

THE GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN NERVINE TONIC

AND Stomach and Liver Cure

The Most Astonishing Medical Discovery of the Last One Hundred Years.

It is Pleasant to the Taste as the Sweetest Nectar. It is Safe and Harmless as the Purest Milk.

This wonderful Nervine Tonic has only recently been introduced into this country by the proprietors and manufacturers of the Great South American Nervine Tonic, and yet its great value as a curative agent has long been known by a few of the most learned physicians, who have not brought its merits and value to the knowledge of the general public.

This medicine has completely solved the problem of the cure of indigestion, dyspepsia, and diseases of the general nervous system. It is also of the greatest value in the cure of all forms of failing health from whatever cause. It performs this by the great nerve tonic qualities which it possesses, and by its great curative powers upon the digestive organs, the stomach, the liver and the bowels. No remedy compares with this wonderfully valuable Nervine Tonic as a builder and strengthener of the life forces of the human body, and as a great renewer of a broken-down constitution. It is also of more real permanent value in the treatment and cure of diseases of the lungs than any consumption remedy ever used on this continent. It is a marvelous cure for nervousness of females of all ages. Ladies who are approaching the critical period known as change in life, should not fail to use this great Nervine Tonic, almost constantly, for the space of two or three years. It will carry them safely over the danger. This great strengthener and curative is of inestimable value to the aged and infirm, because its great energizing properties will give them a new hold on life. It will add ten or fifteen years to the lives of many of those who will use a half dozen bottles of the remedy each year.

IT IS A GREAT REMEDY FOR THE CURE OF Nervousness, Nervous Prostration, Nervous Headache, Sick Headache, Female Weakness, Nervous Chills, Paralysis, Nervous Paroxysms and Nervous Choking, Hot Flashes, Palpitation of the Heart, Mental Despondency, Sleeplessness, St. Vitus' Dance, Nervousness of Females, Nervousness of Old Age, Neuralgia, Pains in the Heart, Pains in the Back, Failing Health, Broken Constitution, Debility of Old Age, Indigestion and Dyspepsia, Heartburn and Sour Stomach, Weight and Tenderness in Stomach, Loss of Appetite, Frightful Dreams, Dizziness and Ringing in the Ears, Weakness of Extremities and Fainting, Impure and Impoverished Blood, Boils and Carbuncles, Scrofula, Scrofulous Swellings and Ulcers, Consumption of the Lungs, Catarrh of the Lungs, Bronchitis and Chronic Cough, Liver Complaint, Chronic Diarrhea, Delicate and Scrofulous Children, Summer Complaint of Infants.

All these and many other complaints cured by this wonderful Nervine Tonic.

NERVOUS DISEASES.

As a cure for every class of Nervous Diseases, no remedy has been able to compare with the Nervine Tonic, which is very pleasant and harmless. Its effects upon the youngest child or the oldest and most delicate individual. Nine tenths of all the ailments to which the human family is heir are dependent on nervous exhaustion and impaired digestion. When there is an insufficient supply of nerve food in the blood, a general state of debility of the brain, spinal marrow, and nerves is the result. Starved nerves, like starved muscles, become strong when the right kind of food is supplied; and a thousand weaknesses and ailments disappear as the nerves recover. As the nervous system must supply all the power by which the vital forces of the body are carried on, it is the first to suffer for want of perfect nutrition. Ordinary food does not contain a sufficient quantity of the kind of nutriment necessary to repair the wear our present mode of living and labor imposes upon the nerves. For this reason it becomes necessary that a nerve food be supplied. This South American Nervine has been found by analysis to contain the essential elements out of which nerve tissue is formed. This accounts for its universal adaptability to the cure of all forms of nervous derangement.

To the Great South American Medicine Co.:
DEAR GENTS:—I desire to say to you that I have suffered for many years with a very serious disease of the stomach and nerves. I tried every medicine I could bear of, but nothing done me any appreciable good until I was advised to try your Great South American Nervine Tonic and Stomach and Liver Cure, and since using several bottles of it I must say that I am surprised at its wonderful powers to cure the stomach and general nervous system. If everyone knew the value of this remedy as I do you would not be able to supply the demand.
J. A. HANDS, Ex-Treas. Montgomery Co.

A SWORN CURE FOR ST. VITUS' DANCE OR CHOREA.

My daughter, eleven years old, was severely afflicted with St. Vitus' Dance or Chorea. We gave her three and one-half bottles of South American Nervine and she is completely restored. I believe it will cure every case of St. Vitus' Dance. I have kept it in my family for two years, and am sure it is the greatest remedy in the world for Indigestion and Dyspepsia, and for all forms of Nervous Disorders and Failing Health, from whatever cause.

State of Indiana, Montgomery County, ss: Subscribed and sworn to before me this June 22, 1897.

CHAS. W. WRIGHT, Notary Public.

INDIGESTION AND DYSPEPSIA.

The Great South American Nervine Tonic

Which we now offer you, is the only absolutely unfailing remedy ever discovered for the cure of Indigestion, Dyspepsia, and the vast train of symptoms and horrors which are the result of disease and debility of the human stomach. No person can afford to pass by this jewel of incalculable value who is affected by disease of the stomach, because the experience and testimony of many go to prove that this is the one and only great cure in the world for this universal destroyer. There is no case of unmalignant disease of the stomach which can resist the wonderful curative powers of the South American Nervine Tonic.

HARREY E. HALL, of Waynesville, Ind., says: "I owe my life to the Great South American Nervine. I had been in bed for five months from the effects of an exhausted stomach, Indigestion, Nervous Prostration, and a general shattered condition of my whole system. Had given up all hope of getting well. Had tried three doctors, with no result. The first bottle of the Nervine Tonic improved me so much that I was able to walk about, and a few bottles cured me entirely. I believe it is the best medicine in the world. I can not recommend it too highly."

No remedy compares with South American Nervine as a cure for the Nerves. No remedy compares with South American Nervine as a cure for the Stomach. No remedy will at all compare with South American Nervine as a cure for all forms of failing health. It never fails to cure Indigestion and Dyspepsia. It never fails to cure Chorea or St. Vitus' Dance. Its powers to build up the whole system are wonderful in the extreme. It cures the old, the young, and the middle-aged. It is a great friend to the aged and infirm. Do not neglect to use this precious boon; if you do, you may neglect the only remedy which will restore you to health. South American Nervine is perfectly safe, and very pleasant to the taste. Delicate ladies, do not fail to use this great cure, because it will put the bloom of freshness and beauty upon your lips and in your cheeks, and quickly drive away your disabilities and weaknesses.

WOULDN'T STAY BURIED.

Adventure of a Man Who Was Disappointed With His Coffin.

A few weeks ago an Armenian while walking in the bazaar of Adana, in Asia Minor, fell on the pavement in a fit. The people in his vicinity, finding him unconscious, sent for the municipal physician, who examined him and certified that he was dead.

He was recognized as being an Armenian, so his body was handed over to the authorities of a neighboring Armenian church. There was not enough money in his pockets to pay for the expense of his burial, so the authorities postponed the funeral till the next day by which time they hoped to collect enough money from charitable Armenians. The body was put in a coffin and left in a corner of the church.

At night, however, the man returned to his senses and, finding himself in a coffin, the narrowest of all prisons, began to shriek wildly. His voice and the clattering of the coffin awoke the priest and attendants, who were sleeping in an adjacent building. They were terrified, but eventually entered the church and, perceiving whence the cries came, rescued the man.

Early next morning the latter went into a coffin shop, where, by a strange coincidence, the first person he met was the man who had nailed up his coffin the night before. The latter took him for a ghost and fled precipitately, shouting for help while the Armenian rushed upon him and, seizing him, demanded pecuniary satisfaction for the damage done to his clothes in the process of putting him in the coffin.

The undertaker took courage on finding that the Armenian was not a ghost at all and retorted by demanding payment for the coffin and his trouble the night before. The dispute was adjudicated on by the other people in the coffin shop, apparently not to the Armenian's satisfaction, for, having come to the conclusion that Adana is hardly a healthy spot for him, he has removed to another town.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

Passing of Sailing Bark.

Not many years ago the East river water front was a "forest of masts." Today a dozen smokestacks take their place. Poetry has given place to the dull and driest of prose. An illustration of the sorrowful pass to which sailing vessels in the merchant marine have come was related last week by the son of a once wealthy shipowner, now dead.

"I was present in my youth," said he, "at the christening of one of my father's barks, a quarter of a century ago. The vessel cost about $32,000. In its maiden voyage to Australia it cleared a net profit of more than $35,000—more than paid for itself, in fact."

"Not long since, while settling up my father's estate, $50 was offered to me for an eighth interest in another bark which he had owned. It cost him $4,000. I took the offer. It was a question of taking $50 or paying an assessment of $200, and, as I was not empowered to spend money of the estate and saw no probable profit if I did, I took the cash."—New York Times.

A Plucky Queen.

While the queen of the Belgians was driving the other day in a pony chaise in the environs of Spa she met a ragpicker's cart drawn by a dog, which was being cruelly beaten by the two occupants. The queen drew her carriage across the road and requested the ragpickers to cease ill treating the dog. Their only reply was a volley of insulting language, while they thrashed the unfortunate animal more brutally than before.

Her majesty thereupon turned her carriage round and followed the men to Thiers, where she had them arrested for cruelty. On the police authorities wishing to add the charge of insulting the queen, her majesty asked them to strike it out, as she made her complaint solely in her capacity as a member of the Society for the Protection of Animals.

THE BALANCE OF HEALTH

Is often very much against the wife. Her strength is undermined, she loses flesh and her energy. Gradually the comradeship of husband and wife is broken up. At first he takes his solitary pleasures reluctantly, but later he hardly seems to remember the old days over which his wife in her weakness mourns daily.

Women who find their health failing, and womanly ailments fastening on them, should promptly begin the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It corrects irregularity, dries the drains which weaken women, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong, sick women well. Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence held as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

"I had been a great sufferer from female weakness for about two years," writes Mrs. Emma Richardson, of Gosc. Wayne Co., Ky. "Could not do my work part of the time. I took four bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and felt as well as I ever did. I have also used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for ulceration of the throat with good results and half of one bottle cured my throat when I could scarcely swallow."

MISS AGNES WESTON.

She is known in England as "Bishop of the Bluejackets."

Miss Agnes Weston is one of the most energetic and popular women in England, and deservedly so, for she is a philanthropist and never tires of doing good. The University of Glasgow conferred upon Miss Weston the degree of doctor of laws, but this is not the first nor the highest prize of that lady's titles, for long ago the sailor lads of England conferred on her two far more affectionate ones—namely, Mother Weston and Bishop of the Bluejackets. The university title is really an outcome of the first two, because it was given in honor of Miss Weston's work among the boys who sail the sea.

MOTHER WESTON.

While still a girl she developed an interest in the English tars and founded an institution called the Sailors' Rest, which provided clean, cheap accommodations for Jack as soon as he landed, gave him medicine, books and, most important of all, amusement and defended him from the harpies who had robbed him so long.

Miss Weston gradually interested all classes in England in the work. The first "rest" was built at Devonport. Branch homes have been established in most of the seaports. She went from one to another, making friends of the sailors, influencing each one of them, writing to him when at sea, caring for his family, never giving up the effort to draw him to the right and to God. Many a poor Jack Tar wandering over the seas reckoned Mother Weston as his only friend in the world. She never failed him.

Women of the Frontier.

Some towns are harder to civilize than others. A new town in the Cherokee outlet grew to 500 souls without a woman. This town is now one of the most thriving and cultured communities of that territory. But a year elapsed before a woman dared venture in.

One day when the stagecoach drew up the wife of a leading saloon keeper alighted, and Tom announced from behind the bar that night that she had come to stay. He set up the drinks to the crowd, but they did not congratulate him. Instead they met in a gambling hall and decided to boycott his place until he had sent his wife away. When he learned of it, of course with his heart set on the dollar, he told her to go. She went. Not until that saloon keeper was shot in a midnight brawl would they allow his wife to return to him. When they saw how tenderly she nursed him back to life and with what gentleness she spoke to them, their hearts melted, and the toughest cowboy in the town addressed a meeting one night in this wise:

"Boys, we will have to surrender. I am going to pack my saddlebags and pull out for the Indian country and give this town over to the women and their kind. It is not for me to stay here."

So the worst of them "biked," and B. soon became a thriving place and a fit one to inhabit, with plenty of good women there too.—New York Times.

Nova Scotia Women.

The women of Nova Scotia are a fine race, both physically and mentally, more buxom and sturdy than the average American woman of today. Nova Scotia girls, as a rule, are distinctly pretty, with refined features, superb complexions and beautifully molded figures. They are not afraid of work, and wholesome work gives them fine physiques. They are known in America by the quality of the service they render when they accept employment. They constitute a class by themselves in domestic service, redeeming all that kind of work from the mental character imposed upon it by careless, unintelligent and indifferent wage earners, and restoring it to the status it held when performed in "good old times" by native American girls of good family, education and breeding.

The Nova Scotia women are capable in various ways. They make equally good schoolteachers and farmers' wives. Many of them have excellent business and executive abilities much better oftentimes than the men of the family—and these abilities are exercised in managing farms and making and looking after lumbering contracts, etc., while their husbands, fathers and brothers devote themselves solely to irresponsible physical labor.

The Apprehensive Lady.

Did you ever meet the apprehensive lady? She's the one who fears it is going to rain or she fears it isn't. She's afraid you are going to take cold, or that you are too warm, or that the chair in which you are sitting isn't comfortable. You feel all right and quite satisfied with yourself until the apprehensive lady suggests a score of disagreeable possibilities to you. She's afraid the baby is going to be left unattended, or that his ears are going to stand out from his head, or that he will be tongue tied, or that he will grow up to be a politician or something.

The apprehensive lady never happens to think that it may happen that things will be better than they promise. They are always going to be worse, maybe. Fortune has always been kind to her, but still she is afraid to trust it. She doesn't mean to be unpleasantly surprised. She is going to anticipate trouble in all its forms, and she looks out for others as well and points out every unhappy possibility. She means well, but she is a nuisance. However, we dare not tell her so. Maybe she will read these lines and take the hint and reform.—National Magazine.

A Story of Harriet Beecher Stowe.

In her childhood Harriet Beecher Stowe was firmly convinced that the most daring, reckless and frightful thing she could do would be to say "damn." She became so possessed and haunted with the dread of the unknown terrors that would overwhelm a little girl who dared to utter that awful word that at last she could endure the fascination of the terror no longer, and she went to her room, locked herself in, climbed into the middle of the feather bed, lay still, shut her eyes, opened her mouth and said the wicked word. Then, according to her own account, she lay and waited in an agony of terror for what was to befall her. Her least expectation was that the ceiling would fall down. She waited and waited and waited. Nothing happened, and at last the monotony of the situation tired her, and she got off the bed a very disappointed little mad-cap girl.

Tactful Women.

Perhaps if there is one thing which oils the delicate springs of society more than another it is the exercise of tact. It is a gift, not an acquired habit, for the tactless woman cannot see that she lacks that innate courtesy which would make it impossible for her to say things "best left unsaid." Kindliness of heart, some people call it, but that is by no means an accurate definition of this grace. Rather it is the power of putting yourself in another person's place and feeling instantaneously what would be the effect of such and such a remark on them, says Home Notes. Certainly tactful women are the pleasantest of companions, for their intention enables them to see when it is best to keep silence and also when a word in season may put matters straight.

Old Pewter.

The first thing to do on getting an old pewter "piece" is to have it thoroughly cleaned, and this is a really difficult task to the amateur, especially when, as frequently happens, it has been left untouched for some time, perhaps because it has been lying by unused or to give the truly "old" look which the dealer values. If the pewter is very dirty, which is generally the case, its soft surface being inclined to absorb grease and dirt, it should be boiled in strong soda water and afterward cleaned with the usual preparations. Brickdust and paraffin is a very good mixture.

Girls in Holland.

Girls in Holland have a great deal of liberty. They pay calls, shop and go to parties at the houses of friends without a chaperon, walk and travel alone, cycle and have tennis and wheeling clubs in company with young men. They enjoy their fun and freedom and are in no hurry to find husbands. Marriages are not arranged, and the parents' consent is only asked after a proposal is made and accepted.

A Pretty Bedroom Screen.

If your bedroom is so planned that the bed must face the window, an excellent plan is to have two small uprights fastened to the footrail of the bed, with a brass rod connecting them at the top. Have a curtain of dark silk or any other material gathered on this rod, and if this is drawn at night your eyes will be protected from the light.

Lunch Cloths.

Handsome breakfast or lunch cloths are woven with wide colored borders of flowers in one color, dark red, blue or brown, or with leaves and stems in a delicate green. Napkins, completing the set, are woven with narrow colored borders, repeating the pattern of the cloth.

Reading For Girls.

Miss Bates, professor of English at Wellesley college, speaking of reading for girls, says: "Every hour spent in reading trash is not merely so much time wasted, but is so much fineness blunted, so much dignity of mind debased."

Not an Enthusiast.

"Is he a golf enthusiast?" "Oh, no. He pretends to be, but he isn't." "How do you know?" "Why, he gives up playing when the thermometer gets down to zero."—Chicago Post.
