FAIRBANKS AND THE VICE PRESIDENCY.

Senator Fairbanks is growing more and more popular as the days go by. His dignified silence on the question of his candidacy for the vice presidency is attracting much attention throughout the country. The people love a man of distinguished ability and at the same time great enough to be modest.

We believe that President Roosevelt would rather have Senator Fairbanks for running mate than any other man in the middle west. Such a man as Fairbanks will add strength to the national ticket, and, in case of the death of President Roosevelt, he would be just as capable to assume the duties of President as any man that ever held that position.

Indiana is an important factor in the presidential campaign and the Republican party will have no "walk over" in the election of 1904. A party in power is always weaker than a party out of power. If such a thing as defeat should come to the Republicans in Indiana, it would be due to two causes. First the attempts and partial success of the papers—quasi Republican papers—that tried so hard to make trouble between the friends of Senator Beveridge and Fairbanks. The fact is the friends of these two distinguished gentlemen do not belong to two factions but are all Republicans. The second cause of a possible defeat would be the fine organization of the Democrats throughout the state. They may seem not to be united now on any particular candidate for the presidency, but after the St. Louis convention, they will be united and will have to be reckoned with. With Senator Fairbanks on the ticket, either in the first or second place, would insure Indiana in the Republican column. Indiana can say to the National Republican convention: "Give us Fairbanks for Vice-President and we will give you Indiana sure."

Some of the anti-Steele Republicans are seared because the veteran ex-congressman has announced that he will be in the race again this year in the eleventh district. Mr. Steele served this district long and well, and, just because he stayed away from the district two years ago, attending to his duties at Washington, he was defeated for the nomination.

Both Houses of Congress seem to be anxious to adjourn about May 1st. This is a very important year in American politics and many senators and representatives want to look after their own and their friends' fences before the National convention in June.

Charles W. Stivers of the Liberty Herald is a candidate for state senator in the district composed of Fayette, Henry and Union. Mr. Stivers is a loyal Republican and a man eminently qualified for the position he seeks. The Palladium wishes him success.

Two young men courted the same girl in Kentucky. She could not decide which she loved best. They decided the matter themselves in the good old Kentucky way and dwell today in that country where there is neither marrying nor giving in marriage.

In Des Moines, Iowa, the school board compel the lady teachers to wear short skirts so they will not stir up and dust. The old fashioned teacher did not stir up much dust on the floor, but he did sometimes dust the boys jackets a la mode.

"We must organize our full strength and choose the Roosevelt delegates from among our friends." This, from the last letter that Senator Hanna wrote, leaves little or no doubt as to his attitude toward President Roosevelt.

Today gives just a little promise of spring, but no robins have been heard yet, neither has any new maple syrup been offered to our merchants.

There seems to be no doubt of the election of Gen. Dick to succeed the late Marcus A. Hanna as United States senator from Ohio.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

ly local application as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous services.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Perfect Confidence.

Where there used to be a feeling of uneasiness and worry in the household when a child showed symptoms of croup, there is now perfect confidence. This is owing to the uniform success of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the treatment of that disease. Mrs. M. I. Basford, of Poolesville, Md., in speaking of her experience in the use of that remedy says: "I have a world of confidence in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for I have used it with perfect success. My child Garland is subject to severe attacks of croup and it always gives him prompt relief." For sale by A. G. Luken & Co. and W. H. Sudhoff, corner fifth and Main streets.

Elwood	64	28	36	.438
Indianapolis	62	26	36	.418

Despite the many other attractions last night, and it being an off night in polo, a goodly number witnessed the game between Richmond and Indianapolis. Cunningham, jr., and George Bone played together like veterans. Cunningham, jr., played second rush instead of Cunningham, sr. He was given a very warm reception. The entire home team played a good game, and the Indians were not in it for a minute. Line-up and summary:

The Muncie team played at Marion yesterday afternoon and won the game by a score of 9 to 3. Marion played at Muncie at night and lost to Muncie for the second time. The score stood 11 to 6.

Elwood was at Anderson in the afternoon and lost the game by a score of 4 to 2. The same teams played again at night with a like result, but a different score—5 to 3. The games were fast and interesting.

Central League Standing.

Clubs.	Played.	W.	L.	Pct.
Fort Wayne	64	43	21	.672
Kokomo	64	30	24	.556

Terre Haute	60	28	32	.467
Danville	60	27	33	.456
Logansport	59	19	40	.322

Terre Haute took a game from Danville last night. The score stood 5 to 3 and the game was interesting.

Lafayette was at Fort Wayne and lost an interesting game to the leaders. The score stood 7 to 5.

Notes.

Don't young "Cunny" and Bone play a great game. They work together like old veterans.

Richmond plays at Indianapolis tonight.

"Fighting Jack" McCarthy was given his release from the Central league last night.

Ed. Gavitt, Lafayette's speedy second rush, has asked for his release, but it will not be granted.

The amateur game at the Coliseum last night was between the Giants and Elks, and proved very interesting, the little fellows playing a very even game until the last period, when the Elks made enough goals to win by a score of 7 to 3.

Nothing Equals Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Dr. P. B. Spears, of Pinehard, Ala., has become acquainted with the good qualities of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and uses it in his own family and in his practice. He says: "It beats any preparation I have ever seen for all bowel complaints. I do not think of recommending any other, and also use it with my own children." This remedy is for sale by A. G. Luken & Co. and W. H. Sudhoff, corner fifth and Main streets.
