THE MANAGERS DECIDE RIGHT

THE PROTESTED GAMES STAND
AS PLAYED—RICHMOND ON TOP.

MR. HENLEY AND FOX

Had a Little Bout, Which Ends up
Without Much Damage—Two Proposition Rejected.

Great interest was manifested in this city in the outcome of the meeting of the Western Roller Polo league managers at Anderson yesterday. The decision was in favor of Richmond, and the pennant belongs to the home team and it will be presented to them at the game next Wednesday night. Fox and Henley got into an altercation when affidavits were introduced by Fox in regard to the Marion Richmond game at Richmond Wednesday evening. One of these affidavits was signed by Mr. Stinson, proprietor of the Marion club. When Fox introduced it Henley sprang to his feet and called Stinson a liar. Mr. Stinson said nothing, but Fox took it up, and after some high words he called Henley a "—liar." Henley immediately clinched with him, and they had a lively wrestle for a few seconds. The others in the room started to interfere, and Jessup, of Richmond, reached the combatants first. Fox evidently thought Jessup came to help Henley, instead of to part them, and he tried to strike Henley, but was prevented. No blows were actually landed during the melee, and the only damage resulting was a badly mussed collar for Fox and a scratched cheek for Henley. During the rest of the meeting both men talked pretty loud, but no further fighting was indulged in.

The meeting was called for the purpose of discussing Fox's protest on playing of Farrell, of Muncie, in the Richmond-Indianapolis game Tuesday night and the Marion-Richmond game. The managers decided that both games will stand as played.

After the decision Fox offered to post $1,100, of which $600 was put up by himself and his men and $500 by Stinson, with Secretary Durbin, President Norton or any one Henley might select, to cover a series of three games between Marion and Richmond, to be played on neutral ground.

Henley refused this offer, but made a counter proposition, to the effect that he would bet Fox $500 on one game, to be played at Richmond. Fox also refused.

As announced a day or so ago, Durbin and Norton tendered their resignations, but it was not considered advisable to accept them until after the formal awarding of the pennant. The resignations will be accepted at the annual meeting of the board, which probably will be held within the next two weeks. Men outside the ranks will be elected for next year, and an arbitration board of three disinterested men probably will be selected also. The proposition of putting the league on a percentage basis will come up for consideration at this meeting, and the managers seem more favorable to the proposition than in former years.

Mr. Henley is at home today, and, from all appearances, came out of yesterday's battle without a scar. Even the scratch that the dispatches said he had did not appear on his face this morning. He is very proud of the fact, however, that the decision was in favor of Richmond, and he did not see what other decision could have been arrived at.

'BOWERS'

The Cartoonist, to be in Richmond
Soon.

As announced in the Palladium some days since the well known cartoonist of the "Indianapolis News," Frank Bowers, or "Bowers," as his signature proclaims him, will give an illustrated talk on "Cartoons and Cartoonists," on the evening of Friday, April 15th, in High school hall. This is the first entertainment of the kind ever given in this city and insures Mr. Bowers a large audience. "Bowers" is one of the best known cartoonists in the United States, his cartoons for "The News," having given him a wide spread reputation. This is a form of art in which everyone is particularly interested as it comes under daily notice and the names of many artists of this class are household words. Mr. Bowers is being brought here by The Richmond Sketch Club, one of the oldest art organizations in the city, and to cover the expense of the affair a small admission will be charged. Tickets can be procured at the office of The Palladium and other places as hereafter announced.

INDIANA MAY BE HONORED

AT THE NATIONAL CONVENTION OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY.

IN CHICAGO IN JUNE

Senators Fairbanks and Beveridge and Congressman Watson Mentioned in Connection With Chairmanship.

At the Republican national convention at Chicago it seems as if Indiana will be honored several times. The temporary and permanent chairmanships are eagerly sought after. At these great gatherings Indiana has always stood well, and this time will prove no exception to the rule. The names of Fairbanks, Beveridge and Watson have been mentioned for the chairmanship. A dispatch from Washington says:

"At the Philadelphia convention in 1900 Indiana was given one of the highest honors, Senator Fairbanks having been made chairman of the committee on resolutions. At the Chicago gathering the Hoosier state will undoubtedly be conspicuous. There is a chance that either Senator Beveridge or Representative Watson may be selected for one of the chairmanships. Both have many friends among the party leaders, and each hold high rank as orators in the respective houses."

MARIE KAUFMAN

Sang Sweetly at Christian Church Revival—"Baptism by Analogy"
Rev. Legg's Theme.

Evangelist T. J. Legg spoke to another crowded house at the Christian church last night. His subject, "Baptism by Analogy," was handled not only with great force and clearness, but with charity and broad-mindedness toward all who differ with him. Two persons united with the church. The singing of Miss Marie Kaufman, last night, is worthy of special mention. Her voice is sweet and clear, and she sang a simple gospel song with great effectiveness.

Another treat is in store for those who attend tonight. Miss Margaret Windsor, the well-known singing evangelist, of Muncie, Ind., will be present to sing.

Miss Windsor, who has sung in revival meetings all over the country, has gained a national reputation as a singer of great sweetness and power.

Mr. Legg announces as his subject tonight the interesting theme, "A Safe Position." Service at 7:30 p. m.

PEDAGOGUES AT WINONA

REGULAR AND SECTIONAL SEC-TIONS ADDRESSED BY NOTED LECTURERS.

RICHMOND EDUCATORS

Have a Leading Part in the Proceedings of the Various Sections.

The Northern Indiana Teachers' association at Winona is holding one of the best meetings in its history. They have as lecturers some of the most noted educators in the country. W. W. Stetson, state superintendent of Maine, is the lecturer on literature and the literary training of the teacher.

Prof. Wilbur F. Gordy, of Hartford, Conn., is devoting his time to the "Ethical Value of History." Besides the general meetings, there are six sections holding round tables, where they can discuss topics distinctly belonging to their respective departments.

President Kelly, of Earlham college, has a prominent place on the program. Superintendent Mott of the Richmond public schools, was the retiring president, and is mentioned among those who have led in the discussions.

George R. Neudling was one of the evening lecturers and selected as his subject "The Imperial Book."

Officers for the ensuing year and a place of meeting will be selected before adjournment this morning.

BRIDGE MATTERS LYING DORMANT

ENTHUSIASM IN REGARD TO IT HAS CONSIDERABLY ABATED.

NO WORK WILL BE DONE

On it Until 1905—Laid Too Summarily on the Shelf, Think Many.

The interest and enthusiasm in regard to the project for the south side bridge has abated considerably. The county commissioners laid the matter on the shelf at their meeting until the meeting in September, and so nothing can be done until that time, and it is very probable that work will not be started on the bridge, if indeed it should be built at all, until the fall of 1905. Somehow or other, it is felt by all as though the commissioners did not give the matter the attention it deserved in summarily setting it aside for almost a year. Enthusiasm ran high on the question and it was expected that the commissioners would take some definite and immediate action on the matter, especially after the good reasons for its building, put forth at the meeting of the South Side Improvement association, council and the commissioners.

A well known business man who is greatly interested in this scheme said this morning that, for his part, he did not believe any action would be taken on the matter in September. The commissioners will then be very busy, and, being so near winter, no action in regard to the actual work of construction can be taken, and so the matter will lie until spring. But, at that time, every effort will be put forth to have the bridge built during the next summer.

BUTTONS DID NOT ARRIVE

FOR SOME REASON THEY HAVE NOT ARRIVED—WILL BE HERE MONDAY.

PEOPLE ARE DIVIDED

As to the Probable Success or Failure of the Scheme for "Boom" Purposes.

The buttons, which are to be sold for the purpose of booming Richmond, have not yet arrived. It was confidently expected that they would come this morning and that the sale of them would start Monday, but, for some reason or other, the buttons did not materialize as the promoters of the scheme expected.

However, they will be here sure by the first of next week, when the active work on the sale of them to start the "boom" which has been lying dormant for some time, will be commenced.

In regard to the probable success or failure of the scheme as a means of booming the city little is definitely known. As in almost everything, the people are divided, by far the larger part being confident of the success of the scheme and sanguine that enthusiasm will be awakened by the use and sale of these buttons. The buttons will be about an inch and a quarter wide, with "I'm for Richmond" in black letters on a white ground. They will be put on sale sometime next week.

LODGE OF EAGLES INSTITUTED HERE

NEW SECRET SOCIETY FOR RICHMOND LAUNCHED
LAST NIGHT.

107 CHARTER MEMBERS

Anderson Degree Team Initiated the Local Lodge—Officers and Members.

A lodge of another new order, that of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, was installed last evening in Richmond. G. M. Ballard, of Anderson, state deputy grand president, was here to take charge of the installation of the new order. The local lodge has been forming for some time, and started in with one hundred and seven charter members, and the prospects of a successful first year are very bright. The Anderson degree team of the lodge of Eagles, which initiated the new lodge, arrived here yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, and was met at the Union station by the local aerie and the band.

Despite the drizzling rain which was falling, a parade was formed and marched up tenth street, around the city a while and then went to the Odd Fellows' hall, the band "tooting" all the way, and the members of both aeries, with collars turned up and hands in their pockets, striding along. The order of the parade was as follows:

John Leonard, originator of the local aerie.

The band.

Anderson degree team and Eagles. Richmond Eagles.

A part of the ritualistic work was conferred yesterday afternoon by Mr. Ballard but the "run for the money" occurred last night.

After supper the members of both aeries assembled in the Odd Fellows' hall, where with great pomp and ceremony the installation of the new order took place. The Anderson degree team initiated the new order with great ceremonies, and, after the initiation, at 10 o'clock, a fine banquet took place. Speeches were made by Anderson and Richmond "Big Eagles" and toasts were given and responded to.

The officers of the local lodge for the first year were elected last night as follows:

Vice President—Murray Hill.
Secretary—Franklin Moore.

AN EX-QUEEN DEAD.

JAMES SMITH'S BODY FOUND

AT THE JUNCTURE OF THE ST.
MARY'S AND ST. JOE RIVERS.

DEAD AT LEAST THREE WEEKS

A Richmond Man With Several Relatives Living Here—Son of John Smith.

Superintendent of Police Gorman received a dispatch from Ft. Wayne authorities this morning stating that the body of James Smith, son of John Smith, of Richmond, was found. The following account of the sad finding was in the morning papers:

"Fort Wayne, Ind., April 9.—The body of James Smith, a canvasser, aged thirty-seven years, was found at the junction of the St. Joe and the St. Mary's rivers today. Smith was last seen three weeks ago, and was then under the influence of liquor. No one had missed him since then; his business often taking him out of town. Coroner Stultz said today that the body had been dead several weeks, and it is supposed that after he was seen at that time he fell into the high water and drowned."

"He was born and for many years lived in Richmond, where he worked at his trade as a plumber, and where a brother and sister now live."

The John Smith referred to in the telegram to Superintendent Gorman, lives on Sheridan street, this city, and when the message was shown him, he said it must be his son, James, for he had not heard from him for some time. His son James is about thirty-six years old and was morn and reared in this city, at the old Smith homestead, near the old Sevastopol school house.

The evening will also be interspersed with vocal and instrumental music. After the program all are requested to remain for the social to be held in the church parlors. The social committee requests every lady to bring lunch for herself and partner. The lunch is to be restricted to four articles of food. That is, each lunch is to contain two articles of each kind, making four in all. A pleasant social hour has been arranged. No admission will be charged.
