A case came to light that for persistent and unmerciful torture has perhaps never been equaled. Joe Goldrick of Colusa, Calif., writes: "For 15 years I endured insufferable pain from Rheumatism and nothing relieved me though I tried everything known. I came across Electric Bitters and it's the greatest medicine on earth for that trouble. A few bottles of it completely relieved and cured me." Just as good for Liver and kidney troubles and general debility. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by A. G. Luken &amp; Co., druggist.

Night Was Her Terror.

"I would cough nearly all night long," writes Mrs. Chas. Applegate, of Alexandria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a block I would cough frightfully and spit blood, but, when all other medicines failed, three $1.00 bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery wholly cured me and I gained 58 pounds." It's absolutely guaranteed to cure coughs, colds, Lagripe, Bronchitis and all Throat and Lung Troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free at A. G. Luken's drug store.

The Coroner's Verdict in Iroquois Horror Has Been Returned.

MAYOR HEADS THE LIST

With Mayor Harrison are Held City Building Commissioner and the Building Inspector.

The Manager of the Theater and His Subordinates Must Answer to the Grand Jury.

Chicago, Jan. 26.—The coroner's jury which for three weeks has been listening to evidence relating to the fire in the Iroquois theater, last night returned a verdict by which the following persons are held to await the action of the grand jury:

Carter H. Harrison, mayor of Chicago.

Will J. Davis, proprietor in part and manager of the theater.

George Williams, building commissioner of the city.

Edward Laughlin, building inspector under Williams.

William H. Musham, fire marshal.

William Sailers, fireman in the theater.

James E. Cummings, stage carpenter.

William Mullen, who had charge of the light that caused the fire.

A special grand jury will convene next week to reopen the investigation and decide what action shall be taken on the report of the coroner's jury. The charges, as far as the city officials are concerned, which the grand jury will consider is malfeasance in office. Convictions mean their removal from office in addition to any other penalty.

APPROPRIATION FOR ARMY

Bill Just Passed Carries Approximate ly $75,000,000.

Washington, Jan. 26.—The senate heard further discussion on the appointments to office made during congressional recesses, listened to a speech on the Isthmian canal question by Mr. Morgan and passed a number of bills of a semi-public character. As a result of the debate on the appointment question a resolution asking for a specified information concerning the nomination of W. D. Crum as collector of customs at the port of Charleston, S. C., was passed. A resolution asking for similar information concerning the nomination of Brig. Gen. Wood and other army officers went over.

The house passed the army appropriation bill carrying approximately $75,000,000 after adopting a number of amendments.

The provision for the consolidation of the adjutant-general's department and the record and pension office of the war department into one bureau to be known as the military secretary's office was stricken from the bill on a point of order raised by Mr. Grosvenor.
