A pleasant surprise party was given Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Rich, Saturday evening, at their home, 152 Chestnut street. About forty of their friends from the country arrived at 7 o'clock, informally taking full possession of the house. The guests informed their host that, being a day too late for an "April Fool's" party they had substituted a surprise. The evening was pleasantly spent in euchre, pedro and finch, and about 12 o'clock, a light luncheon was served. The guests, who were as follows, spent a most delightful evening: Messrs. and Mesdames Wesley Sullivan, Willis Rich, Edward Dietemeyer, Joseph Starr, R. M. A number of short articles bearing on the subject were read by various members, and Miss Virginia Colburn entertained the society with an excellent talk on the work of the missionaries who have gone to Africa. After the program the members enjoyed a pleasant social time and Miss Stella Brush sang a solo, which was well received. The place of the next meeting was not definitely decided, but will be announced later.

The Nomads were entertained Saturday evening at the home of the Misses Williams, on north sixth street. The topic for the meeting was "Chopin—His Life and Compositions," and the program, arranged by Misses Pearl Green, Jean Dunlop and Anne Wilson, consisted of papers on the composer's life and renditions of the best known of his works. OIL FOR THE BODY

You can't lose an atom without feeling it. The body is like an engine, a watch, a machine; must be kept in good order to run right.

That's the reason Scott's Emulsion is so successful in all wasting diseases. It feeds, nourishes and strengthens when ordinary food won't.

Doctors say Scott's Emulsion is the best nourishment for those who are not as well as they should be.

We use the whole oil in Scott's Emulsion because the great reputation of cod liver oil as a food and medicine was made by using it in this way. Substitutes in the shape of wines, cordials, extracts, etc., should be carefully avoided.

We'll send you a sample free upon request. SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl Street, New York.

present with a fine piano solo. The entertainment next week will be furnished by the eloquent department of Earlham college, under the leadership of Prof. E. P. Trueblood. The entertainment will consist of recitations and musical selections.

The Christian Endeavor society of the First Presbyterian church is making arrangements for a "Japanese Social," to be given at the church the last of this month. Committees have been appointed to arrange matters preparatory to the first rehearsal, which will occur soon. This society, a few weeks ago, gave a decidedly successful entertainment under the leadership of Mrs. H. L. Sullivan, but the coming event will be of a different character, having more of a social nature.

The Saturday Evening Whist club, composed of members of the Country club, held its regular meeting Saturday at the club house, west of the city. The Ladies' Auxiliary of the South Eighth Street Friends' church held an Easter market and fair Saturday in the Commercial club room, which was a decided financial success, a very tidy sum being realized. The room was thronged during the entire afternoon.

The Easter market given by the Epworth league of Grace Methodist Episcopal church, Saturday, was satisfactory in every respect, and the ladies in charge of the affair deserve to be complimented highly for the success of their endeavors.

A large number of young people attended the regular Saturday evening dance given in the I. O. O. F. hall last week.

Taking Desperate Chances.

It is true that many contract colds and recover from them without taking any precaution or treatment, and a knowledge of this fact leads others to take their chances instead of giving their colds the needed attention. It should be borne in mind that every cold weakens the lungs, lowers the vitality, makes the system less able to withstand each succeeding cold and paves the way for more serious diseases. Can you afford to take such desperate chances when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cures of colds, can be had for a trifle? For sale by A. G. Luken & Co., and W. H. Sudhoff, corner fifth and Main.

"Ideal Bread" is delivered fresh to the grocer every morning. Insist on having it; take no other.

MRS. BENNETT, CINCINNATI'S NOTED SOPRANO, AT MUSICAL CLUB WEDNESDAY EVENING.

Don't forget to look for the Red, White and Blue label when buying bread. "Ideal."

Why buy bread of a poor and indifferent quality when you can get "Ideal Bread" at the same price.

George Cunningham, jr. and Geo. Bone deny the report that has been circulated that they propose starting a movement toward the organization of a players' union. They say they are not in favor of such a plan. A union of this style was tried in the game of baseball and proved a dismal failure.

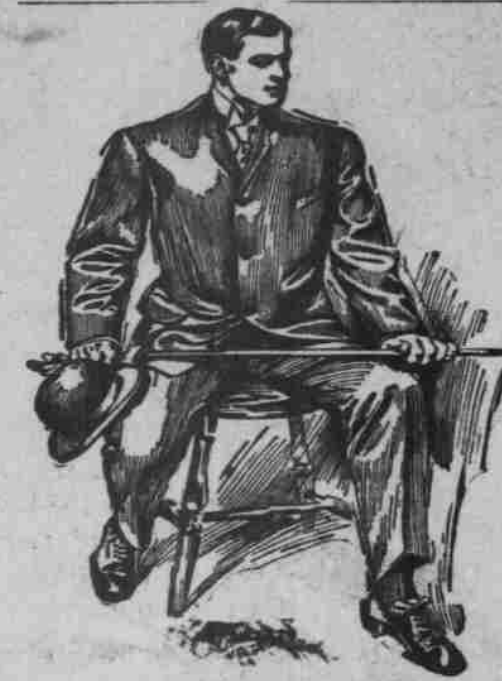

President Norton, of the Western League, has called a meeting for Friday of this week. It will be the annual meeting and all league business will be closed, as the last games are to be played on Saturday night. Mercer and Wodtke, of the Anderson team, will leave for their eastern homes early Sunday morning. All of the players will have returned home by the last of this month, but it is a betting proposition that all will be back ready and eager for the fray next season. The players have the well wishes of the sporting writers and fans of both circuits.

Richmond has been very fortunate this season in having a good utility rush who could jump into the game at any minute and keep up the pace. Cunningham, sr., now fills that role with credit. If some of the other managers had taken the trouble to carry a good extra man the positions of the teams might have been slightly reversed.
