise to the German government or cause changes in its policy which was determined upon after careful study and an adequate consideration of all the elements in the situation, abroad as well as at home.

Addition of Gifts.
San Francisco, Dec. 10.—Mrs. Jane L. Stanford yesterday executed and delivered to the board of trustees of the Leland Stanford Jr. University two deeds of grant and one deed of gift. One of the deeds of grant covers all of the real estate heretofore given to the university, including the university campus of about 9,000 acres. The other deed of grant covers the Stanford residence upon California street, which eventually is to be used for educational purposes. The deed of gift covers bonds and stocks heretofore given, and certain securities not included in former gifts. Mrs. Stanford has now given the equivalent of over $25,000,000 to the Leland Stanford Jr. university.

After the Outlaws.
Cheyenne, Wyo., Dec. 10.—It is reported that six members of what is known as the Curry gang of outlaws, who it is said had planned to hold up a Union Pacific train during the transfer of convicts from Laramie to Rawlins and liberate Bob Lee, alias Curry, and other members of the gang that are serving time in the state penitentiary, have been trailed to Big Horn county, and that a posse of officers is now pursuing them. The outlaws are headed for Montana, mounted on fast horses, and are well armed.

Train of Accidents.
Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 10.—W. J. Smith, a farmer of Palmetto, Ga., was run over and killed near this city late yesterday afternoon by a trolley car on a suburban line. His body was entirely severed, and the car left the track and ran for 100 yards. A relief car which was sent out collided with a buggy a few miles from the spot where Smith was run over, killing an unknown occupant of the buggy.

Columbus, O., Dec. 10.—Attorney General Sheets has advised the prosecuting attorney of Lake county to have not only the principal and seconds, but also the spectators of the Hoy-Siddons fight at Richmond indicted. The fight was forbidden by the governor, but the promoters stole a march on the sheriff and it was brought off early Sunday morning at Richmond.

Rochester, Ind., Dec. 10.—Joshua Bunch, a well known farmer and thresherman, lost his life in a peculiar manner. He was using his thresher engine in shredding corn and went out in advance of his men at the noon hour to tighten the drive belt. When the other men came they found Mr. Bunch on the ground, crushed to death, having been run over by the traction engine, which was zigzagging around in an adjoining field, running backward. It is thought that he attempted to tighten the belt by running the engine backward and that he lost control, and in passing through a wire fence he was dragged off and underneath the ponderous weight. Mr. Bunch was 50 years old and a well known citizen.

A Foundation--Not A Prop

Anerve Tonic never Equaled

This shaped box--no other

Mrs. S. K. Morgan of number 115 north seventh street, Richmond, Ind., says: "For some time I have been kind of run down in health and as a result I was troubled a lot with nervousness. I got a box of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills at A. G. Luken & Co.'s drug store and after taking part of a box of the pills I can say I feel much better and my nervous system is toned up. I consider these pills have greatly benefited me and I can recommend them."

A system held up to work by a false system of stimulation, is like a house on stilts--knock out the prop and down comes the house. It was this principle that Dr. A. W. Chase recognized in the composition of Nerve Pills--that the system and nerve centers did not want bolstering, but rebuilding. His aim was to feed the nerve centers--to give them power to furnish the different organs the power to act, to insure by this getting at things from the bottom, a return to health, strength and steadiness of nerves, a feeling of energy, buoyancy and brightness--together with an ability to go to bed and sleep restfully. That he has attained his object is borne out by the magnificent results obtained wherever the Nerve Pills are used faithfully and as directed. In action they are safe, sure, rapid and pleasant.

This shaped box--no other. Signature and portrait of Dr. A. W. Chase on each box. Price 50 cents a box at dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Med. Co., 257 Washington St., Buffalo, N. Y.

Mrs. Mary Veredge of number 200 south seventh street, Richmond, Ind., says: "I was troubled with severe nervousness, sleeplessness and dizziness. I was advised to try Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills and got a box at A. G. Luken & Co.'s drug store and now I can say my nervous system has been toned up and I feel a different person. I can recommend this medicine very highly for nervousness."

Mrs. A. J. Davis of number 22 north second street, Richmond, Ind., says: "I was a great sufferer from severe nervousness which gave me a great deal of annoyance. I heard of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills and thought they fitted my case. I got a box of the pills at A. G. Luken & Co.'s drug store. Now I can say my nervous system has been toned up and I feel a different person. I can recommend this medicine very highly for nervousness."
