Dod Congressman Watson have any method in his mad eulogy of Senator Hanna as the "noblest Roman of them all?" From the smile that played around Jim's crafty lips as he witnessed the enthusiasm it occasioned, we would say that his remarks on Hanna were not wholly extempore, nor without purpose.—Evening Item.

Congressman Watson undoubtedly had some method in his eulogy of Senator Hanna, "the noblest Roman of them all." It is true that all the real Republicans in Indiana have a friendly feeling for Senator Hanna because he has often raised his voice in their behalf. Men like Mr. Watson who are Republicans 365 days in the year love to honor a great statesman like Mr. Hanna. Mr. Watson was, no doubt, pleased with the applause the name of the Ohio statesman called forth. Senators Fairbanks and Beveridge, Governor Durbin and Congressman Hemenway, yes, and others, gave evidence of pleasure and were responsible for some of the "enthusiasm" mentioned above. The whole affair was a Republican love feast and was enjoyed by the members of the grand old party.

There were many excellent things said at the love feast at Indianapolis, but we doubt that among them all there was an apter thing offered than when Congressman Watson uttered the following: "There is no man who stands higher in the councils of our party, no man whose advice is oftener sought, no man whose advice is oftener heeded than Charles W. Fairbanks of Indiana. And there is no man upon the floor of the senate whose voice they would rather hear in eloquent speech, and who is sought more eagerly when they want anything done than Albert J. Beveridge of Indiana."—Marion Chronicle.

The above is a compliment to our young congressman. Of course the editor of the Chronicle has no sore toe and does not need to be "smoked out of his hole" to see a virtue in a rising young congressman and a true blue Republican.

That was a gracious concession on the part of the cabdrivers' union in Chicago, when it consented to raise the strike for a period of ten days so that the victims of the terrible holocaust might have decent conveyance to the place of burial. It will doubtless be among "Little, nameless, unremembered acts of kindness and of love."

An exchange is responsible for the information that Russia will not use Force in her trouble with Japan. Embalmed beef and flour are the only articles of food ordered from the United States. Breakfast food may come later, yes, and there may be some rice mixed in some place in the game.

A One Sided Game Between Fairview and the Muncie Camels.

The Muncie Camels, an amateur aggregation, which is reputed to be the best in Muncie, met defeat at the hands of the fast Fairview "bunch" last night before the big game. The Muncie team showed up pretty well in practice, but Fairview went around them like a "cooper would a barrel," and when the smoke of battle cleared away, the score stood 5 to 0 in favor of Fairview.

Other Games.

Indianapolis won a game at home yesterday afternoon from Elwood by a score of 7 to 5, and lost in the evening at Anderson by a score of 7 to 2.

Anderson won at Muncie in the afternoon in a very good game. Score stood 9 to 3.

Muncie also played at Elwood in the evening. Both teams were patched up. The score was 8 to 4 in favor of Muncie.

POLO NOTES.

Whenever Richmond plays the game of polo it did yesterday, no team in the business can defeat it.

The sporting editor of the Indianapolis Journal week before last said that whenever a rusher of an opposing team got past the Richmond defense men with the ball he invariably made a goal. This statement was certainly refuted in yesterday afternoon's game. Lewis, the first rush of the Marion team, who is without a doubt as "smooth" as any rusher in the business, got past Richmond's defense men three different times, and had Jessup all to himself, but Jessup booted the ball away from the cage each time.

Anyone who missed the games yesterday missed two of the hardest fought battles of the season.

Richmond made the winning goal in the afternoon game just a few seconds before the bell rang. At night they made the winning goal two minutes before time was up.

Everybody was delighted with the result of the games.

Bully for Mansfield! He took two long shots at the goal in last night's game and landed them in. However, if Bone had not been "Johnny on the spot," Richmond would have lost one of them, as it rolled out and Bone put back in again. Doherty put one in at a long shot also.

Rah for Richmond's "Fighting Five."

Roller polo has not only come west to stay, but will be played on a much more extensive scale next year than this. It is proving the most profitable and popular winter sport ever introduced in the west and many new circuits will be organized for next winter.

Already the Western and Central leagues are planning for the future, and it now appears assured that each league will be enlarged to eight teams for next season. So profitable and popular has the sport become that it has gone beyond the experimental stage and plenty of money is ready to be invested in it.

The Western league at present is in good condition, and the same teams will remain in next year. A readjustment of the Central league may bring two of the teams in it to the Western league. South Bend and Champaign, Ill., want to enter the Central league, and it is thought they will be accommodated.

Alexandria has strong backing for a Western league franchise, and, as it is large enough to support polo it may be admitted. It is convenient to the other cities and will prove a valuable addition. Kokomo and Logansport, which are also connected by interurban lines with the cities in the Western league, may become members of it, thus making room in that league for other cities which are convenient and desire to get into the game.

The plans are being thoroughly discussed, but no definite action will be taken until in April, when several meetings will be held. There are a number of fine polo players yet in the east who are desirous of coming west and the west is developing some players of its own who will be in the finish at no distant date.

Polo is beyond doubt one of the greatest games now played, and, as a winter amusement, it is not excelled by any. The sport has come to stay and it is safe to say that next season it will be played to a certain extent in many of the smaller cities in the state.

Exposure to Wet, dampness and cold, invariably results in a sudden chill, which if not attended to immediately will cause a cold. By mixing a teaspoonful of Perry Davis' Painkiller in half a glass of warm water or milk, the whole system will be heated and the danger of cold avoided. Avoid substitutes, there is but one Painkiller, Perry Davis'. Price 25c and 50c.

Noted Sculptress Cured of Grip.

Mrs. M. C. Cooper, of the Royal Academy of Arts, of London, England, now residing in Washington, D. C., is one of the greatest living sculptors and painters of the world. She says:

"I take pleasure in recommending Peruna for catarrh and la grippe. I have suffered for months, and after the use of one bottle of Peruna I am entirely well."—Mrs. M. C. Cooper.

D. L. Wallace, a charter member of the International Barber's Union, writes from 15 Western avenue, Minneapolis, Minn.:

"Following a severe attack of la grippe I seemed to be affected badly all over.

"One of my customers who was greatly helped by Peruna advised me to try it, and I procured a bottle the same day. Now my head is clear, my nerves are steady, I enjoy food and rest well. Peruna has been worth a dollar a dose to me."—D. L. Wallace.

Lieutenant Clarice Hunt, of the Salt Lake City Barracks of the Salvation Army, writes from Ogden, Utah:

"Two months ago I was suffering with so severe a cold that I could hardly speak. Our captain advised me to try Peruna and procured a bottle for me, and truly it worked wonders. Within two weeks I was entirely well."—Clarice Hunt.

Congressman White's Letter.

Tarboro, N. C.
Gentlemen:—I am more than satisfied with Peruna and find it to be an excellent remedy for the grippe and catarrh. I have used it in my family and they all join me in recommending it as an excellent remedy."—George H. White, Member of Congress.

Mrs. T. W. Collins, Treasurer Independent Order of Good Templars, of Everett, Wash., writes:

"After having a severe attack of la grippe I continued in a feeble condition even after the doctors called me cured. My blood seemed poisoned. Peruna cured me."—Mrs. T. W. Collins.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, O.

LA GRIPPE is epidemic catarrh. It clutched us in its fatal clasp. Men, women, children, whole towns and cities are caught in the baneful grip of a terrible monster.
