COMPETITION

In the Supply of Medicinal Waters
at New Paris.

It seems that Cedar Springs Hotel Company is not to have a monopoly of the business of marketing medicinal water, and the question whether it will be able to compete with a new enterprise now launched, is yet to be decided. We are reliably informed that Mr. D. H. Mohler is making arrangements to bottle and ship the water of Hutton's Springs, and has already received a large shipment of bottles and cases to be used for that purpose. It is true that Hutton's Springs have been running in a drain tile under a cultivated field for some years, but there is nothing to prevent bringing it to the surface again, and with two strong firms in this business New Paris ought soon to achieve a worldwide fame in this line.—New Paris Mirror.

HOT SHOTS

Fired at Our Councilmen by the New Paris Mirror.

The New Paris Mirror, in discussing the action of council in the Fifth ward saloon matter says:

It is easily conceivable that there will be blood on the moon in the fifth ward and that the people of Richmond will not soon forget the outrageous treatment accorded them by their alleged representatives in council. Such a condition was foreshadowed by several speeches made from the lobby after the vote had been taken.

The five who had principle enough to respect the will of the majority and to array themselves on the right side of a great moral question were:
H. W. Deuker, Jas. E. Harris, O.
A. Leftwich, W. P. O'Neal and C. S.
Neal.

WE THINK SO NEITHER.

Du hast Wolken, gnadige Retterin,
Einzuhüllen unschuldig Verfolgte, Und auf Winden dem eh'rnen Geschiek sie
Aus den Armen, über das Meer,
Über der Erde weiteste Strecken
Und wohin es dir gut dunkt zu tra-gen.
