Best Cough Medicine for Children.

When you buy enough medicine for small children you want one in which you can place implicit confidence. You want one that not only relieves but cures. You want one that is unquestionably harmless. You want one that is pleasant to take. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy meets all of these conditions. There is nothing so good for the coughs and colds incident to childhood. It is also a certain preventive and cure for croup, and there is no danger whatever from whooping cough when it is given. It has been used in many epidemics of that disease with perfect success. For sale by A. G. Luken & Co., and W. H. Sudhoff, corner fifth and Main.

Sheriff's Sale.

By virtue of an execution to me directed from the clerk of the Wayne circuit court, I will expose at public sale at the court house door, in the city of Richmond, Wayne county, Indiana, on the 11th day of May, 1904, between the hours of 10 o'clock a. m. and 4 o'clock p. m. on said day, the following property, to-wit:

Lot No. thirty-five (35) in that part of the city of Richmond, Wayne county, Indiana, laid out by Charles W. Starr. Said lot 35 fronts on Sixth street (now Ninth street), 7 feet, and is 101 feet deep, as appears of record in plat book No. 1, page 21.

Also a certain tract of land adjoining said lot thirty-five (35) on the east, described as follows, to-wit: Beginning at the northeast corner of said lot 35; thence east to an alley laid out by Bickel & Laws; thence south to a point in line with the south side of said lot thirty-five (35); thence west to the southeast corner of said lot; thence north to the place of beginning.

To be sold as the property of George W. Russell to satisfy said execution in my hands in favor of Harry R. Stout, assignee of the Second National Bank. Said sale without relief from valuation or appraisal laws.

RICHARD SMITH,
Sheriff of Wayne County.
