THROUGH TRAINS TO WORLD'S FAIR

CHANGES TO GIVE BETTER FACILITIES FOR REACHING THE EXPOSITION

LIST OF THROUGH

Trains and Time of Leaving—Two All-Pullman Trains—New Trains Are Added.

The Pennsylvania Railroad shows a determination to furnish the best possible service to the World's Fair and on Sunday a new time table which shows greatly increased facilities for reaching the fair, will go into effect. Two trains running through here will be composed entirely of Pullmans, not a day coach being on them. These two fine trains are No. 26, the New York Limited, east bound, which arrives here at 8:40 p. m. and No. 27, the St. Louis Limited, west bound, which leaves for the fair at 4:45 a. m.

Changes.

On the Cincinnati and Chicago division the only change is that No. 45, from Cincinnati will arrive here at 9:50 p. m., instead of 10:50 p. m., in order to make connections with the train for St. Louis which leaves at 10:03 p. m.

No. 19, an accommodation will arrive here from Columbus at 9:00 p. m., instead of at 9:15 p. m. This train will carry the sleeper from Columbus, which will lay over here until 10:30 p. m., when No. 29, the World's Fair Special leaves for St. Louis and will carry it on to St. Louis. No. 28, the Pittsburg Special, is a new train and will arrive from St. Louis at 5:15 a. m., leaving five minutes later. No. 18 will leave for the East at 5:30 a. m., instead of at 5:35 a. m., as heretofore. No. 24, the Ohio and Virginia Express, (a new train) will leave eastward at 9:00 p. m.

On the Dayton and Xenia Division No. 301 will arrive at 9:55 a. m., instead of at 10:00 a. m. in order to easily make connections with No. 21, No. 29, the World's Fair Special, which arrives here at 9:55 p. m., leaving at 10:30 p. m. is former No. 119, changed from a Springfield-Richmond accommodation to a through train. No. 306, the local accommodation to Springfield, will leave here at 5:45 a. m., instead of at 8:15 a. m. The list of trains to and from St. Louis by the new schedule is as follows:
