Amusements

The Silver Slipper.

Intoxicating, but not inebriating is "The Champagne Dance," one of the features of the "Silver Slipper." Mr. John C. Fisher's musical production that enjoyed a successful engagement of six months at the Broadway Theatre, New York. This dance is performed in the second act and is so inspiring and coquettish, that even the most sober will have to yield to its charms. Following a few bars of gay, catchy music, six young women in bright yellow dresses appear, dance and whirl about until they are joined by six young men garbed as waiters. The waiters are as animated as the girls, and the fact that each carries a table to which are attached small bells in no detracts from their agility. The tables, being placed in position, the girls dance about them and with a quick whirl, seat themselves, at the same time tapping the bells with their toes. The waiters then retire, only to return in a second with champagne bottles and glasses. After going through the motions of filling the glasses, the girls spring up and the real dance begins. They dance with the waiters in a whirl-like way and the effect is very striking. The young men who participated in this dance are considered the best dancers from George Edwards' school in England and were brought to this country under contract by Mr. Fisher especially for this dance, which was one of the features in the London production of "The Silver Slipper" and was the sensation of the play during the long run at the Broadway Theatre. The "Champagne Dance" is only one of many features of "The Silver Slipper," the delightful musical play by the authors of "Florodora" that will be the attraction at the Gennett theatre next Wednesday evening, Feb. 3. During the engagement the complete production will be seen. There will be the same dazzling scenic and lighting effects and the same expensive costumes. The leading role will be played by such well known favorites as Thos. T. Keogh, Gertrude Millington, Fred Runnells, Harry B. Burcher, Virginia Palmer, Leo Mordant and Lora Leib, together with a company numbering 100, makes "The Silver Slipper" the highest salaried musical play ever seen on tour.

A New Melodramatic Comedy.

There is to be a play of strong heart interest at the Gennett theatre next Saturday, matinee and night, in which the nerve and pushing go-aheadness of the typical American will be shown in its true quality. The piece which claims to do this is Manager U. D. Newell's great comedy drama, "An American Hobo," which not only depicts the trials, tribulations and hardships of an honest workman who, through adverse stress of circumstances, was compelled to be a hobo, but it also shows the magnanimity of this same tramp, who, after being rehabilitated in society, not only forgives but forgets all the injustice that has been done him and aids others equally distressed to bear their burden and become reconciled to fate. The play, while playing on the heart strings, also contains many ludicrous and laughter provoking situations and intensely interesting and stirring climaxes. There will be specialties of an interesting nature. The cast is the best that is obtainable and contains such well known names as Miss Rhea Lusby, William Baker (Happy Jack), Horace Vinton, Virginia Melville, Edna Clayton and Vera Wilson.

Who was your grandfather of 1600 years ago? We know how to trace your forefathers back, perhaps far beyond the origin of your family name. Please enclose a stamp for reply when you write, for we work cheap. Address Samuel B. Huddleson, Dublin, Ind.

"The Isle of Spice" is underlined for the Gennett theatre Tuesday, February 9th. This is another big one you will do well to keep your eye on the date.

But many a woman who has gladly faced poverty for the man she loved, may well doubt her wisdom when pain becomes the mate of poverty. If she were rich, she thinks, she could find a way of cure. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is within the reach of every one. It lifts the burden of pain which weighs down those who suffer from womanly diseases. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"You have my heartfelt thanks for your kind advice to me," writes Mrs. Geo. Fletcher, of 106 Victoria Avenue, Galt, Ontario. "Was troubled with catarrh of uterus for over a year. The doctors said I would have to go through an operation, but I commenced to use Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Antiseptic and Healing Suppositories.' Now I am completely cured, after using six bottles of Dr. Pierce's medicines. I am glad to say my medicine has made me a new woman."

Weak and sick women, especially those suffering from diseases of long standing, are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are easy and pleasant to take. A most effective laxative.

Indianapolis, Feb. 2.—The eyes of the Republicans of Indiana are again turned towards Washington, for it is hinted that big doings are going on relative to this state. Chairman Goodrich and H. C. Starr, of the executive committee are there in conference with Senators Fairbanks and Beveridge and other leaders of the Hoosier delegation. The situation in this state it is understood is being very carefully considered. It is not all that could be desired now because of some few internal quarrels not unnaturally arising from a party being in power so long. However, Chairman Goodrich and his associates are confident of being able to straighten matters out before the campaign opens. The Washington conference will probably settle the date for the state convention and it is quite generally believed it will be held the third or fourth week of April.

Judge Samuel R. Artman, of Lebanon, in deciding that the legislative reapportionment act was unconstitutional made one statement that will bear repeating—that is, that it was evidently constructed on the principle of David Harum to do unto the other fellow as he would do unto you, but do it first. It is probable that the Democrats would have done the same as the Republicans under the same conditions, but one thing is certain and that is that there are not many politicians here who seem a whit worried over the decision, for many Republicans fought the bill and were secretly hoping it would not stand the test. Of course there is a possibility that it will be held constitutional when it goes before the supreme court but that is hardly thought likely. Judge Artman himself is a prominent Republican and for that reason very probably wanted the bill to stand owing to the manifest advantage it gave his party, but he decided it on what he regarded as its merits and the supreme court will do the same. Under the bill the Democrats could have carried the state by a majority of 30,000 and yet the Republicans would have had the legislature by thirty on joint ballot and to have carried the legislature at all the Democrats would have had to have rolled up a majority of over 60,000, something neither of the old parties has ever done.

P. H. McCormack, of Columbus, who has been mentioned as a probable candidate for the Democratic nomination for congress in the Fourth district, was here today on business. He is one of the leading Democrats of his part of the state and he admits he aspires to become a congressman, but does not know for sure whether or not he will run. There has been talk of George Caldwell, of Columbus, former mayor of that place, becoming a candidate. McCormack will not run if Caldwell does. Caldwell will not enter if McCormack does so neither may run. As the situation stands now Lincoln Dixon, of North Vernon, former district committeeman, is the only candidate to succeed Congressman Griffith and as the latter is his close friend and as Dixon is very popular the chances are that he will be the leading man. McCormack, however, says there are likely to be several candidates.
