A PROPER MONUMENT

May Mark the Site of One of the Nation's Notable Victories if
Plans Materialize.

Congressman Crumpacker Has a
Bill in Congress Seeking Uncle
Sam's Aid.

Indianapolis, Dec. 19.—Governor Durbin, who is interested in the efforts of the Tippecanoe Battle Ground Memorial association, has written to Senators Fairbanks and Beveridge and all the Indiana representatives asking their support and co-operation in the attempt to get congress to make an appropriation for a suitable monument to be erected upon the historical battle ground.

The association was organized in 1891 by the veterans of the civil war for the exclusive purpose of securing an appropriation from the government to erect a monument in commemoration of the victory of General William Henry Harrison over the Indians in the battle of Tippecanoe Nov. 7, 1811. The association has endeavored to inculcate into the minds of children the sacrifices, hardships, fortitude and bravery of the early pioneers of the great Northwest, as well as patriotism and love of country. Members of the association do not believe that the people fully appreciate the victory won by General Harrison and his brave men at Tippecanoe, whereby the great Northwest was opened to civilization. It is a fact, says the association, that every war, many battles and to many men who have participated in the various wars of our country some suitable testimonial has been erected to commemorate the event or their deeds of valor, but no mention has ever been made of the battle of Tippecanoe or of General Harrison. No shaft was ever erected in memory of the brave patriots who gave up their lives for coming generations. There is nothing to show the gratitude of the prosperous and happy people of the Northwest for the sacrifices made by General Harrison and his gallant band.

Governor Durbin and the association call attention to the great victory and say it is the duty of the government, through congress, to appropriate a sufficient sum of money for the erection of a suitable shaft to commemorate that important event. The association asks the unqualified support of members of congress for the bill introduced by Hon. E. D. Crumpacker. The battlefield is under control of the state of Indiana, and is surrounded by a high fence.

GOBBLING THE SUPPLY

Railroads Confiscating Coal Wherever Found On Track.

Indianapolis, Dec. 19.—Private consumers are not the only sufferers from lack of coal. There is not a railroad entering Indianapolis that is not short of coal, and some of them have hardly half a day's fuel ahead. Consequently they are confiscating coal going over the roads wherever found, and this will make the shortage still more noticeable in Indianapolis and other cities. The mines cannot get out the coal fast enough to supply the demand, the railroads cannot furnish cars enough to haul all that the mines turn out, and now the cars that are furnished will be confiscated until the roads have coal enough so that traffic will not be stopped. The engines on the belt road are burning slack.

Postal Operation.

Mr. Moore yesterday filed a petition in the circuit court asking that the partnership be dissolved and a receiver appointed. E. Fred Smith was appointed receiver.

Evansville, Ind., Dec. 19.—William Blockley, aged 30, dying of incurable disease, was carried to the courtroom that he might be given a divorce from his wife, who abandoned him some weeks ago. Blockley carries life insurance which he has changed so that a friend may inherit it.

Wilful Murder.
Such Is the Grand Jury's Verdict In Miners' Riot Cases.

Madisonville, Ky., Dec. 19.—The Webster county grand jury in session at Dixon returned indictments yesterday against James D. Wood, president of the United Mine Workers of America of the 23rd district, Kittridge Barnaby, vice president, and W. B. Kissinger, a member of the official board, charging them as accessories before the fact for willful murder.

The indictments are a result of an investigation into the facts connected with the attack made on the Providence mines by the union men five weeks ago. One of the union men named Givens, who was killed in the battle, had papers on his person which were introduced as evidence against the union leaders. A list of the guns, their numbers and the names of the men to whom the guns had been given were found, together with other evidence. Wood, Barnaby and Kissinger, the indicted, will be refused bond. Barnaby was in Madisonville yesterday and Wood is said to be in Central City.

A Twenty Year Sentence.
Madisonville, Ky., Dec. 19.—The jury at Dixon, Ky., in the case of Jean Couch, a negro union miner, charged with shooting into a wagon load of non-union negroes enroute to the Providence mines, returned a verdict of guilty and sentenced Couch to 20 years in the penitentiary. President Wood of the district mine workers' union, who is now in Central City, claims that two attempts were made by unknown persons to assassinate him Tuesday night.

Colon, Colombia, Dec. 19.—The government troops who fought in the Nombre de Dios engagement last Friday and who were recruited in the Colombian province of Antioquia, are receiving praise for their bravery. Even small boys shouldered guns and went into battle after having performed a wonderful and fatiguing march across the country.

Pro-Boer Causes a Riot.

London, Dec. 19.—David Lloyd-George, M. P., in speaking at Birmingham town hall last night precipitated a scene unprecedented in that city since the Ashton Park riots. The majority of the audience were hostile to the speaker and were enraged by his pro-Boer and anti-Chamberlain utterances.

They rushed the police cordon guarding the platform. In the meantime the building was besieged from the outside by a mob of several thousand people, who smashed windows and tried to force the doors which had been barricaded. They flushed the audience with stones through the windows.

The police reserves were turned out and succeeded in dispersing the mob after repeated charges. A number of persons were injured and the town hall was completely wrecked. Not a single window was left whole.
