

THE FIRST BALLOT

Kentucky Senatorial Contest Settled In Short Order When Time Came.

GOV. M'CREARY ELECTED

Democratic Caucus Finds Its Choice Narrowed Down to Two Contestants At the End.

Judge Cantrill Remains In Race Because He Wanted Complimentary Vote.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 10.—Standing on the rostrum of the old hall of representatives of the Kentucky capitol, where more than 30 years ago began his public career, the Hon. James B. McCreary of Madison county last night accepted the nomination of the Democratic party to succeed William J. Deboe in the senate of the United States. He received the nomination by a vote of 62 to 37 over Circuit Judge James E. Cantrill of Scott county, nearly two-thirds of the Democratic members. He will be elected by the general assembly in joint session on Tuesday of next week over Senator Deboe, who was endorsed by his party for re-election.

The Democratic caucus last night was harmonious throughout, the only surprise being that sprung several hours before it convened by the withdrawal of Congressman Charles K. Wheeler and David H. Smith, who have been in the contest for the past year. They withdrew only when it became apparent that McCreary would be nominated, and Judge Cantrill remained in the race only to receive a complimentary vote.

Chairman George W. Hickman of the senate caucus called the joint caucus to order promptly at 8 o'clock and stated the object of the assembly. Twenty-five senators and 74 representatives were present, one by proxy. The congressional districts were called for nominations. Eight districts did not respond. On the calling of the ninth district State Senator W. A. Byron arose and began the nominating speech for ex-Governor McCreary. He began with a review of the political troubles of 1900 to which he attributed the election of a Democratic assembly. He reviewed briefly, from a party standpoint, national issues and said that McCreary filled to the fullest measure all of the requirements of the position he sought, and would be an able colleague of United States Senator Blackburn. He compared Congressman Wheeler on withdrawing from the race and predicted that he would follow McCreary to the senate.

Representative Eli Brown of Nelson county, one of the youngest members of the house, presented the name of Judge James E. Cantrill for the nomination. He opened by saying that his chief had not entered the campaign for reward for anything that he had done for the party, but because his friends insisted that he was the most able man in Kentucky for the position. Seconding speeches were made by Representative Herman Newcomb of Louisville and State Senator W. W. Booles of Spencer for McCreary, and Allison Holland of Henry county for Cantrill.

The roll was called and resulted: Senators, 14 for McCreary, 11 for Cantrill; representatives, 48 for McCreary, 26 for Cantrill. Total for McCreary, 62; for Cantrill, 37. Senator J. C. Cantrill moved to make the nomination unanimous and this was done amid loud applause.

Senators Byron and Cantrill and Representative Brown notified the nominee of the caucus action and escorted him to the house. He accepted the nomination in a few graceful words and pledged himself to always be faithful to his constituents and to his country.

Dowie Sued.

Chicago, Jan. 10.—Benjamin F. Williams, formerly a school teacher in Mansfield, O., and a former follower of John Alexander Dowie, has begun suit in the circuit court of Cook county for damages in the sum of $50,000 against Dowie and Elders John G. Speicher and Cyrus B. Fecker of the Christian Catholic Church of America for alleged conspiracy to alienate his wife's affections. Williams alleges that through the teachings of Dowie and his followers, Edith R. Williams was influenced to treat him as a stranger. He avers that the cause of this influence was that he did not contribute tithes to Dowie's numerous business enterprises.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It.

How To Find Out. Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

SCHLEY ASKS JUDGMENT

Contention That Court Was Irregular Is Being Investigated.

Washington, Jan. 10.—The case of Rear Admiral Schley is now being considered by the attorney general for the purpose of discovering whether there was any illegality in connection with the court of inquiry. It is understood that at the recent conference between the president and Rear Admiral Schley the latter pointed out some alleged violations of law in regard to the court, and these matters have been deemed worthy of examination. The attorney general is not to pass upon the merits of the case, but will deal solely with its legal phase. If he shall find that the court was properly constituted, that the precept was legally drawn and that the rules of law were followed as to the evidence, it will then be within the province of the president to consider the case upon its merits. If the attorney general decides that there were illegalities as claimed by Admiral Schley, the verdict of the court would be vitiated. It is understood that Admiral Schley's future course concerning a formal appeal in writing to the president will depend very largely upon the decision of the attorney general.

NO CLUE

Cracksmen At Greensburg Are Secretive Fellows.

Greensburg, Ind., Jan. 10.—There is no clue to the identity of the cracksmen who operated so successfully here early yesterday morning. The safe in the postoffice was forced and $500 in money and $1,200 in stamps was taken. The burglars gained entrance by prying off the lock on the rear door, and the tools used in forcing the safe were stolen from an adjoining blacksmith shop. The knob was knocked off the outer door with a sledge, jarring the tumbler loose, after which the inner door was forced by placing a nitroglycerin charge at the top of the vault door. Some of the remnants struck the furniture and a number of mail boxes were broken. The burglars were traced to Milroy by a buggy and horse stolen from R. P. Hamilton. It is thought they boarded a northbound freight train at that point.

The board of trustees will meet to organize and elect officers in the office of the secretary of state on Jan. 29.

IN NO HURRY

United States Will Await Developments In Venezuela.

Washington, Jan. 10.—It is understood that the assurances as to the position of the United States government respecting the enforcement of foreign claims against Venezuela all have been predicated upon a very clear and concise statement of President Roosevelt in his first message to congress. It has been made clear to all inquirers that the main purpose of the United States is that there shall be no extension of European sovereignty in America, but within that line there is not likely to be any interference on our part. The United States itself is interested through a number of its citizens in claims somewhat similar to those urged by Germany and France. Claimants have arisen in different parts of the United States since the German opening of this question and are insisting that the state department press their claims just as Germany and France are to do for their citizens. The matter is under consideration, but there is no disposition to hasten unduly, as it is realized that the situation in Venezuela may change suddenly through internal influences.

Chili Won't Stand For It.

Mexico City, Jan. 10.—The memorandum of the Chileans threatening to withdraw from the 12-nation conference whatever might be the form in which the plan of compulsory arbitration was presented was delivered to Finance Minister Limantour, who has been carrying on the negotiations on behalf of the Mexican government, and to W. L. Buchanan of the United States delegation. In their interview with the president the Chilean delegates not only threatened to withdraw their legation here if they had not their way in the matter of arbitration, but put it in the form that the minister would ask for his passports, so it is said.

An Interesting Coalition.
