THE HARLEN SHOOTING AFFAIR

VERY MUCH DEPLORED IN BETHEL AND ALL OVER
THE COUNTRY

HOPES ENTERTAINED

Of Her Recovery, as Encouraging
News Comes From There

Today.

The accidental shooting of Mrs. Harlan by her husband, Rev. Levi Harlan last Wednesday evening is still the main topic about Bethel. Mr. Harlan was shooting at English sparrows and had just fired a shot and was reloading the gun, and as he snapped it back in position to shoot, the shell exploded. Mrs. Harlan had been sitting down but just at this moment raised to her feet, and received the charge in the left breast.

Dr. G. J. Martz of Hollandsburg, was hurriedly called, and after a careful examination failed to locate the bullet, which had struck a rib and glanced into the lung. The complaint of Mrs. Harlan about severe pain under her left shoulder blade, would seem to indicate that the ball had passed through the body and lodged under the shoulder blade. As there is no apparent serious hemorrhage or nervous shock it is not thought that the wound will prove fatal, unless some unseen trouble sets in. This accident is doubly sad because of the fact that Mrs. Harlan was just regaining health from an attack of illness which for a long time was thought would be fatal.

The Palladium received word today that Mrs. Harlan was improving and resting fairly well.

CAMBRIDGE CITY COMMENCEMENT

AT MASONIC OPERA HOUSE
LAST NIGHT WAS A GRAND SUCCESS

THIRTY FIRST ANNUAL

Closing Marks the End of a Very Successful Year.

The thirty-first annual commencement was held in the Masonic opera house last evening and was attended by the usual large audience. The decorations, which consisted of oak boughs, palms, and snow balls, making the green and white to form the class colors, gave a fresh and pleasing effect. The graduates, thirteen in number, namely: Nora Myers, Lorena McLane, Lena Eliason, Edith Doney, Harry Ware, Marie Hodskin, Herbert Reese, Roy Kniese, Beulah Guyton, Eula Nichols, Fred Tuturow, Mabel Kepler, and Anna Freeman, with the instructors, Isadore Wilson, principal; Wm. O. Wissler, assistant, and Lee Ault, superintendent, were seated on a very pretty parlor chairs and divans placed in a semi-circle at the rear of the stage. The different subjects were well handled and were in the main well written and delivered in good style. Each is worthy of praise. The presentation of diplomas by Mrs. Isadore Wilson was especially worthy of note. She spoke feelingly giving good advice and wishing success to the members of the class. The event meant a great deal to all, as it always does, although the graduates will greatly miss the school and kind teachers henceforth. The music which was furnished by the Columbus, Ind., Glee Club, was of the highest order and was highly appreciated by the audience. One number was especially catchy and was greatly applauded. The commencement exercises, as a whole, were a complete success.

FALSE REPORT

Municipal Bond Co., Not Back of C.
G. & R.

Portland, Ind., June 4.—The Portland, Montpelier, Warren and Huntington traction line which was promoted by James West, of Montpelier, has received favorable consideration at the hands of the experts sent out by the Municipal Bonds and Securities company, of Cincinnati, and New York and word has been received from the bond company that the road will be financed. The bond company orders the right-of-way to be taken up at once. The bond issue will amount to $1,600,000 and will all be taken by the one concern. The Municipal Bond Company is behind four roads in Indiana that are either now building or ready to build. These are the Wabash and Rochester, the Vincennes, Louisville and West Baden and the Columbus, Greengrove and Richmond.

Manager Wilson of the C. G. & R. says that the above hasn't the least semblance to truth as far as the C. G. & R. is concerned. The Municipal Bond and Securities company has nothing to do with the C. G. & R.

The police were put on his trail and a description of him sent to other cities and towns. Yesterday Superintendent Gorman received word that the fellow, W. C. Hodges, had been arrested at Anderson and would be held awaiting an official from Richmond. Sergeant Fred Krone went up to Anderson yesterday and brought Hodges here last night. This morning he was arraigned before Mayor Zimmerman when he entered a plea of guilty. He was bound over to circuit court in the sum of $500. The stolen watch was found at one of the local pawn shops one day this week.

USED TURPENTINE

To Ease Her Corns With Bad Results.

The other morning Ellen White of Glen Karn met with a very serious accident. To relieve the pain of her corns, she poured turpentine on them saturating her stockings with it. Then thinking it would help them to warm them, she went out where she had been making soap, where there were a few live coals. No sooner had she come near the coals than the turpentine flashed up with quite a blaze burning all the upper part of her feet.

On Monday evening June 6, 1904, Richmond Camp of Modern Woodmen will give an ice cream social at their camp hall, corner of Main and Sixth streets.

The decorations on dedication day were more beautiful than those of any other state building. The mass of roses made a wonderful sight and attracted crowds and the scent lingered around for a long while. CUCUMBER STORY

It Sounds Well and is an Absolute Fact.

The averageman realizes the fact that there is death in one whole cucumber. At this season of the year most people fight shy of the "green goods." But here is a story told us and vouched for by a west end groceryman. Yesterday he had a nice display of cucumbers in front of his grocery. Two Italians happened along and espied the "cholera morbus makers." One of the fellows picked up two of them and asked the price. He was told they were five cents apiece. He took the two and asked for some salt, which was given him, and the two fellows sat on the curbing and ate the cucumbers. Then one of them asked the groceryman if he would sell six for a quarter and the groceryman nodded assent. He gave him 15 cents more and took four cucumbers and the two resumed their seats on the curbing and with a little more salt cleaned up all six of the cucumbers, each man eating three. The grocery keeper was astonished, bystanders were amazed, and all were awaiting results, thinking the ambulance and undertaker would soon be called. But they went their way seemingly unhurt.

OUR OTHER TRACTION LINE

MR. CASSATT BUSY SECURING
THE RIGHT OF WAY

EIGHTY-FIVE PER CENT

Already Secured—To Make A

Canvass of the Terminals—
Richmond and Greenville.

Mr. J. E. Cassatt, writing to the Hollandsburg Independent about the proposed electric line from Hollandsburg to this city says:

I have now secured 85 per cent of the right-of-way between Greenville and Chester, at practically no outlay of money and those I have not secured, are either non-residents, or were not at home when I called. The width of the right-of-way secured, varies from eighteen to thirty feet, according to the lay of the land and I have made no attempt to get more ground than is necessary to build a railroad on, making due allowance for sidings, curves, cuts, and fills. Associated with me in the promotion of this enterprise, are my brothers, A. C. Cassatt, Esq., of Cincinnati, Ohio, is state senator from that city and also attorney for the Cincinnati Street Railway Company, the Longworth estate and other interests, and G. M. Cassatt, managing Director for Europe for the Remington Typewriter Company, of New York, who resides in London, England. Also some Cincinnati friends who believe in the future of this railway. My proposition to the people of this section, has never varied from that made at the outset, viz: That if a practically free right-of-way given and one fourth of a preferred stock issue of $100,000 was taken up along the line of the road, that would take up the remaining three fourths of the preferred stock issue of the new company and would take the responsibility of bonding the road for what money is required to complete it.

In the meantime I shall also organize my company and make a thorough canvass of the terminals, Richmond and Greenville and the intervening country for subscription to our preferred stock issue. A brief preliminary canvass of this territory last fall, convinced me that the required amount can be raised.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

AN APPEAL FOR HOMES

FOR PEOPLE COMING HERE TO ATTEND CONVENTION
OF

STATE SUNDAY SCHOOLS

The Christian People of the City
Should Come to the Rescue.

The people of Richmond must open their homes; people from all over the state of Indiana are making their plans to come to Richmond June 21 to 23 to the State Sunday School Convention, to the extent of about 1,500. It will not be safe to provide for less than this number. In a recent canvass made of the church homes of the city, places were secured for about 300 people, thus leaving about ten to twelve hundred people yet to be provided for. Surely the Christian people of this community as well as all citizens of Richmond should come to the rescue and provide lodging and breakfast for these noble Sunday school workers. At a meeting of the city executive committee last night, in connection with the pastors of the city, the following appointment was made:

First M. E. church, 150 delegates.
Grace M. E. 150.
Fifth M. E. 50.
Third M. E. 50.
East Main Street Friends 150
South Eighth Street Friends 150.
Whitewater Friends 30.
St. Paul's Lutheran 175.
First English Lutheran 125.
Second English Lutheran 30.
First Presbyterian 150.
Second Presbyterian 50.
United Presbyterian 100.
Christian church 75.
First Baptist 50.
Mt. Moriah 20.
Bethel A. M. E. 20.
Wesleyan M. E. 20.
United Brethren 10.

Each church will canvass its own membership next week; they will also canvass other homes in their territory for lodging and breakfast. The canvass to be finished by Monday evening, June 13th, at which time the city executive committee will report the result. This announcement will be made in every school and church of the city tomorrow, and canvassers will immediately go to work.

Any one reading this announcement who may want to help entertain delegates in order to sustain Richmond's reputation for hospitality, and may not be called upon by the committee, will please telephone your desire to Prof. W. A. Fiske. Residence phone 1395.
