Lent is drawing to a close. Next Sunday is Palm Sunday and the following Sunday is Easter. According to date, we are now in spring. About this season of the year the average woman is looking for new "togs" for Easter—the day of all days on which to be on dress parade. If the weather is at all propitious the merchants will have a swell Easter business. The new things in toggery are light and airy and very attractive.

$50,000

GIVEN AWAY

The Board of Directors of the Louisiana Purchase Souvenir Coin Company will set aside an appropriation of $50,000, which will be presented, in its entirety, to the person who sends us a correct estimate of the EXACT number of paid admissions to the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, which opens at St. Louis April 30th, and closes December 1st, 1904.

Should no one succeed in estimating the exact number, the money will be presented to the one who sends us the nearest correct estimate. This Golden opportunity to secure a magnificent fortune costs NOTHING. Our object in making this unprecedented offer is to advertise and promote the sale of our Souvenir Coins of Admission to the World's Fair. These Souvenir Coins of Admission are of artistic and appropriate design, are invaluable as mementos of this greatest of all Expositions, and are similar to the Columbian Half Dollar, aside from their intrinsic value. We will accept them in exchange for regular tickets of admission to the World's Fair, and for this purpose will maintain a ticket office at the main entrance to the Fair grounds, which will be open every day during the World's Fair period. Everybody wants one of these Souvenirs, but only a limited number will be offered for sale. Price 50 cts. With every Souvenir Coin of Admission purchased we allow one estimate to be made and filed, of the total number of paid admissions to the Fair. No one has any advantage in this contest. YOU are just as likely to get the $50,000 in gold as any one. It is all pure luck. Should there be more than one correct estimate, the $50,000 will be divided equally between the persons making the exact or nearest correct estimates. There may be no ties or dividing of this money; the enormous sum of $50,000 may be received by one person. WHY NOT YOU? The Lucky Winner will be notified the instant the official announcement of the total number of paid admissions is made by the Louisiana Purchase Exposition Company. We will also pay all of your expenses to St. Louis and will deliver the $50,000 IN ONE GREAT

BAG OF GOLD as soon as you reach this city. The total paid admissions to

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Jane Lewellen Ankerman departed this life March 2, 1904, aged 77 years, 1 month and 23 days. She was born in Preble county, Ohio, January 7th, 1827, and was united in marriage to Daniel Ankerman, Dec. 24, 1854, who preceded her to the better world, eleven years ago. She united with the church of the United Brethren in Christ, nearly forty years ago. She was of a family of thirteen children, two sisters and four brothers survive her. She leaves one daughter, Mrs. Samuel Myers, and one son, James A., three granddaughters, one great-grandchild, Mildred Coppock, of Richmond. The funeral services were held at the home of Samuel Myers on the Middleboro Pike, Friday at 10 o'clock, Rev. Chamness officiating. Several selections were sung by ladies of the Fifth Street M. E. choir. The floral emblems were beautiful. A large concourse of friends and relatives followed her remains to Earlham cemetery where she was laid to rest by the side of her husband. The writer has had many years acquaintance with Mrs. Ankerman, and can testify to her sterling qualities; always of a bright, cheerful disposition, generous in both deeds and words and never more so than in her last illness which was of several weeks duration, and made all preparation for the final change she felt must come ere long, as cheerfully as if she were preparing for some pleasant journey, for such as these, the minister's words were doubly true. "Oh, Grave, where is thy Victory, oh death, where is thy sting?" Only those who are left behind feel the parting grief, and to those I will say, "No parting words will ere be spoken in yonder home so fair, but, songs of joy and peace and gladness we'll sing for ever there." The following lines were dedicated to the family by a very dear friend.

THE FAMILY They Rest

Write, Blessed are the dead which died in the Lord."

I ponder oftentimes, when I hear the evening chimes,
Which ring when day is over for the Lord's blessed dead;
When the burden has been lifted, and the last prayer is said,
How they rest from their labors.

Where is the cool green grass, that invites them as they pass
To lie down beside still waters, and forget past pain,
And fear no more the pressure of unrelaxing strain,
But to rest from their labors?

Are the whispers of those trees any softer than are these
Which soothed them here below in their moments of rest?
Ah! they find God's perfect peace in those islands of the blest,
Where they rest from their labors

Sometimes in sunset gleams, or in pictures of my dreams,
I see them in God's garden where the lilies are most fair,
And, ah! the lovely music that is filling the sweet air,
While they rest from their labors.

None may seek them to employ, they have leisure to enjoy,
No summons may disturb them, for they need not delve nor weave;
They may keep their holiday, for the Lord has given them leave

To rest from their labors.

Nor the cold, nor the heat, nor the sense of defeat
Shall trouble them again through the long, long day;
All the sin and the sorrow, and the care have passed away,
Now they rest from their labors.

O! happy, happy band in the dear Fatherland,
I am fain to come and join you in the presence of the King,
To sleep beside the river, and to hear the angels sing,
And to rest from my labors.

But my time is fixed above, and I do the work I love,
And I find a new charm in it as the night draws near;
So I wait and do my best till that morning shall appear
When I rest from my labors.

And there is a heaven below, for Christ lets me know
That he dwells with his servants, and gives them strength;
It is sweet to work and wait, till he grant me leave at length
To rest from my labors.

COUNTY COUNCIL & COMMISSIONERS

Met This Afternoon and Heard Talks of Citizens.

The county council and commissioners, with citizens, met this afternoon at the court house. The bridge matter was brought up, also the soldiers' cottage. The latter matter was turned down, and the bridge matter was deferred until the September meeting.

Speeches were made by A. C. Lindemuth. He said there were six bridges north of Main and none south. Mr. Gennett and Mr. Cunningham also spoke favorably. Mr. Weber was there with bridge plans and displayed them.

CHESTER.

Rev. Ellis will deliver his lecture on the Holy Land next Friday evening, March 25th, the last number of the series given under the auspices of the Epworth League.

Mrs. Morris Pitman donated an organ to the Goshen Union Sabbath school which will help greatly in the Sunday-school music.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hodgkin and daughter, Nellie, visited at Milton Hodgkin's, Fountain City, Wednesday.

Mrs. Rench left for her home in Covington, O., last evening after a visit with her daughter, Mrs. J. M. Myers.

George Ade Causes More Laughter.
George Ade's new book, Breaking Into Society, was published by Harper & Brothers on March 3. It consists of a number of new fables in Mr. Ade's funniest vein. Under the humor appear the sound common-sense and genial irony characteristic of this young American's work. In this volume his shafts are aimed chiefly at the newly-rich who aspire to social success. Mr. Ade is now in New York, where his play "The County Chairman" is still running as one of the season's successes. This will shortly be followed in New York by a new play of Mr. Ade's entitled, "The Shotgun."

CIRCUS TIME.

Ringling Bros. circus will be in Hamilton on May 3.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS.

Aiken.—The funeral of Miss Rebecca Aiken will take place Thursday afternoon at 2:30 from her home, on north B street. Friends may call tonight.

Alaska is a great empire, of the size of which few people have any conception. It is more than 550 times as large as the state of Rhode Island and nearly equals in area all the states of the Union east of the Mississippi river.

A French professor has been inquiring into the comparative criminality of the professions. He finds that the conviction for every 100,000 of each are as follows: Lawyers, 100; artists, thirty-three; doctors, twenty-five; lay teachers, nineteen; clerical teachers, seven; Catholic clergy, four.

OPENING SPRING MILLINERY.
