Open church meeting at South Eighth Street Friends' church.

At the home of John Saunders near Muncie, this week, occurred a reunion of the Saunders family, of this state. The event was in honor of Mrs. Joseph Saunders, who is eighty-one years of age today. About seventy-five relatives in all were present, including a large number from this city and Eaton, Ohio.

Word has been received in Richmond of the marriage of Miss Myrtle Stread to Walter Shirey, who lives near Muncie, which was solemnized at the home of Rev. W. B. Shirey at New Paris, this week. The bride was a popular and esteemed young lady of New Paris and had many friends and relatives in this city. Mr. and Mrs. Shirey will reside near Muncie, and several "at-home" cards have been received by Richmond people.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. O'Brien entertained the Tuesday Social Club last evening at their home on south twelfth street. The evening was a very pleasant one spent at progressive euchre and at the close of the games an elegant supper was served and the members spent a short social hour. Mr. and Mrs. McCarthy were the guests of the club for the evening. The place of the next meeting was not decided upon but will be announced later.

Miss Jessie Jay, violinist, Miss Eunice Tracy, pianist and Mr. Harry Paris, tenor soloist, who form the Mendelssohn Trio which has lately sprung into prominence in the musical world gave a recital at Muncie last evening which proved to be one of the best musicales of the season. This trio, each member being a star in his or her line, has been giving a series of recitals lately and has created a furor. The three musicians have been heard here several times and are well known in the social, as well as the musical world, in this city.

The marriage of Mr. Orland Camplin of Anderson to Miss Edith Trindle took place last evening at the home of the bride on north nineteenth street. Rev. Madison Swadener performed the ceremony, his first one in this city. There were no attendants. The decorations of the house, consisting of flowers, palms and colors, were tastefully arranged and the rooms presented a charming appearance. Immediately after the ceremony an informal reception was held from 8 to 10 o'clock which was attended by some twenty of the immediate friends and relatives of the bride and groom. At eleven Mr. and Mrs. Camplin left for a short wedding trip to Anderson and other cities and upon their return will make their home in Anderson, where Mr. Camplin is engaged in business. Mr. Camplin was formerly a resident of this city and is remembered by a large circle of friends. The out of town guests were the Misses Susan and Margaret Kerr, of Union City. Both the contracting parties are well known in this city and they have the best wishes of a host of friends.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the South Eighth Street Friends church held its regular meeting yesterday afternoon in the parlors of the church. The attendance was quite good, nearly all of the members being present. The time of the session was devoted exclusively to quilting and to the transaction of the regular business of the auxiliary, the reports of past work and programs for future work being read and approved. Towards the close of the afternoon the work was laid aside and the ladies enjoyed a short social time.

The L. C. K. Club held a very pleasant meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of the Misses Emma and Victoria Lindemuth, on south fifteenth street. Quite a large number of the members were present, together with several guests of the club. The subject for the afternoon was "Longfellow the Greatest American Poet," and Miss Emma Lindemuth entertained the club with an excellent sketch of the life and works of the poet, narrating the events of his life in chronological order and presenting fine picture of his deeds. She gave lists of his greatest works, telling briefly the cause of their being written and explained their true greatness. Each of the members read a short selection from one or another of Longfellow's poems, after which Miss Lindemuth rendered a fine musical selection, which was well received. A two-course luncheon was daintily served and the members spent the remainder of the afternoon in social enjoyment. Mrs. Knight of south twelfth street, was appointed hostess for the next meeting of the club.

Sixty Years of Popularity is the record of Painkiller (Perry Davis'), but the shops are full of imitations made to sell upon the great reputation of the genuine; be cautious, therefore, when you ask for a bottle to see that you get the genuine. An unfailing remedy for coughs, colds, bronchitis. (5) made by human skill is coarse compared with the linings of the bowels. When this tender membrane is irritated we have griping pains, diarrhoea and cholera morbus. Whatever be the cause of the trouble, take Perry Davis' Painkiller according to the directions with each bottle. Travellers in all climates carry Painkiller in their gripsacks. Large bottles 25 and 50 cents.

Men Will be Boys.

In the excitement of a lively exercise like boat-racing or ball-playing, they will strain their muscles and go home limping and sore. Then they are glad they have Perry Davis' Painkiller on hand to soothe the quivering nerves; to penetrate the muscles with warmth and healing power. It has relieved the pain of two generations of Americans. Large bottles 25 and 50 cents.
