Worth Remembering.

Sample bottles of this great kidney, liver and bladder remedy are being distributed from drug stores—Have you received one?

Taking Desperate Chances.

It is true that many contract colds and recover from them without taking any precaution or treatment, and a knowledge of this fact leads others to take their chances instead of giving their colds the needed attention. It should be borne in mind that every cold weakens the lungs, lowers the vitality, makes the system less able to withstand each succeeding cold and paves the way for more serious diseases. Can you afford to take such desperate chances when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cures of colds, can be had for a trifle? For sale by A. G. Luken & Co., and W. H. Sudhoff, corner fifth and Main.

Dress That Defies April Showers
 —Dame Fashion's Choice of Oriental Fabrics

Bonnet Taffeta
 In High Favor

But now, thanks to the clever woman, whose own good taste rebelled at the commonplace outer garment, and whose ingenious brain evolved the process of rain-proofing any favorite cloth, we may relegate the humidity engendering abomination, the rubber mackintosh to the shades of with the once respected "Congress Gaiter." Priestley Cravenetted cloths make it possible for lady of today to step fearlessly forth, in her daintiest gown, with her raincoat on her arm, defying alike the sudden cool changes of our fickle climate and the inconsistencies of Mistress April.

How little it takes to start a fashion! For example, ecru returned to the front with the vogue of the "kakhi" cloth worn by the British soldiers in the South African war, and is still with us under the more aristocratic name of "Champagne."

And now the "unpleasantness" in the Orient is creating an unprecedented demand for Oriental fabrics—and never has Dame Fashion chosen more wisely.

Not only is the dainty, picturesque Japanese Kimono more than ever in fashion, but the power of the wonderfully artistic shadings of the Orient to enhance milady's beauty has been borne in upon her, and her gown for all occasions expresses the enchanting touch of the Orient, and her every movement subtly suggests the exquisite odor of Vantine's Sandalwood—that quintessence of all that is Oriental and elusive in scents.

And the silk petticoats! There was a time when it was the exceptional woman who wore a silk petticoat with her morning frock. But we have changed all that, and where one silk petticoat was sold ten years ago, a hundred are purchased today.

Bonnet taffeta, "the kind grandmother wore" was the rich lustrous silk selected for the petticoat here depicted. This silk has that effective softness and silkiness that only the hand-loom can give, and which made it possible in the olden days to hand silk garments down as heirlooms.

Pean de Crepe, of which the charming gown on the left in my illustration is composed is an extremely popular silk for the prevailing much belshirred styles, and in the soft pearl gray here worn with a handsome black picture hat, and long black gloves, makes an exquisite toilet for many occasions.

PRESIDENT COMMERCIAL CLUB,

OF LOUISIANA, SAYS:

"THERE IS NO FINER MEDICINE THAN PE-RU-NA."

W. W. WASHBURN

PRESIDENT LOUISIANA COMMERCIAL CLUB.

Suffered With Kidney and Liver Trouble for Twelve Years—Pe-ru-na Cured Him—Feels Better Than for Twenty Years.

Hon. William Watson Washburn, President of the Louisiana Commercial Club, and a very well known man of New Orleans, La., writes from 637 Canal street:

"I am satisfied that there is not a finer medicine placed before the public to-day than Peru-na. I have been troubled for nearly twelve years with kidney and liver trouble, and at times I have been a pretty sick man, unable to attend to my duties. I had about made up my mind that no medicine could help me, when one of your booklets was brought to my office which I read in a leisure hour. I then decided to give Peru-na a trial and found that I had at last secured the right medicine for me. For two months I used it faithfully and then felt so well I was like a young man once more. This was over a year ago and I have not had any trouble since. Although I am in the seventies I feel better and more active than I did thirty years ago."—W. W. Washburn.

Most derangements of the kidneys are due to catarrh of the kidneys. Peru-na is a catarrh remedy. This explains why it is that Peru-na cures a great number of kidney diseases in which the usual remedies fail.

If you do not receive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peru-na, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, O.

Will Cure Stomach Ache in Five Minutes.

This is just what Painkiller will do; try it. Have a bottle in the house for instant use, as it will save you hours of suffering. Watch out that the dealer does not sell you an imitation, as the great reputation of Painkiller (Perry Davis'), has induced many people to try to make something to sell, said to be "just as good as the genuine." ### THE OPEN CHURCH.
