

A GREAT CROWD

Attended the Inaugural of Governor Myron T. Herrick of Ohio.

SADDENING INCIDENTS

Death of One Former Governor and Fatal Seizure of Another Dampens the Festival Feeling.

At Public Reception Last Night 4,000 Shook Hands With the New Governor.

Columbus, O., Jan. 12.—The ceremonies which marked the inauguration of Governor Myron T. Herrick yesterday were the most brilliant ever witnessed on a like occasion in Ohio. Twenty thousand visitors from all parts of the state swelled the outpouring of local residents to a vast crowd which fairly choked the leading thoroughfares of the city.

The street parade was truly a pageant, with more than 3,000 uniformed militia and civic bodies in line. There were two saddening incidents, however, attending the day's inspiring events. Over the dome of the capitol where the inaugural ceremonies took place the stars and stripes floated at half-mast, honoring the memory of former Gov. Charles Foster who died suddenly at Springfield, O., last Saturday, and scarcely had the great parade disbanded when former Gov. Asa S. Bushnell who was with Gov. Herrick on the reviewing stand was stricken with apoplexy and removed to a hospital where he lies in a critical condition. These incidents have deeply affected those most interested in the affairs of the day and were reflected in the absence to a large degree of the customary demonstrations of public enthusiasm.

At the public reception last night at the capitol about 4,000 shook hands with the new governor. The reception to invited guests which followed was a brilliant social affair.

EXTREME ZEALOUSNESS

Incites Sentimental Young Woman to Conscienceless Vandalism.

Topeka, Kan., Jan. 12.—Someone unknown entered the historical room in the state capitol yesterday and cut a section eight inches long and six wide out of the center of the picture "Custer's Last Battle," which Miss Blanche Boies, a follower of Mrs. Carrie Nation, attacked with an ax on Saturday. Miss Boies, who was arrested last week but released promptly on bail, said that she intended to totally destroy the picture, which she said should be removed because it was the gift of a brewing firm.

Looking Out for Boodlers. NOTE OF WARNING

Japan Gives China Notice to Keep Hands Off in Case of War.

A CRITICAL SITUATION

Unless Russia Promptly Recedes Japan Will Be Compelled to Resort to Arms.

In View of Such An Eventuality Japan Expects China to Remain Strictly Neutral.

Pekin, Jan. 12.—The Chinese minister at Tokio, at the request of the Japanese foreign office, has telegraphed the following communication to Prince Ching:

"The second Russian reply to the Japanese proposals has been received at Tokio, but it is unfavorable and cannot be accepted by Japan, who will, unless Russia recedes, be compelled to promptly resort to arms.

"In view of such an eventuality Japan urges and expects China to maintain the strictest neutrality, to preserve order throughout the empire, to guard foreigners resident in the interior, and to take special care to preserve order in the provinces of Shan Tung and Yunnan lest foreign powers might seize the pretext of disorder and make aggressive movements therein."

The dispatch has deeply impressed the Chinese, who now believe war to be inevitable. Notes looking to the ratification of the treaty between China and Japan were exchanged yesterday afternoon.

Valuable Freight Demolished.

Marion, Ind., Jan. 12.—East-bound freight train No. 76 on the Pennsylvania railroad was wrecked at Sweetser. Twelve cars loaded with valuable merchandise was demolished and goods to the amount of thousands of dollars destroyed. Two brakemen who were on top of the train were thrown to the ground and painfully injured. The cause of the wreck is said to have been an open switch, which was either left open by an employee or thrown by some unknown person.

Situation in the Near East.

Vienna, Jan. 12.—The situation in the near East is causing increasing uneasiness. In addition to the Albanian movement in opposition to the new international gendarmerie in Macedonia, a dispatch from Cetinje says that the government of Montenegro has decided to take steps for the immediate expulsion of all Albanians. According to an unconfirmed report from Uskub the Serbian deputy archimandrite was shot by Albanians.

AN EDITOR'S EXPERIENCE

In the Treatment of Humours with More Than Magical Effect with CUTICURA REMEDIES.

A Remarkable Testimonial from a Most Intelligent and Trustworthy Lady.

"A tumor came on my neck and in a day or two it was as large as half an orange. I was very much alarmed for fear it was malignant. My friends tried to persuade me to consult my physician; but dreading that he would insist on using the knife, I would not consent to go. Instead, I got Cuticura Resolvent and Cuticura Ointment. I took the former according to directions, and spread the thick layer of the Ointment on the swelling. On renewing it I would bathe my neck in very warm water and Cuticura Soap. In a few days the Cuticura Ointment had drawn the swelling to a head, when it broke. Every morning it was opened with a large sterilized needle, squeezed and bathed, and fresh Ointment put on. Pus and blood, and a yellow, cheesy, tumorous matter came out. In about three or four weeks' time this treatment completely eliminated the tumor. The soreness that had extended down into my chest was all gone, and my neck now seems to be perfectly well."

"About five or six years ago my sister had a similar experience, used the Cuticura Remedies with magical effect. I am willing you should use my testimonial, with the further privilege of revealing my name and address to such persons as may wish to substantiate the above statements by personal letter to me." Chicago, Nov. 12, 1902.

Sold throughout the world. Cuticura Resolvent, 50c. (in form of Chocolate Coated Pills, 25c. per box of 50). Ointment, 25c. Soap, 25c. Depot: London, 27 Chancery Lane, E.C.4, Eng. de la Parle Boston, 12 Columbus Ave. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp. Sole Proprietors. Send for "How to Cure Every Humour."
