"UNDER THE OAKS"

Republican Party Celebrates Semi-Centennial of Its Organization.

SIGNIFICANT MEETING

In a Beautiful Oak Grove at Jackson, Mich., Scenes of Fifty Years Ago Were Recalled.

Among Those Present Were a Number Who Voted For Nominee of First Convention.

Jackson, Mich., July 7.—Nearly 10,000 people assembled in a picturesque oak grove in the outskirts of this city to celebrate the semi-centennial anniversary of the birth of the Republican party. It was in a smaller oak grove at the opposite end of Jackson, that fifty years ago yesterday the first state convention that was held under the name of "Republican" took place. Here the initial Republican state ticket was then placed in nomination.

Secretary of State John Hay was the orator of the day and United States Senator Charles W. Fairbanks of Indiana, Republican candidate for vice president, and Speaker Joseph G. Cannon of the national house of representatives, were also present and delivered addresses. On the platform was seated a representative delegation of the Republican leaders of this state, headed by United States Senators R. A. Alger and J. C. Burrows. Senator Burrows presided over the afternoon session and Senator Alger was the last speaker of the afternoon.

Behind the speaker's platform rose a wall of bright-colored bunting with immense pictures of John C. Fremont, the first Republican nominee for president, and Abraham Lincoln, the first Republican to occupy the White House, fastened to it. Straight ahead and to the right and left over the heads of the assembled multitude towered scores of splendid oaks. In the front rows of the audience were nearly a thousand men who voted for John C. Fremont for president, some of whom had participated in the original "under the oaks" convention fifty years ago. To this venerable company special reverence was paid, and when two of their number, in their enthusiasm, climbed high up among the branches of two oaks to improve their view, the audience was frantic with approval and delight.

The city of Jackson was in holiday attire, with throngs of visitors constantly passing up and down the streets.

MANY CANDIDATES

The "Running Mate" Question Excites but Little Interest.

St. Louis, July 7.—The vice presidential situation was tersely stated by Major G. V. Menzies of Indiana, himself a vice presidential possibility, when he said: "We will finish the nomination of a presidential candidate before we go to warring about the second place on the ticket. Like the lamented father of the immortal Huckleberry Finn, our motto is 'meat first, spoon vittles afterwards.'"

There was enough of gossip to satisfy, but aside from the movement in behalf of George Turner of Washington, there was no well-defined vice presidential boom. The Indiana delegation was divided in sentiment as to what its position would be if the nomination were to go to that state. John W. Kern and B. F. Shively were being mildly boomed by the Indians, as was also Major G. V. Menzies. In addition to the men already named there was in the various delegations talk of Joseph W. Folk of Missouri, David Rose of Wisconsin, Samuel Alschuler, a former Illinois gubernatorial candidate, James B. Kilbourn of Ohio, Governor Dockery of Missouri, and Edward C. Wall of Wisconsin.

Children Caught on Crossing.
Sioux Falls, S. D., July 7.—A passenger train on the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha railroad last evening near Brandon, ran down a rail, killing three children of Lewis Skogne, instantly killing two boys aged eight and ten, and fatally injuring a girl aged about twelve.

Fierce Bayonet Contest.

General Kuroki's Headquarters in the Field, via Fusan, July 7.—On July 4 two battalions of Russians attempted to break through the Japanese outposts at the northern entrance of Mo Tien pass. Before daylight they surrounded an outpost of eighty men at the foot of a hill and charged the trench above. A bloody encounter with bayonets, lasting a quarter of an hour, ensued. The Russians attacked the trench three times, but were driven up the valley by a Japanese reinforcement, leaving many dead and wounded. An observer saw fifty lying in front of the trench.

Desperate Attempt Frustrated.
Tien Tsin, July 7.—Advices have been received that at 9 p. m. on last Sunday four Japanese destroyers made a determined attempt to enter Port Arthur and attack the Russian fleet. The destroyers were discovered by the shore batteries. One of the destroyers was sunk under Golden hill, another under shore battery No. 22, and a third one had its funnel shot away. The fourth one succeeded in effecting a retreat.

NOTES OF THE GOLFERS

TOURNAMENT WITH FT. WAYNE PROMISES TO BE

ONE OF CONSEQUENCE

Will Richmond Enter State Tournament This Fall?—Local Teams Not in a League.

What promises to be a tournament of consequence is that with Fort Wayne which will be played by the local team at the Country Club links on Saturday, the ninth of July. The Richmond team will be practically the same as that which defeated Anderson last week, and the contest will be an interesting one from all appearances. Contests with individual teams will be the only chances for practice afforded the local team before the state tournament, which occurs this fall. A large crowd will be present to witness the match, which will in a measure, decide on Richmond's chances in the state tournament.

Richmond's team did not join a golf league of any kind this year. It was left out of the Indianapolis-Madison-Anderson-Muncie combination, on account of spite, some said, but it will even up matters. It started Saturday when it defeated Anderson.

Some excellent scores have been made at the local links this summer since the opening of the rather late season. Each afternoon a number of golfers are at work on the links.
